THE CITY OF TORONTO

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF OUR GRAND MASTER

Howard Olin Polk, of Irish and United Empire Loyalist descent, was born in Lombardy (Leeds County), the youngest of a family of three, where his Father, the late Henry Edwin Polk, married to the former Annie Mabel Burns, operated a General Store and Post Office.

After completing his Primary education in the one room brick School, S.S. No. 6, Township of South Elmsley, he graduated with Ontario Honours Matriculation from the Smiths Falls Collegiate Institute, where he starred on the Track and Football Teams. At that time, the existing world economic situation prevented further academic advancement.

Our Brother enlisted in the Canadian Army in 1940, serving with the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps until 1945. The last two years of service involved the disposal of Mechanized Equipment, in Canada, Great Britain, and Continental Europe, through the War Assets Corporation. Following discharge in 1945, Bro. Polk was united in marriage with the former Doris Ullett, a dental nurse. This union has made them both the proud parents of two daughters (Pamela Lea Hoffman, a former Air Stewardess, residing with her husband Carl, and two children, in Miami, Florida; and Penny Heather, who operates her own business in Montreal, Quebec).

Subsequently, our Brother entered the labour force, spending 18 years as a Sales Representative for a National Manufacturer of Paint and Protective Coatings throughout Eastern Ontario. During this time, he completed several extension courses in Sales and Sales Management, Business Management, and Common Law. In 1960, he was appointed a Justice of the Peace for the County of Carleton.

This training and experience led to his appointment as Clerk of the County Court, and Registrar of the Surrogate Court for the Judicial District of Ottawa-Carleton in 1963; and later as Local Registrar of the Supreme Court of Ontario, after having served as President of the Sheriffs' and Court Registrars' Association for the Province of Ontario, in 1976, in which he still maintains a vital interest, as he does in the many aspects of Civil Law.

Our Grand Master has devoted much thought and energy to his governmental and political undertakings, and he has dedicated the same degree of effort to his Masonic involvements during the past forty years, as can be noted from the hereunder listings:

- -Initiated in Otter Lodge No. 504, Lombardy in 1938, and W.M. in 1959.
- —Affiliated with, and Treasurer of Temple Lodge No. 665 Ottawa for 18 years.

- —Chairman of the Committee on Printing and Supplies from 1977 - 1979.

R.A.M.

—Member and Honorary Past First Principal of Carleton Chapter No. 16, Ottawa.

Bro. Polk has been a life long member of the Anglican Church, and has served on various Committees, as well as a Sunday School Teacher.

Vitally interested in the welfare of the National Capital, our Brother is involved in Community affairs, presently a member of the Children's Aid Society, the Men's Canadian Club of Ottawa, and the Central Canada Exhibition Association. His professed hobbies are: outdoor life at their summer cottage, gardening, furniture refinishing and reading — mostly biographies.

Our Grand Master's sincere dignity and service to Masonry over the years is well known, highly respected, and wide spread. We can be confident that he will maintain and uphold the high ideals practiced and sustained by his predecessors.

PAST GRAND MASTERS

The Deputy Grand Master presented our Past Grand Masters who were present, namely: M.W. Bros. W. L. Wright, J. A. Irvine, J. N. Allan, B. B. Foster, W. K. Bailey, G. E. Turner, E. W. Nancekivell, R. E. Davies. Grand Honours were given.

WELCOME BY TORONTO LODGES

R.W. Bro. G. Robert Wilson, D.D.G.M., presented the other District Deputy Grand Masters of the Toronto Districts and the Masters of the Toronto Lodges.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME TO GRAND LODGE 1981

M.W. Bro. N. Richard Richards, Grand Master: M.W. Bros. The Past Grand Masters: Distinguished Visiting Brethren, my Brethren:

On behalf of the Worshipful Masters of the seven Toronto Districts it is my pleasure to extend to you my brethren, assembled here, a warm and cordial welcome to this the 126th Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge.

We deeply value the leadership, M.W. Sir, you have given to our Craft Lodges during the past two years. The dignity, grace and fellowship you have radiated in carrying out your duties have given our Order a tremendous lift.

In addition, the accomplishments and strides Masonry has taken throughout your term have been many and varied and you can be justly proud.

For the record and the edification of the brethren. I would like to recall some of them.

125th Anniversary Year — the play "The Birth of our Grand Lodge".

The publication of the following: "Whence Come We?"

a revised and updated "Constitution", the addendum to the "Installation Ceremonies" —and the "Guidelines for Lodge Officers in the Mechanics of the Work".

You M.W. Sir have travelled far and wide during the past two years. You have attended many Receptions given in your Honour, dedicated Temples and consecrated Lodges, but what has inspired us most, in addition to your involvement and participation, has been your willingness to meet with all the brethren and your ability to make them feel at ease when in your presence, even while discussing Masonry or any other topic with them. I know, you have left your mark on those Masons who were able to meet with you in their own lodges and districts. On their behalf and on behalf of myself, I thank you for passing our way.

Before I conclude, we also wish to express our appreciation for the Special Seminars held July 14th, 1981, under the direction of the very capable Special Events Committee. These Seminars will be of great assistance to the participants and I am certain that I speak for every brother gathered here today when I say thank you — you have set an outstanding example for all of us. We trust that the G.A.O.T.U. will watch over you and bless you with health and happiness for many years to come.

In closing, may I convey my gratitude to you M.W. Sir and you my brethren for the opportunity of welcoming you personally. Let the knowledge gained from this 126th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge be properly applied, that profit and pleasure will be the result.

Thank you.

W. BRO. K. LOSCH Worshipful Master Georgina Lodge No. 343.

GRAND MASTER'S RESPONSE

The Grand Master thanked R.W. Bro. Wilson and acknowledged the contribution the seven Toronto Districts make to each Annual Communication. He thanked W. Bro. Losch for his warm words of welcome. M.W. Bro. Richards remarked that the projects to which Bro. Losch referred had been initiated under Past Grand Masters such as M.W. Bro. Bailey, M.W. Bro. Nancekivell and M.W. Bro. Davies, and that he was pleased and happy to accept the kind remarks on behalf of all those who had a part in the planning, progress and success of our Masonic efforts.

MINUTES

The Grand Secretary proceeded to read the Minutes of the last meeting held in Toronto on July 16, 1980, when it was moved by the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, and resolved: That inasmuch as the Minutes of the last Annual Communication held in Toronto have been printed and distributed to all constituent lodges the same be now taken as read and confirmed.

RULES OF ORDER

Rules of Order as prescribed by the Constitution governing the conduct of the meeting were read by the Grand Secretary.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

It was moved by R.W. Bro. H. O. Polk, seconded by M.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, and unanimously carried, that the Order of Business of this Annual Communication be changed at the discretion of the Grand Master.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

I am happy to welcome you to the 126th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. In a sense we are back to reality after the glow and glitter of our 125th Annual Communication. The excitement and the memory of the many happenings that marked our 125th Anniversary year still occupy a place not only in our memory but in the many visible forms by which lodges and districts chose to recognize it.

It is pleasant to have in our presence representatives from other Grand Jurisdictions. The kindnesses and courtesies enjoyed by those who visited with you in your Grand Jurisdictions are much appreciated. There can be little doubt that visitation provides an occasion to share and think about mutual concerns, but more important, it provides an opportunity to remind ourselves of the strength of Masonry. The large number of brethren here this morning join me in extending to you a warm fraternal welcome.

I am humble in the presence of the brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction. Your respect for the Office of Grand Master, your commitment to the principles of Masonry and your practice of its purpose are admired and appreciated. Time shall not erode away my gratitude to you. I hope we find this communication a stimulating, satisfying experience that will encourage all of us in our Masonic pursuits.

Time does not permit reviewing the many observations and thoughts I would like to share with you. I have chosen the following to illustrate Masonic action in this jurisdiction in the year drawing to a close.

Special Visitor

Your Grand Master was particularly pleased to host a luncheon in August for Sir James and Lady Stubbs. Sir James, following retirement as Grand Secretary of The United Grand Lodge of England, included Canada in his itinerary of a world tour. It was a delight to meet this distinguished Mason and his lady. He was particularly interested in visiting the Memorial Building in Hamilton and visiting with a friend and associate of long standing, Honorary Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary Emeritus, M.W. Bro. Ewart G. Dixon.

Past Grand Masters

Past Grand Masters are a continuing source of strength and encouragement to your Deputy Grand Master and myself. Their experience and judgement assures their wise counsel is and will be most helpful. Contribution to Masonry by our Past Grand Masters finds expression in the important responsibilities they accept, such as Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Custodian of the Work, Chairman of the Committee on Awards, President of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario, Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Jurisprudence, Chairman of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence, Chairman of the Committee on Fraternal Relations and Chairman of the Committee on Lodge Reassessment.

I am sorry that illness prevents M.W. Bro. Ewart G. Dixon, Honorary Past Grand Master, from being with us. We wish for him relief from illness and restoration to health.

M.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell filled the office of Chairman of the Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America. M.W. Bro. Wm. L. Wright was recently made an honorary member of the Knights of Columbus. I am advised that M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan will have served fifty years as a Past District Deputy Grand Master in July of 1981. I am certain that you join with me in extending our thanks and gratitude to these distinguished Past Grand Masters.

The District Deputy Grand Masters

I am happy to recognize and thank the forty-three District Deputy Grand Masters. You are called upon to plan and organize a program in a rather short interval between the close of the Annual Communication and the beginning of Masonic activities in September. Masonry is indebted to you for your quality of leadership, your sincerity of purpose and your significant contribution.

It is appropriate at this point to thank all the districts for the receptions arranged for the Grand Master. I appreciate the effort that is made for these Masonic events. They were well organized and well presented. I commend the format of having the Queen and the Craft Toast at the beginning of the program and closing with the National Anthem. An opportunity to meet with the brethren from the district and the visitors and to enjoy happy fraternal relations will long be remembered. I am certain this feeling is shared by the members of Grand Lodge and others present at the receptions.

I am particularly pleased that on several occasions a district reception was combined with a special function such as an anniversary celebration or dedicating a new temple.

Mrs. Richards joins with me in expressing sincere appreciation for the kindnesses and courtesies extended to us. Our home is adorned with beautiful gifts, many of them having particular reference to the geography and resources of a particular district. Your generous thoughtfulness added to the joy and excitement of being your Grand Master.

The Worshipful Masters

It was my good fortune to meet personally Worshipful Masters and Immediate Past Masters at the district receptions. Once again let me congratulate these brethren and extend the thanks of Grand Lodge to them. The office of Worshipful Master is a very demanding one. The Worshipful Master must offer inspiration and leadership to the officers and members of a lodge. The office of Immediate Past Master is challenging in that it provides an opportunity for cooperation, help and continuing support to the lodge.

Fall Meeting of the Board of General Purposes

The Board of General Purposes is the administrative and executive body of Grand Lodge. A fall meeting of the Board provided a useful forum for discussion about matters related to Grand Lodge. The agenda contained timely topics and allowed for discussion and member participation. The membership of the Board changes following the Communication and we are indebted to those who are leaving for the contribution they made. It is appropriate to recognize R.W. Bro. Cameron Steele and R.W. Bro. Arthur Youngs who are retiring after many years of devoted service.

The Seven Toronto Districts

One is reminded of the gifts of the Seven Toronto Districts by the presence of the antependium at district receptions. The Grand Lodge Banner adds to the setting for Constituting and Consecrating a Lodge and for the Ceremony of Dedicating a Lodge Hall. Both gifts reflect the generosity of the Masons of the Seven Toronto Districts.

Each year our Annual Communication is indebted to the Toronto brethren. Your help and assistance is much appreciated and I am pleased to recognize it with deep sincerity.

Seventeenth Biennial Conference of Grand and District Grand Lodges A.F. and A.M. of Canada

The above noted conference was held on February 12 and 13 in Toronto. Your Grand Lodge was host to the conference and responsible for arrangements and the agenda. It included the State of Freemasonry in the Grand Jurisdiction, Report from the Committee on Fraternal Relations, a panel discussion W⁵ — Masonry in the 80's, Observations and Highlights from the Banff Conference, Report from the Grand Secretaries and Planning for the Future. Your Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master, M.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell as Chairman of the Commission on Information for Recognition, and your Grand Master contributed to the program. M.W. Bro. Nancekivell addressed the banquet session.

The setting of the Conference is illustrated by an excerpt from the welcome to the delegates by your Grand Master.

"The very nature of the geography of Canada makes it difficult for a group such as this to meet frequently. Coming as we do from the several parts of this great country Canada and convened as we are with a common purpose, and I refer of course to Masonry, we are grateful for this opportunity. We gather in the full knowledge that the tenets and principles of our Masonic Order flow across provincial boundaries. We come, in my view, to study and talk about how the interpretation and application of those tenets and principles are combined and integrated for the common good of people of the whole of this country."

The Conference decided to convene again in 1982 and explore the possibility of meeting on an annual basis.

Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America

The Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America was held in Orlando, Florida on February 16, 17, 18. The theme of the conference was "Freemasonry's Responsibility to Society". M.W. Bro. Nancekivell presented the Report of the Commission on Information for Recognition. R.W. Bro. Polk and myself were present. The conference took the form of a series of workshops.

The Grand Secretaries met in separate session. M.W. Bro. Davies and M.W. Bro. Irvine attended that conference.

Necrology

The report on Deceased Brethren contains the names of Grand Lodge Officers who passed away since our last Communication. The Proceedings of this Communication will contain a list of the names of all of our departed brethren.

I am saddened to record the death of M.W. Bro. Clarence F. Carter, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick. He died in England on March 24. M.W. Bro. Carter was present at the 125th Communication and brought greetings from his jurisdiction. Death claimed V.W. Bro. Ronald McKinnon who was appointed Grand Tyler at our 125th Annual Communication. Eastern District suffered the loss of the Secretary to the District Deputy Grand Master in the person of Wor. Bro. Hubert L. Casselman who died on March 16, 1981.

It is with regret I announce the passing of R.W. Bro. (Dr.) F. D. Shannon of Barrie. R.W. Bro. Shannon is especially remembered for his contribution to the Blood Donors Committee. At the time of his death he was an Honorary Member of the Board of General Purposes.

Our sympathy is extended to relatives and their friends and we sorrow in the loss of our brethren. We cherish their memory in our hearts.

Appointments

In January, at his home and in the presence of a small group consisting of brethren and family, Wor. Bro. Ed Lister was appointed a Grand Steward. V.W. Bro. Lister served as Secretary of Melita Lodge No. 605 until forced to resign because of multiple sclerosis. Our thanks to this courageous brother for his contribution to Masonry.

On the occasion of the Toronto Districts Reception the managing editor and publisher of The Freemason, now in its 100th year of publication, was appointed a Grand Steward. V. Wor. Bro. Mahlon F. Beach is a Past Master of Progress Lodge No. 711.

After the death of V.W. Bro. M. Ronald McKinnon, Grand Tyler, V. Wor. Bro. George William Kerr, Ulster Lodge No. 537, was appointed to this office.

I herewith ask for your approval of the above noted appointments.

Honorary Rank

I feel certain you will agree with me that we are much indebted to the editor of The Bulletin. In recognition of his outstanding contribution I am pleased to recommend that the Honorary Rank of Past Grand Senior Warden be conferred on V.W. Bro. R. Wilson McConnell.

Past Rank

Wor. Bro. Hubert Lee Casselman, District Secretary to R.W. Bro. Lloyd G. Eyamie, passed away on March 16, 1981. Bro. Casselman performed the duties of his office with complete satisfaction and I recommend the rank of Past Grand Steward be made posthumously.

I am happy to recommend Past Rank be granted to several brethren who have served the Craft with distinction but for various reasons were not in office for twelve months. I am satisfied that the contribution these brethren have made amply warrants the conferring of the rank of Past Master and I am pleased to so recommend the following:

Wor. Bro. Burns J. Holden, Thistle Lodge No. 250, Embro

Wor. Bro. Allen Murray Johnston, Dominion Lodge No. 598, Windsor

Wor. Bro. Ronald Lorne Kettle, Patterson Lodge No. 265. Thornhill

Wor. Bro. Douglas Merton Gorham, Niagara Lodge No. 2, Niagara-on-the-Lake.

On the recommendation of the respective Grand Lodges I am pleased to appoint the following Grand Representatives near their Grand Lodge.

Special Committees

I look forward to receiving the report and recommendation of the Long Range Planning Committee. I am grateful to the Deputy Grand Master for the concerted effort of this committee in plotting a future for Masonry in the Grand Jurisdiction.

The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances is in place and is approaching its task in a manner that will generate much needed information in an area that is of concern, particularly in inflationary times. I thank V.W. Bro. Samuel H. Cohen and his committee members.

The efforts of the Special Events Committee under the chairmanship of R.W. Bro. C. John Woodburn are already apparent for this Communication. I hope the pattern developed meets with approval and success. The Committee has laboured intensively and we are grateful to them.

William Mercer Wilson Medal

It is a joy to congratulate the recipients of the William Mercer Wilson Medal. The success of Masonry depends so much on voluntary contribution of time and effort. This distinguished award brings with it a deep appreciation for and recognition of service.

Bro. Peter Roy Soldiuk—St. Aidan's Lodge No. 567Bro. Gordon Proctor Sanders—King Solomon's Lodge No. 378

The Custodian of the Work

The need for uniformity of interpretation and oversight of the work cannot be overemphasized. M.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, Custodian of the Work, labours diligently to achieve a high level of proficiency in the lodges of the several districts. I commend him for his excellent effort and thank him for his great contribution.

The Grand Chaplain

Sincere thanks to R.W. Bro. Canon H. C. Secker, Grand Chaplain, for his dedicated quality of performance. Words of high praise and appreciation are well deserved. The contribution of V.W. Bro. D. Bruce Gordon, Assistant Grand Chaplain, is much appreciated.

District Divine Services are an important part of Masonry. I was particularly happy to attend worship with brethren from the Western District in Keewatin and to be present for the service of Niagara District A at Niagara-onthe-Lake.

Grand Master's Banquet

I am pleased that V.W. Bro. B. C. Matthews accepted an invitation to address the brethren on Wednesday evening, July 15. Dr. Matthews is a scholar and is well known for his distinguished career in the field of education. We welcome him as our distinguished speaker.

Conclusion

I am pleased to note the list of awards contained in the Grand Secretary's report. I congratulate the brethren for their dedication and contribution to Masonry and wish for their continued success and pleasure. I know you share with me delight and satisfaction in having three brethren who have served Masonry for seventy-five years, eleven for seventy years and five Past Masters with sixty years' service.

The visits of your Grand Master within and beyond this Grand Jurisdiction are listed in the appendices.

To those with whom I have had the good fortune to work over the past two years I say thanks in the full meaning of the word. In particular, I recognize the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Davies, and a dedicated group in his office. I share with him the loss of devoted staff through retirement and death. Mrs. V. M. Senn retired after 24 years of devoted service. Mrs. Catherine C. Boyd died August 23, 1980. Mrs. V. M. Kiernan passed away on February 20, 1981.

The work of Masonry is never ending. The challenge to hold high the precepts we inherited from those who have gone before is with us always. It is easy for the lustre to dim and our purpose become tarnished. I share with you sadness where and when this happens. I endorse the views contained in the Report of the Committee on Fraternal Relations and may it serve to remind us of our responsibilities.

I join with you in thanks and gratitude for the success we have experienced in this Grand Jurisdiction and urge your full participation as we strive for continuing progress and satisfaction.

Sincerely and fraternally,

N. R. RICHARDS, Grand Master.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

At the conclusion of the Address it was moved by M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, seconded by M.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell, and carried: That a committee, composed of all the Past Grand Masters present, consider and report to Grand Lodge on the Grand Master's Address. The motion was put by the Deputy Grand Master.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DECEASED BRETHREN

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Brethren, may I request for the following moments that each in his own words and each in his own way shun all thoughts of this earthly abode to pause and remember with dignity, reverence, love and respect those of our Brothers who since our last Communication have withdrawn from mortal eye.

We do sigh in vain "O for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." Our departed Brethren have left behind fond memories of good fellowship of high purpose and an honest endeavour. We associate our sympathies with those to whom the ties of love had bound them in, perhaps, more intimate relationships, and with them mourn their loss and revere their memory.

It has been well said that Masonry to-day is what it is because of the self-sacrifice and devotion of elder brethren. And it is surely true that if we have a high conception of the Craft, if Masonry comes well prepared to the tasks that confront her, it is because we have sat at the feet of an older generation who placed the fraternity in the forefront of their lives. From failing hands they pass the torch to us. God grant we may prove worthy of the trust.

Life's race well run Life's work well done Life's victory won Now cometh rest.

Varied have been their natural aptitudes, and their contributions to the advancement of Freemasonry in the individual lodges, in their Masonic Districts and in the Grand Jurisdiction as a whole. Some have been prominent in our assemblies and others have rendered service in an inconspicuous manner, each according to his gifts and his opportunities to render assistance to and develop friendship with his fellowmen.

I am most grateful for the support that I have received from the members of this Committee. Your letters of recommendation have been passed to the Grand Secretary for the contemplation of the Grand Master. Through the years as Chairman of this Committee I have been repeatedly reminded from all corners of our Grand Jurisdiction as to the quality of the Masonic Memorial Service. To those in charge, have those Brethren who are best suited take part. A quiet dignity must prevail, and a good turn-out is expected. It is much preferred that if the Memorial Service cannot be conducted properly it should not take place.

There are those lodges who are holding an annual Memorial Service to the memory of their departed brethren. This is a splendid idea and one which could be practised throughout this province. It has been suggested that a District Memorial Service take place. This idea does deserve consideration.

In concluding my brethren, let there be no moaning of the bar because they have put out to sea. We express our gratitude for their examples, their influences and their accomplishments. Their works are not forgotten and their memories remain with us.

Of our honoured dead, we can say.

The working tools have fallen from their grasp, The journey ended for their weary feet; Death holds their tired hands in gentle clasp; Their work is done, their temples are complete.

We will observe a one minute silence in memory of those Departed Brethren whose names have been engraved in the printed form.

May they rest in peace — So mote it be.

Memorial Service

Opening: As their years have swiftly flown, As their building days are done,

Lord of all, now grant Thy crown:

"LIFE" for evermore

Response (said by all)
Whether we live, we live unto the Lord;
and whether we die, we die unto the Lord:
whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's

Prayer of Invocation:

Eternal God and Creator of our lives, we thank Thee for this opportunity of remembering those who have gone before us, faithfully serving their day and generation. Grant us Thy presence now as we again seek for the continuing guidance of Thy hand, and for the spirit of brotherhood which has brought us to this hour; and to Thee be all the glory and praise. Amen.

Responsive Reading (from Psalm 139)

- There is not a word on my tongue but thou, Lord, knowest it all.
- 2. Thou hast kept close guard before me and behind and hast spread thy hand over me.
- Such knowledge is beyond my understanding, so high that I cannot reach it.
- 4. Where can I escape from thy spirit? Where can I flee from thy presence?
- 5. If I climb up to heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in Sheol, again I find thee.
- 6. If I take my flight to the frontiers of the morning, or dwell at the limit of the western sea
- even there thy hand will meet me, and thy right hand will hold me fast.
- If I say, "Darkness will surely cover me, and night close around me."

- 9. darkness is not dark to thee and night is bright as the day; to thee both dark and light are one.
- Search me, O God, and know my heart; and lead me in the way everlasting.

Memorial Prayer (the brethren stand at the S. of F.)

Almighty God, Supreme Ruler and Architect of the Universe and of our lives, we thank Thee for the brethren who have sat with us in our Lodges and have been elevated to the Grand Lodge Above. We are grateful for their commitment to the high ways of living, and for their achievements in the cause of Brotherhood, Justice and Truth. We would commit into Thy care the widow and the fatherless. Uphold and comfort them, supplying their every need.

Now direct us in the course of our earthly toil. Make us worthy of those who have gone before that we may build with care and perseverance. We are assured of being within Thy watchful presence wherever we are and whatever we do. Daily strengthen us in fulfilling our alloted tasks that we, too, may be received into those immortal mansions where all faithful workmen are crowned with Thy gift of everlasting life.

Amen.

All Respond: So mote it be.

I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are past away." And he who sat upon the throne said, "Behold I make all things new."

The Benediction:

May the Lord of Life, eternal God and Ruler, grant us His truth to teach us, His love to unite us, and His light to lead us through this, and all coming days.

Amen.

D. BRUCE GORDON, Asst. Grand Chaplain

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee on Deceased Brethren.

W. LORNE PACEY,

Chairman.

As the Grand Secretary called the roll of Grand Representatives of other Grand Lodges those who were present stood up and were welcomed by the Grand Master. Grand Honours were then given under the direction of the Grand Director of Ceremonies.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We have examined the summary of resources of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as at April 30, 1981 and the various statements of receipts and disbursements as indexed for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario as at April 30, 1981 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The 1980 financial statements which are presented for comparative purposes were reported on by another auditor.

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am afraid that unlike my previous reports to Grand Lodge this one cannot be looked upon as a 'Sunshine Report.' Unfortunately, our disbursements exceeded our receipts by $80,075, which produced a deficit of considerable magnitude.

Increased expenditures were responsible for the deficit. It can be said, however, that the expenditures were justified. and indicated progressive action on the part of those Brethren responsible. I would like to mention four of the larger items that were largely responsible for the resulting deficit. Following a decision to fully fund our Employee Pension Fund the sum of $25,000 was set aside, the income from which will compensate for the lack of contribution to a pension fund by Grand Lodge on behalf of three employees previous to the establishment of a pension plan. This action relieves Grand Lodge of any financial responsibility to an employee at the time of separation or death, other than that provided by the pension plan. Secondly, it was decided to purchase a much larger quantity of lapel pins than usual because they were available from old stock at a very attractive price; this will be a worthwhile saving for Grand Lodge in future years. The cost of the pins was $17,000. Thirdly, grants for Benevolence were $8,000 greater than in the previous year and $18,000 greater than in the year 1978-79.

The fourth has to do mainly with the publication of the book "Whence Come We?" Many brethren ordered and paid for the book in the year 1979-80. These funds were credited to our 1979-80 receipts which improved that statement to the extent of $16,000. Conversely, when the books were printed and paid for these funds were withdrawn and became a part of the expenditures. I should also inform you that in order to procure a reasonable quotation for the printing of the books it was thought advisable to order 25,000 copies, which number would satisfy the immediate demand and have sufficient copies available for future needs. Our accounts are processed on a cash basis, therefore no credit is given for inventory on hand.

The good news in my report is that we are receiving increased income from our investments. As low interest bonds mature they are replaced by bonds bearing a higher interest return.

Your Grand Treasurer commends the Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee for his recommendation to increase the per capita tax by 50 cents per member per year. The Demon responsible for the increase in expenditures is, of course, "INFLATION." Much is said and written about reducing and controlling inflation but nothing beneficial seems to result. I should like to again draw the attention of our officers and members of Grand Lodge to the further progress being made in fully funding the commutation of the dues of Life Members. The capital at the year's end was $189,941 — up from $172,121 at the close of the previous year. This capital produced income of $17,394 which, when coupled with a grant from Grand Lodge of $8,000, provided $25,394 to compensate for the lack of per capita tax from Life Members.

I am again indebted to the Grand Secretary and his staff for their assistance in facilitating the work of the Grand Treasurer and to the Chairman of the Committee on Audit and Finance for his wise counsel.

Bro. A. W. Parish, who has served our institution well as Auditor for many years, sold his practice during the year to H. R. Doane and Company, also of Hamilton. Bro. Doane's company has continued as Auditor and has prepared the Annual Financial Report for presentation to Grand Lodge. This report sets out our financial operations during the year and the state of our finances at year end. I recommend the careful perusal of this statement by the brethren.

I regret that the Committee on Audit and Finance are budgeting for another deficit in the coming year. The necessity of replenishing the supply of copies of The Work, at a cost of $30,000, is largely responsible for this situation. As was the situation in ordering the book "Whence Come We?" it is necessary to place a large order to obtain the book at a reasonable price.

I should like to remind our brethren that sales of books from stock will be most helpful in enabling your Grand Treasurer to avoid the use of red ink. Our books are well written and contain much worthwhile information — any brother can be proud to add one or all of these to his library.

Fraternally submitted,

JAMES N. ALLAN, Grand Treasurer.

Nevertheless, they have accepted the challenge and have continued to apply their many talents with great dedication in continued service to the Craft.

Again, I must reiterate the pleasure it has been to work with our Grand Master, whose understanding, concern and co-operation have greatly assisted in the discharge of my responsibilities. Please be assured that your many acts of kindness have not gone unnoticed and are deeply appreciated.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

Grand Secretary.

The Reports of the 43 District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Grand Secretary and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, they were received and referred to the Board of General Purposes.

COMMITTEE OF SCRUTINEERS

The Grand Master appointed R.W. Bro. Robert Strachan, Chairman of the Committee of Scrutineers, to supervise and count the vote at the election of Grand Lodge officers, with power to name the members of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

M.W. Bro. B. B. Foster presented this Report and read the Foreword to the Reviews. The Deputy Grand Master then moved, seconded by M.W. Bro. B. B. Foster, that the Report be received and adopted: Carried.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Nancekivell, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

At the Annual Meeting of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America held in Orlando, Florida in February, I had the honour to preside as Chairman of the Commission on Information for Recognition. The Standards of Recognition maintained by that Commission were restated and are as follows:

- 1. Legitimacy of origin.
- 2. Exclusive territorial jurisdiction.
- Adherence to the Ancient Landmarks, specifically a belief in God, the Volume of the Sacred Law as an indispensable part of the furniture of the lodge, and the prohibition of politics and religion.

The Grand Jurisdictions that came before the scrutiny of the Commission this year were: South Africa, Iran, Spain, Portugal, Alaska, Belgium, Ecuador, Nigeria and Cuba. Of these Grand Lodges, the only one that necessitates action on the part of our Grand Lodge is Alaska.

There were nineteen lodges operating in the State of Alaska, all chartered by the Grand Lodge of Washington. Twelve of these on February 4, 1981 (at a convention called in advance for the purpose) voted to form a Grand Lodge of Alaska and the officers of this new Grand Lodge were installed on February 6, 1981. Since the Grand Lodge of Washington has exclusive territorial jurisdiction within the State of Washington only, and Alaska was "open territory", and since most of the other Grand Lodges in the United States of America had their origin under similar circumstances, the Commission was of the opinion that the Grand Lodge of Alaska was organized in accordance with regular Masonic procedure and is therefore entitled to and worthy of recognition.

Your Committee on Fraternal Relations, therefore, after receiving a request for recognition from the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alaska, M.W. Bro. James A. Williams, dated February 23, 1981, recommends to the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario that recognition be granted to the newly formed Grand Lodge of Alaska.

There have been recent articles in the press concerning the P2 (Propaganda 2) lodge in Italy and the alleged use of Masonry, through membership in this lodge, to further the political ambitions and machinations of some members of the Italian Government. Information has come from the Grand Orient of Italy confirming that the P2 lodge was suspended from that Grand Lodge in 1976 and so has been operating entirely apart from regular Freemasonry in Italy. Therefore, no action should be recommended to, or taken by our Grand Lodge.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ERIC W. NANCEKIVELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. C. W. Emmett, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Emmett, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present on behalf of the Benevolence Committee this report of its activities during the past 12 months. It has been a most active and interesting year. In arranging with the Supervisor of Benevolence the Regional meetings with the District Benevolence Supervisors we adopted a policy of encouraging the D.D.G.M.s, the Lodge Benevolence Chairmen and as many of the Lodge Officers to attend as possible. We are happy to report this policy greatly increased the attendance and it is our feeling that much good can be gained by such a policy.

This past year we also adopted a policy of discussing the program of the Benevolence Committee with as many lodges and Past Masters' Associations as possible. In the presentation we acquainted the brethren with the number of cases we handled per year, the amount of money expended and one or two examples of typical cases. This program was very well received and proved most interesting to a large number of brethren.

The annual meeting of the Committee was held on June 12 and 13 at the Grand Lodge office. The first order of business was to receive the report of the Supervisor of Benevolence, R.W. Bro. James Guy. This report reflects in detail the number of cases handled during the year, the amount of money allocated and of greater importance, reflected the great patience and understanding and competent manner in which the work of the Committee is carried out by our dedicated Supervisor.

At this meeting 78 applications were carefully considered of which 10 were new cases. Unfortunately, in spite of the extra effort carried out by the Supervisor of Benevolence and myself as Chairman, we still experienced a number of lodges which for one reason or another had neglected to comply with the Rules of Benevolence and did not have the application forms in our hands at the time of the meeting. It will, therefore, be necessary for our committee to meet briefly at the next General Communication of Grand Lodge to attend to these outstanding applications.

Your Committee has considered all applications with the utmost care and recommends that the sum of $75,000.00 be provided for benevolence in the year 1981-1982.

The Boards of Relief throughout the Province have been especially helpful during the past year. They have assisted the Supervisor of Benevolence in many ways. For this and the work they have carried out we express our deep gratitude.

The Committee recommends continuing membership in the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada.

We are pleased to report that the new forms which were adopted at the last communication of Grand Lodge were printed and distributed. They have proven to be very satisfactory and well received by the lodges.

To the several lodges who have established their own Benevolent Fund and have an active Benevolence Committee we offer our congratulations. It should be borne in mind that Benevolence is the primary responsibility of the lodge and Grand Lodge is glad to supplement lodge grants.

The Committee recognizes the assistance given by both the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Chairmen of Benevolence. It can be safely said that without the interest of these brethren the work of our Committee would be badly hampered. The Committee expresses a wish that those brethren who have served in the past as District Chairmen and have fulfilled their duties satisfactorily be continued in their office. We therefore urge each newly elected District Deputy Grand Master to consider the re-appointment of the present Chairmen of Benevolence where their work has been satisfactory. The experience they have gained will be of much assistance in the work we all have to do.

New Project

The question of preparing a pamphlet on the work of the Benevolence Committee has been under consideration for quite some time.

During the past few months a small sub committee of the Benevolence Committee has been assembling the material for such a booklet. This material was presented to the Committee at our annual meeting. It was approved with a motion that the material form part of this report with our recommendation that such a booklet be printed and distributed.

It is the feeling of the Committee that such a booklet be distributed at least seven to each lodge, one for the Master, Jr. and Sr. Warden, Jr., Sr. Deacon, Chairman of Benevolence and Secretary, no charge.

The Committee also asks me to extend our thanks to the Hamilton Past Masters' Association for their hospitality at our Annual Meeting. Each year they provide refreshments for a Friday night coffee break, and it provides a very pleasant and welcome interlude in our deliberations.

We would draw to your attention that while the Benevolence Committee like other committees have their term run from one July to the next, the financial figures shown below represent the monies expended by the Benevolence Committee for the period May 1, 1980 to April 30, 1981, this being the financial year of Grand Lodge.

Grants for the Year 1980-81:-

Grants paid (84) totalling	$66,830.00 12,752.00 1,000.00
Total	$80,582.00
Less Refunds	275.00 1,665.00
Net Total	78,642.00

In conclusion, may I express my personal thanks and appreciation to the Most Worshipful Grand Master for the honour and privilege of serving Grand Lodge as Chairman of this Committee. To record my profound thanks to all of the members of the Committee, the Supervisor of Benevolence, the Grand Secretary and his staff for their dedication, co-operation and willing assistance at all times.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

CHARLES W. EMMETT, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. E. Groshaw. Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Groshaw, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

CONGRATULATIONS:-To all Masonic Blood Donors. During the past year, you not only raised the total donations, but you increased, again, the percentage increment related to our total membership.

Every ten years, all Canadians are subjected to a census. The Masonic blood donors of Ontario are committed to their census every year and I wish to extend a sincere 'thank-you' to the District Chairmen who compiled the total donations for each district. Your diligence and encouragement to the lodges in your region resulted in gains in more than half of our districts.

All the District Chairmen had frustrations this past year:

Firstly—They were adversely affected by the newspaper report last September about the controversy that raged over the transfusion service contract with a non-Canadian laboratory for splitting plasma into its components.

Secondly—Scientific and fiscal considerations by the Red Cross Transfusion Service caused certain marginal or low yielding clinics at a distance from the laboratory processing facilities to be suspended. This resulted in less accessible clinics to many of our rural districts.

Thirdly—Many donors were unhappy when their blood was refused because of changes in age or health. (National donor selection criteria are developed with donor and recipient safety constantly in mind.)

Finally—The perpetual problem of some Masons being too modest to report their acts of charity, kept our statistics below the actual donations.

It gives me pleasure to report the comparative tabulation of this year's total compared with last year;

Being your Chairman of the Blood Donor's Committee has been a rewarding experience this past year and I am indebted to the members of this committee and the D.D.G.M.s for all their efforts. I enjoyed my liaison with the Canadian Red Cross and I thank all of them and all of you for that untiring enthusiasm demonstrated in our mutual endeavor to make blood and its components available to all those who so require.

Another feature has been the warm welcome received in so many lodges and districts while encouraging participation of our membership. It was exciting to learn about the number of Masons who have contributed an outstanding number of donations. I am pleased that some districts recognize their members who have donated 100 times. One realizes that by giving blood every 3 months, it takes 25 years to accumulate that many donations. I recently travelled to Peterborough to make the presentation of a beautifully framed certificate acknowledging the 100 donations given by the chairman of that district. In early April, Brother Norman White of Petrolia Lodge No. 194, donated his 208th unit of blood. What a record!

During the year, your committee has received many comments and suggestions. These were appreciated and, where appropriate, were transmitted to the Red Cross Transfusion Service. We trust that you are pleased with those recommendations that have been implemented, and that others are presently being initiated.

The Committee respectfully suggest that this Grand Lodge might give consideration to suitably recognizing those brethren who have donated 100 units or more of blood.

Brethren, 'keep up the good work' so that we may continue to improve our blood donation census.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted, on behalf of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. J. Connor, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Connor, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

How stands the condition of Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction in July of 1981? Let me quote from the report of R.W. Bro. Robert Cumming of Western District regarding Ionic Lodge, No. 461, Rainy River:

"This is rather an unbelievable lodge. Its quarters are not good, the town is dying, its membership is small, almost half of its members are non-resident, with many quite old and a few young members. But this lodge practices Masonry. Not affluent, but in 'good shape,' this lodge is generous in its help in many community ventures, never forgets those ill or in distress, and generally does, without thinking twice, things that larger lodges would have trouble emulating. At an unexpected visit, this lodge would not have enough Masons present to open if not for the visitors, but a quick phone check soon shows that every hale Mason in the town was present. It has its troubles, but Masonry is really alive here."

From R.W. Bro. Stan Welstead is an account of the Divine Service held in conjunction with the Bicentennial Celebrations of Niagara-on-the-Lake. This service, held on a Sunday afternoon, joined the talents of our Grand Master and those of the Lord Mayor of the town. The Masons filled St. Mark's Anglican Church and their participation greatly enhanced the image of Masonry as well as making this event one of the highlights of the town's celebrations.

All of our District Deputy Grand Masters can recite like stories from their own districts to let us know that Masonry is alive and well and living in the Province of Ontario. To reinforce this positive position, three new lodges have been added to our rolls, granted warrants and constituted and consecrated during this Masonic year: Friendship Lodge No. 732, Georgetown; Anniversary Lodge No. 733, Brampton (our only daytime lodge); and West Gate Lodge No. 734, Streetsville. All three lodges have healthy starts and we wish for them long, active and productive lives.

New temples have been provided for the Masons of Owen Sound, Sarnia, Pembroke and West Lorne. These buildings are a credit to their members and an asset to their communities.

Each of our reporters have expressed their gratitude to their district members for electing them to office and for supporting them during their term; to the Grand Master for confirming their election; to their district officers for dedicated and active support; and to their Mother lodge for nominating them for office. Where a district reception was held for the Grand Master, each District Deputy Grand Master has been high in his praise of the message and the ease of communication of M.W. Bro. Richards. They have also indicated the pleasure they have derived in being able to act for Grand Lodge; to present William Mercer Wilson Medals to outstanding members of our Craft; 50, 60 and 70 year pins to our veteran members; bursary awards on behalf of the Masonic Foundation of Ontario: 'Certificate of Merit' Awards for the new Correspondence Study Group; and to officially congratulate such eminent and active Masons as R.W. Bro. Gordon Bunker (91) of Oshawa and W. Bro. William McGraw (100) of Toronto for their unique contributions to the cause of Masonry.

As you can imagine with an area as large as the Province of Ontario, there are many varied and diverse Masonic highlights to be cited. Let me quote a few:

- Florence Lodge was completely refurbished, totally paid by member subscription,
- —Tourist Night in Strong Lodge, Sundridge, held in August, had a packed house,
- —one lodge held a 'Door to Door' campaign to clean up dues arrears, a tremendous success.
- —Toronto 2 conducted a special fund campaign and raised more than $4,000 to add to the Toy Library for Mentally Retarded Children and to obtain a Platelet Rotator for the Red Cross Society,

- —St. Lawrence District started Officer instruction meetings for the Worshipful Masters, Wardens and Junior Officers of the District. These meetings were held with excellent attendance and participation.
- —many lodges have visitation to the widows of members at Christmas and also make certain that these widows are invited (and taken) to the annual Ladies' Night,
- —Ashlar Lodge, No. 247, Toronto, annually visit Blue Mountain Camp for Crippled Children to prepare and paint the camp for the coming season. This involves all members from the oldest to the youngest.
- —Sunrise Breakfast Services, started 22 years ago by Kilwinning Lodge No. 64, London, are increasing. St. Thomas, Chatham and Hamilton now have successful annual services too.
- —Wellington Square Lodge No. 725, reports a 67% average attendance, and
- —District Newsletters, Walk-a-thons, Past Masters and Officers Associations, Centennials and Anniversaries, in many districts, increased Masonic activity and awareness.

These are but a few of the great number of activities listed by the District Deputy Grand Masters. But there are, as well, those items which can only by catagorized as concerns and require more of our attention.

In the report from the Chatham District, R.W. Bro. Philip Emerick had this to say:

"During the research for my submission to the Fall meeting of the Board of General Purposes in November, amid the wealth of ideas that came forth from the input of the eleven other District Deputy Grand Masters, the single, most serious problem has to be declining membership. This problem is not new and no one has the solution to rid our frame of its cancer, but I am firmly convinced that efforts can and must be initiated that will involve our boys and young men, the Masons of Tomorrow. We must be ever mindful that the ultimate success of our fraternity is dependent on the acceptance of its precepts by the youth of this generation. To lose them could well be a mortal wound."

Others have expressed this same anxiety and, as well, a concern about lodge finances. It is to be hoped that all lodges not showing a healthy balance, will seek advice and guidance from the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances to help them overcome their insecure position.

Many temple boards need to be encouraged to look towards increasing fire safety. We cannot rely on luck to keep us out of danger in the event of fire. We need every possible precaution established as early as available.

In the extreme Eastern districts, several lodges are in a very precarious state. This is not their own doing but is caused by local conditions. These lodges need to have the district assist them to revitalize, to bolster their morale and their activity level and to find ways to overcome the bleak outlook they face. Without this assistance, it may become necessary to amalgamate two or more lodges or even to have them just surrender their charter.

In summarizing these district activity reports, several items, in addition to those already mentioned, are emphasized. We, therefore, recommend:

- 1) that all lodge initiation fees not yet adjusted to meet the minimum established by Section 378 of the Constitution, be corrected before December 31, 1981.
- 2) that insurance coverage on lodge buildings and lodge furnishings and regalia be kept under constant scrutiny. Many report that the present coverage is totally inadequate and immediate attention to this item is vital.
- 3) that request for payment of dues be made by invoice and NOT by an item in the lodge summons.
- 4) that each lodge establish a Finance Committee to prepare a budget, to recommend changes in the Fees and Dues structure and to assist the officers to operate within that budget structure. One district report stated that some lodges and buildings reflect a 'shoestring' attitude that is very apparent by the lack of paint and maintenance.
- 5) that an annual Financial statement be mailed to all members so that they may know the actual financial condition of their lodge.

Before this report is concluded, we must be allowed to thank and pay tribute not only to the District Deputy Grand Masters, but to their dedicated District Secretaries, the District Chaplains and the Chairmen of the District Committees of Benevolence, Blood Donors and Masonic Education. They have all made a significant contribution and are to be commended for their diligence. One prevalent comment from many District Deputy Grand Masters is that they wish they had received much more information and instruction before they accepted the mantle of office. The workshop for prospective District Deputy Grand Masters scheduled for the Tuesday preceding the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge is, they feel, a step in the right direction, but that it is too close to the election to be truly effective. They have expressed the hope that the venture will be such a success that it will lead to expanded instruction seminars in the future at which attendance will become not only desirable, but mandatory for all potential Grand Lodge officers.

To conclude this summation, may I again quote from R.W. Bro. Emerick:

"As my year draws to a close, I am ever reminded that, although I had prepared a great deal in advance in ideas and knowledge, I find that the dictates of the office caused me to research and discover great magnitudes of knowledge that, given normal circumstances, I would have avoided. I, therefore, feel very selfish that I have received much more than I could possibly impart and, subsequently, I have resolved that I shall always be prepared to assist my district whenever possible in the future."

Here is a resolution we all could and should adopt as it is only by such individual commitment that the Condition of Masonry can be maintained, improved and enhanced for the betterment of all Masons.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ROD J. CONNOR, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. A. L. Copeland, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Copeland, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The committee for the 125th Anniversary acted as a catalyst in energizing lodges throughout our jurisdiction to renovate existing or building new Masonic Temples.

Many of these additions or renovated buildings were started last year during the term of my predecessor, R.W. Bro. Eric Horwood. Others were completed this year, resulting in an abnormal number of Dedications by our Most Worshipful Grand Master.

R.W. Bro. Horwood served as Chairman of our committee for ten years. We owe him a great debt of gratitude for his diligence and the outstanding contributions he has made to the Craft during his term of office.

As a committee, here are the services we can perform:

- (a) FINANCIAL FEASIBILITY becomes a major concern in any building program. With inflationary trends, an in-depth study is required to justify any major building project.
- (b) PRACTICABILITY—will it meet the lodge requirements, medium and long range needs.
- (c) COMPLIANCE—how can we best assist the brethren in assuring they meet the stringent requirements of Federal, Provincial, Municipal and Grand Lodge ordinances.

Assistance is only forthcoming based on the information supplied. It is essential that, in your initial inquiries, as much detailed background information as possible be included, concerning your proposed building project.

With the rash of fires that we have witnessed this year in many public buildings (that were considered fire-proof), your committee stresses the need for built-in safety in any major renovation or building of a new Masonic Temple. We recommend the use of smoke detectors strategically placed in new as well as existing structures. Your committee, in consultation with the Ontario Fire Marshal's department, also suggests the use of emergency lighting to illuminate exits in case of power disruption. Descriptive pamphlets covering both these devices are usually available from local municipal offices.

With ever escalating costs for both energy and materials, it has become quite evident to your committee that a prime factor in the overall economic consideration in new Temple construction, is to assure that sufficient revenue will be generated from either Commercial, Masonic, or Concordant body rentals. Buildings can no longer be erected for one or two day usage per month. Capital outlay, high interest rates, maintenance, taxes, insurance and other sundry items are all part of our inflationary trend.

We note, with interest, the action of a D.D.G.M. in Eastern Ontario, in creating a "Committee on Buildings" for his district, to inspect existing lodge buildings, and make recommendations to the Masters concerned. The calibre of the people heading this committee, and the concern for safety in existing buildings by the committee, is to be commended. This extra activity at the local level should be encouraged.

With our new Constitution firmly entrenched, your committee will be updating the Grand Lodge Building booklets LB 1, LB 2 and LB 3. In this revision, certain items will be included keeping in mind energy constraints now becoming mandatory in new construction.

The desirability of holding title to Masonic property by a Nonprofit Holding Company without share capital is recognized by this Committee and we recommend this method to ensure that the property is definitely owned and vested in the members of the lodge. Your enquiries should be directed to the Grand Secretary for information on this particular type of incorporation.

Finally, the reviving ferment which we have all experienced in our 125th year has been an absorbing experience in the amazing stewardship of our Grand Lodge. We have had the opportunity of meeting brethren with rare and diverse talents, which has created for your committee a noble adventure in being able to serve our noble and beloved Craft.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

A. LOU COPELAND, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. F. J. Bruce, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bruce, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of your Library Committee, it is my pleasure to present the following report to the 126th Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge.

The members of the Committee are Rt. Wor. Bros. Lance F. Buttler, Paul A. Curry, G. Robert Wilson, James A. J. Hughes, Stewart A. Dow, J. Donald Black, Douglas A. Lithgow with the undersigned as Chairman.

Having taken over the Chairmanship of your Grand Lodge Library in July 1980 by appointment of The Most Worshipful the Grand Master, I thank him and this Grand Lodge for the confidence placed in me and the honour of serving the Brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction.

Since the inception of the Grand Lodge Library in 1933 under the Chairmanship of M. Wor. Bro. W. J. Dunlop (Grand Master in 1937-38) there have been in its 48 years, 14 Chairmen who have served it well.

In that time Grand Lodge has been privileged to have as Librarians

Bro. N. W. J. Haydon, 1934 to 1951 Rt. Wor. Bro. Arthur E. MacGregor 1951-1967 Bro. William J. McKee 1968 to this present day

Rt. Wor. Bro. Wallace McLeod in paying tribute to Bro. William J. McKee, stated that he keeps on "administering his bailiwick with a characteristic blend of asperity and compassion, helping those who want guidance, showing firmness to those who needed discipline and spending innumerable hours answering requests." I can only say that this year as well as in his past 14 years, he has served his brethren well and on your behalf I extend to him our thanks for his service to his Brother Masons.

Our library would not be able to operate without the help of our volunteer staff. On your behalf I express to them our sincere thanks for their reliability in being at the library one night a month to give help and assistance to those who seek Masonic knowledge. They are as follows: W. Bro. Neil McDonald (Vaughan Lodge No. 54), W. Bro. Brian McWhirter (Doric Lodge No. 316), Bro. Bruce Findlay (Universe Lodge No. 705), W. Bro. George Blackie (Simcoe Lodge No. 644), W. Bro. Reg. Medhurst (Long Branch Lodge No. 632), Rt. Wor. Bro. Coulson Malloy (Vaughan Lodge No. 54), V.W. Bro. Robert McIlroy (Riverdale Lodge No. 494), W. Bro. Anthony Jenik (Huron Bruce Lodge No. 611), Rt. W. Bro. Clifford Baxter (Dentonia Lodge No. 651), Bro. John Pollard (Wexford Lodge No. 683), Bro. Alan K. Morris (Melita Lodge No. 605), Bro. A. H. N. Good (The General Mercer Lodge No. 548) Bro. J. Albert Peddie (Patricia Lodge No. 587).

Because of their willingness we have been able to service the Library Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. and on Friday afternoon from 12 till 2:15 p.m.

For the year 1980-81, 112 brethren have visited the Library, 130 have had the loan of books, 85 in town and 45 out of town, while Lodges and brethren have requested and used the audiovisual slides and tapes 18 times.

Last November your Committee felt that there was a need for the Library to be of greater service to our brethren in supplying them with Masonic information. Rt. Wor. Bro. Byron S. Edmondson reported in 1955 that the pursuit of knowledge is much like the cultivation of a garden. One must prepare the soil, plant the seed, weed out the unwanted and harmful influences until plants become sturdy and productive; and that in the pursuit of knowledge a Library is almost indispensable for the cultivation of our Masonic Garden.

Your committee prepared kits of material for distribution to all 645 lodges through the offices of the District Deputy Grand Masters. 65 subjects were selected from the Transaction of Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Research and other sources. Your Committee recognized that it would be at least two months for any results to be forthcoming. We have been greatly encouraged that during the past four months, 80 papers have been requested and mailed. As a result of these papers and some donations to the Library we will be able to offset expenses. Your Committee feels sure that in the year to follow with a repeat of these kits to all Lodge Chairmen as well as other material your Library will be able to serve a greater number of brethren in its Outreach program.

Your Committee feel in order that your Library can best serve the brethren of our 647 lodges that it is necessary to have a line of communication. We have requested of the District Deputy Grand Masters to have on their Committee a Library Chairman, to work with the Grand Lodge Library and through to the Lodge Library Chairman. I take this time to express on behalf of your Library Committee and you my brethren our sincere appreciation and thanks to all D.D.G.M.s for their cooperation over the past year.

We find that in the past only a few Districts had Library Chairmen and as a result we find these Districts showed a marked difference in the distribution of Masonic knowledge.

Having done a comprehensive study of the activities of the Library from reports of preceding Chairmen, since 1933 till the present day, I find a serious decline in the use of the Library over the past few years. There could be a number of factors for this, such as location of Library, Library hours and Library Management, plus cost of publicity. Your committee recommends to Grand Lodge that a study be undertaken to provide some solution to these problems and that your committee be permitted to make such improvements as it sees necessary to make your Library a more wide spread and useful instrument in the cultivation and distribution of Masonic knowledge for all who wish to avail themselves of this service.

Through the reports of the D.D.G.M.s many lodges in our Grand Jurisdiction have small Libraries of their own and in order to assist the brethren I list for you once again the addresses of supply houses.

The sole Canadian distributor is Masonic Book Sales, P. O. Box 250, Pefferlaw, Ontario LOE 1N0; Macoy Publishing Company, P. O. Box 9825, Richmond, Virginia 23228; A. Lewis Publishers, Terminal House, Shepperton Middlesex TW17 8AS. Masonic Service Association, 8120 Fenton Street, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910. Masonic Book Club, 317 North Main Street, Bloomington, Illinois 61701. Quatuor Coronati Correspondence Circle, 27 Great Queen Street, London WC2B 5BB.

In closing may I express our sincere appreciation to the 43 District Deputy Grand Masters, M.W. Bro. Robert E. Davies, Grand Secretary and his staff in Hamilton and Rt. W. Bro. Wallace McLeod for their cooperation and counsel.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of your Committee.

FRANK J. BRUCE, Chairman

REPORT OF THE LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. H. O. Polk, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. J. Napier, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Long Range Planning Committee, I have the honour to present this the second report to the 126th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

The Committee met formally in October 1980, in March and in May 1981. As was indicated in our report of July 1980, the Committee, having been newly structured, undertook three areas of inspection namely: Finance, Structure and Organization; and Commitment and Awareness of Members. An Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances was appointed by our Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. Richards, and initiated a program which will provide guidance and assistance on matters of finance, permitting the Committee to abandon that study, and concentrate on the other two. In addition we ventured into some other problem areas which were suggested in submissions received from constituent Lodge Officers and Members.

Commitment and Awareness

A summary of the submissions received, indicates a need for:

- (1) Organized programs of education for Candidates, Officers, and lodge members, directed if possible from the District level.
- (2) Duties and responsibilities of sponsors should be stressed, and made available in booklet form.

- (3) Worshipful Masters and Officers should strive to increase attendance at regular meetings.
- (4) There should be a concentrated effort on the part of Lodge Officers to halt resignations whether prompted by indifference, or otherwise.

Structure and Organization

This is the area that characterizes the greatest challenge. Submissions and suggestions received from lodge members weigh heavily to a change in structure of the Board of General Purposes. Procedure is the problem. The nature of our Grand Jurisdiction, for example, poses many questions. The massive geographic spread, large Metropolitan areas; people of diversified backgrounds, and ethnic origins. Smaller towns, hamlets, and villages with populations reluctant to change are factors which make it difficult to recommend a structure that will fairly reflect geographic representation, and, at the same time, accommodate the areas with the greater number of lodges, and membership rolls.

To intensify the complexity of the problem, the submissions revealed conflicting views on the present structure. Some expressed the views that the Board of General Purposes is too rigid, while others maintain that it offers too little guidance and direction. Some suggest an increase in the Board Membership while others feel it is composed of too many members. Except one recommendation that is to follow herein the Committee takes the view that the various viewpoints relating to structure warrant further study. Such matters as restructuring and strengthening committees and/or introducing new ones, or eliminating existing ones would best be delayed until the recommendation regarding area Board of General Purposes representation is accepted, or rejected.

The Committee respectfully suggests that consideration be given to the following recommendations:

- (1) Two (2) members of the Long Range Planning Committee be added to the Regalia Committee, and that such Committee, working in conjunction with Regalia suppliers, review current design of Grand Lodge Regalia, and, if warranted, create a quality design e.g.: gold coloured braid, that will be realistic in price.
- (2) The Regalia Committee endeavour to arrange a common source of supply of Past Masters' Jewels for Craft Lodges requiring them.

- (3) The jurisdiction be divided into areas and representatives to the Board of General Purposes be elected by these areas; such procedure to be implemented beginning in 1984.
- (4) A Certificate of Recognition be issued by the Grand Master to any Mason for meritorious service to the Craft. The nomination for this Certificate will be made by the lodge of which the nominee is a member, and justified by that lodge and subject to the pleasure of the Grand Master.
- (5) Concurrent jurisdiction between lodges in adjoining districts be established.
- (6) Future Grand Representative appointments be limited to a term of six years. effective from the 1981 Annual Communication.

Your Committee offers its willingness to continue. All members have agreed to remain to devote their services, except Rt. Wor. Bro. Earl Wilson who has asked to be relieved, and further recommend that the Deputy Grand Master continue as Chairman.

All remain of intrepid mind that in intent as well as in name the Committee is one of Long Range Planning. That before there is a claim for reorganizational change, there must be a corresponding recognition of its value.

From that basic concept the Committee will not deviate, but continue to submit only recommendations that will lead to measures designed to further the best interests of our beloved Craft.

For the privilege of serving you, our brethren, we extend our thanks

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD O. POLK, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. E. McLeod, Grand Historian, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLeod, it was received. (See Appendix)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. N. E. Byrne, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Byrne, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:-

Your Committee, in working under the revised rules respecting trials, adopted in the new Constitution, effective on the 1st day of January, 1980, has had reported to it the results of Masonic trials, some of which were originally framed under the provisions of the old rules and some of which have been instigated under the provisions of the new rules.

WILMOT LODGE No. 318 MERVIN (BUD) WITTER.

A charge under Section 410(n) was laid against Bro. Mervin Witter as a result of the report of a Reviewing Committee.

The trial, by the Trial Commission, took place on the 10th of December, 1980. The accused person, although properly and duly notified, pursuant to the rules, did not appear at the trial and in his absence a well skilled brother was appointed to represent him at the trial.

After the Trial Commission had heard the evidence and made its deliberations, Bro. Witter was found guilty of the offence as charged and sentenced to two years' suspension. No appeal was taken from that decision.

ST. JOHN'S LODGE No. 209A LESLIE DESMOND BURNINGHAM.

Bro. Burningham was charged in the Civil Courts with the murder of his wife. The Civil Courts, on accepting a plea of guilty from Bro. Burningham, convicted him of manslaughter and sentenced him to six years incarceration with an additional period of probation. As a result of the Civil procedures taken, and only after they had come to a full and final conclusion and the appeal period had elapsed without an appeal being taken, a complaint was laid against Bro. Burningham under Section 410(m) which, after review by the Reviewing Committee, resulted in a charge being laid Proper notice was given to Bro. Burningham and the Trial Commission having been appointed pursuant to the rules, stipulated the 21st day of April, 1980 as the time for the trial. On that day the trial was adjourned to May 13, 1980 to allow the accused Brother additional time to prepare his defence.

The Trial Commission reconvened on the 13th of May, 1980 and service of notification of the trial date having been duly proved, the Trial Commission proceeded to hear the evidence in the absence of the accused brother. A well skilled brother, pursuant to the rules, was appointed to represent the accused as his Counsel. A Certificate of Conviction of the Civil Court of Bro. Burningham was produced and further evidence. The Trial Commission rendered a verdict of guilty and imposed the sentence of indefinite suspension under the rules respecting trials, but made no recommendation for expulsion, it being their opinion that the brother should be given sufficient time and opportunity to prove himself worthy once again to be accepted by his Masonic brethren. No appeal has been taken from that decision.

Your Committee understands that certain other matters are presently being dealt with by lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction and in due course, the results of trials will be reported to Grand Lodge.

In these times, when society appears to relax its strict moral principles and accept individual actions as being either justified in the individual circumstance or in adopting an attitude of indifference, your Committee would point out to members of this Grand Jurisdiction that we, as Masons, must be ever vigilant to maintain the integrity and exemplify the sound moral teachings that are promulgated in our Craft Masonry.

Your Committee stands ready, willing and able, through the Offices of the Grand Secretary, to render assistance and advice to lodges who may be faced with weighty decisions or difficulties in dealing with individual Masonic offences from time to time.

In a general sense, your Committee recommends that lodges in particular, and individual members of the Craft, should take no action with respect to an apparent Masonic offence where the action is of a criminal or quasi criminal nature, until the matter has been completely disposed of by the Civil Courts.

Where a brother Mason has unfortunately transgressed against the laws of this Country, it is only after a Court of competent jurisdiction has finally dealt with the matter that any action should be taken under the rules respecting trials for Masonic offences.

During the year, from time to time, your Committee has been called upon to give guidance, assistance and advice to lodges and members of the Craft with respect to Masonic offences and is pleased to continue to do so.

Your Committee is of the opinion that strict caution must be observed by lodges and all members of the Craft in not dealing with matters of a criminal or quasi criminal nature until they have been first disposed of by a Court of competent jurisdiction. On the other hand, we, as Masons, must be ever vigilant that other infractions of the strict moral code, which might be the basis of a Masonic offence under our rules, are not swept under the rug but are dealt with fairly, firmly and in every instance, with justice and mercy. As we proceed to gain experience under the revised rules respecting trials, adopted in our new Constitution, effective on the 1st day of January, 1980, individual situations may direct your Committee to closely examine this newly adopted procedure for dealing with Masonic offences and to give consideration to such minor provisions and amendments as may appear indicated.

Accordingly your Committee has formed a special sub committee to study Section 136(h) of the Constitution and the rules respecting trials, which will bring in its report for consideration at the next Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE FINANCES

This Report was presented by V.W. Bro. S. H. Cohen, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by V.W. Bro. Cohen, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my pleasure, on behalf of the members of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances, to present an interim report for your information and consideration.

The Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances was formed in July 1980 by our present Grand Master upon the recommendation of the Long Range Planning Committee and the approval of Grand Lodge. Our purpose was to examine all matters pertaining to Lodge Finances and to assist lodges in the management of their financial affairs.

In order to draw on the expertise and knowledge of brethren throughout the jurisdiction, the following members were appointed to the Committee:

M.W. Bros. J. N. Allan, W. K. Bailey; R.W. Bros. J. W. Millar, T. J. Arthur, E. Wilson, R. E. Lindsey, J. E. McLean, J. G. Pell; V.W. Bros. T. R. Davies, R. W. Del Genio.

The scope of our examination will include all matters pertaining to lodge finances including the scrutiny and analysis of:

- 1) Budgets
- 2) Financial Statements
- 3) Dues
- 4) Initiation Fees
- 5) Life Membership
- 6) Building Occupancy
- 7) Benevolence
 - 8) Trust Funds
- 9) Investment Portfolios
- 10) Insurance Coverage

Our investigation will proceed through three phases:

- 1) Gathering data and assembling relevant information.
- 2) Analyzing collected information and tabulating results.
- 3) Preparing report with recommendations.

Phase I of our review involved the circulation of 647 questionnaires from which an overwhelming 80% have been returned to date. The results have been extremely gratifying and we extend our personal thanks to the District Deputy Grand Masters and the Secretaries of the Lodges for their co-operation in helping us achieve such an extraordinary response.

A preliminary study of the completed questionnaires has revealed that Life Membership is one area which will require priority attention. Another area of grave concern is the inability of lodges to cope with inflationary pressures.

Your Committee has already commenced Phase 2—analyzing and tabulating the results of the questionnaires. The Committee intends to supplement its knowledge of lodge financial affairs through meetings and consultation with a cross-section of Worshipful Masters, Secretaries and Treasurers of lodges. The Committee would also welcome suggestions and recommendations from District Deputy Grand Masters and other concerned brethren. Once Phase 2 of our review has been completed, the Committee will recommend areas for improvement in lodge finances. Our findings, as part of Phase 3, will be documented in a report to Grand Lodge.

Your Committee has already held 7 meetings during the past year and the members have accepted the challenge of their assignment. We look forward to developing a sound approach by offering guidelines to lodges in an area that has long been overlooked. The ultimate objective of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances is to assist lodges in any way possible with the management of their financial affairs.

We are pleased to have the support and encouragement of the Board of General Purposes of Grand Lodge in our work. On behalf of the Committee I thank all members and lodges for their cooperation.

We are looking forward to communicating with you further as our study and deliberations progress.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

COMMITTEE ON LODGE REASSESSMENT

The Chairman, M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, while proffering a few oral comments, made several specific observations.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WARRANTS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. H. C. Steele, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Steele, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Committee on Warrants for the year 1980-81 is comprised of the following members: Rt. Wor. Bros. G. R. Jackson, R. S. Throop, T. B. Swanson, J. B. Bryce, P. W. Emerick, N. S. Sedore, A. A. Ogilvie, J. L. Reid, D. A. Lithgow, with the undersigned as Chairman.

Your Committee is sorry to report that there are no applications for Warrants at this Annual Communication. Likewise there are no lodges working under Dispensation at the present time.

We would like to remind any brethren who may be contemplating the formation of a new lodge the importance of following the instructions which are to be found in the Constitution.

A visit to the Grand Secretary's office before proceeding may prove very beneficial. The expertise of the Grand Secretary's staff may save a great deal of time, particularly in providing and setting up the necessary books.

From the success that Anniversary Lodge No. 733 are having, attendance-wise in particular, some thought should be given in other areas where a large number of brethren are shift workers to the formation of new lodges meeting at the same hour as Anniversary Lodge. This could be partly the answer to lagging attendance in some areas.

110 GRAND LODGE OF CANADA ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

Your Committee would like to once again stress the following items.

The importance of appointing a well-skilled brother to act as Historian.

The necessity of providing fire-proof storage for the Warrant, Minute Book, By-laws and other vital records.

Copies of the lodge summons should be retained and periodically bound. This will allow brethren in the future to gain access to valuable information easily.

Finally, your Committee would like to remind the brethren of the success we had during our 125th Anniversary Year. Three new lodges received Warrants. Let's not be content with what's happened in the past, but strive towards new heights in the future.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted

H. CAMERON STEELE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GRAND CHAPLAIN

This Report was presented by V.W. Bro. Bruce Gordon, Asst. Grand Chaplain, on behalf of the Grand Chaplain, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by V.W. Bro. Gordon, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Dear Sir and Brethren:

My term of office as Grand Chaplain has been a very rewarding and interesting one. I consider it a great privilege and distinction to have been chosen to serve the Craft and wish to thank Grand Lodge for the honour bestowed upon me. I was unfortunately unable to fulfill all the duties and invitations which came to me owing to my wife's illness, but the quite numerous functions I did attend enabled me to meet many fine D.D.G.M.s and worthy brethren — it was always a pleasure and profit to hear our Grand Master speak.

The Assistant Grand Chaplain, V.W. Bro. Dr. Gordon of Owen Sound has been extremely helpful in substituting for me at various functions.

There is a fine spirit of fellowship and a deeper understanding between the Craft and the Church as is evidenced by the many District Divine Services held, as well as the services held by individual lodges which, according to reports, were extremely well attended. Both District Chaplains and Lodge Chaplains are always ready to help in any way they can.

Two meetings I thought were unique — one in Maple Leaf Lodge, Bath, when the D.D.G.M.'s son was initiated by a team made up of all past and present Grand Lodge Officers of the District. Another was at Franck Lodge, Frankford, Prince Edward District, when a United Church Minister was initiated by a team composed of all the different Ministers in the District. It was a distinct pleasure to see various denominations of Clergy performing the same task. Another unique request was to be asked to say a prayer for absent members. This was, I thought, an example of right thinking.

I have always tried to bring out, in my sermons, the need to uphold among all segments of society, the moral and spiritual principles we believe in which will help to uplift mankind.

I shall always remember with gratitude the opportunity this office has given me of meeting so many fine men. I trust and hope that the Great Architect of the Universe will continue to bless our Brotherhood with His gifts of Love, Honour and Truth for all time.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

H. C. SECKER, Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL EVENTS COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. C. J. Woodburn, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Woodburn, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Special Events Committee takes pleasure in presenting its report on its actions during the past year.

At the 125th Annual Communication our Grand Master was kind enough to appoint us as a committee with the new name of Special Events. As such we inherited the responsibility to plan and staff the Grand Master's Banquet. In addition he charged us to create other events to entertain and involve our brethren.

We express our thanks to R.W. Bro. Colin MacKenzie who passed to us his records and counsel and hopefully his success in chairing the Grand Master's banquet.

With the guidelines established by our Grand Master it was evident that a number of brethren would be needed on this committee. It was also felt that the committee should be representative from rural and urban areas across the jurisdiction. This would then give us a strong input from our brethren on their wishes for our areas of activity.

Since our last communication your committee has met seven times. Meetings have been held in Beeton, Norwood, Port Hope, Owen Sound, Waterloo and Toronto. As our theme in recommending and planning all events we adopted the guide that all must add to the pride and participation of our brethren. Recommendations and suggestions were solicited from all areas of the province and from Masons of all ages. These led to long discussions prior to formulation recommendations to the Grand Master. Once his decision and direction had been received the work began.

As a result the following details will be undertaken this year.

TUESDAY JULY 14, 1981

Starting at 2:00 p.m. seven workshop discussion sessions will be put on. These are intended to provide forums for reporting by Grand Lodge Committees and for discussions and input by our brethren with these committees. These sessions will be put on by our Grand Lodge Benevolence, Blood Donors, Condition of Masonry and Library Committees. Our thanks to the committee chairmen: R.W. Bros. Emmett, Groshaw, Connor and Bruce for their immediate and positive acceptance of creating these sessions.

In addition three sessions will be held on the role of important lodge, and district offices, namely lodge historian, lodge secretary and the office of District Deputy Grand Master. Our thanks to R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, M.W. Bro. Robert Davies and R.W. Bros. William Pellow and Edsel Steen for developing and leading these sessions.

In addition, the film "The Birth of Our Grand Lodge" from our 125th Anniversary year will be shown on Tuesday afternoon and evening. This film has caused a great deal of effort and anguish this past year.

After the tremendous effort and successful staging of the play last July it was an enormous disappointment to find that those hired to film it had not done a good job. We hope it will provide some pleasure to you but we must apologize for its technical faults, especially to those who were involved in the play.

The Masonic Foundation of Ontario will host a meeting at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday. This meeting will provide a stage for the Foundation to report on its successful actions in education bursaries, hearing research and charitable actions. In addition, R.W. Bro. Paul Curry, who was chairman of Operation Lifeline, will report on the activities of the Bloodmobile.

WEDNESDAY JULY 15, 1981

Prior to the opening of Grand Lodge a social Masonic breakfast will be held in the Concert Hall. This breakfast was arranged to provide a quick easy breakfast area and avoid the congestion in the hotel coffee shop.

GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET

A number of requests were received about the banquet. In summary these fell into three areas.

- A. A way be found to honour the leaders of our Craft.
- B. Some way be found for more brethren to attend the banquet.
- C. Those brethren who could not be seated in the Canadian Room be entitled to an equal treatment in viewing the banquet.

To achieve these wishes our Grand Master has directed that the following details be undertaken.

- 1. The banquet will start earlier at 6:45 p.m. This will allow many brethren to attend the banquet and still return home that evening.
- 2. A reserved seat in the Canadian Room will be provided for each Worshipful Master, District Secretary and Appointed Grand Lodge Officers and Members of the Board of General Purposes. Blue coloured tickets were supplied to each District Deputy for this purpose. Thus the long line ups will be cut down.
- 3. The brethren will be seated in the Canadian Room and the Concert Hall for this banquet. Over 2,100 brethren will therefore attend the banquet this year.
- 4. Tickets and details were made available in November to ensure easier district communication about the banquet.
- 5. To provide easy viewing of all major events going on in the Canadian Room a closed circuit audio TV hook-up will occur on 5 large screens in the Concert Hall showing close-ups from the Canadian Room. All entertainment will be performed live in both rooms.
- 6. Finally to mark concern and respect for our brethren in the Concert Hall our Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master have arranged for a head table to be present in the Concert Hall. It will be headed by our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Howard Polk. He will be accompanied by our own elected and appointed Grand Lodge Officers.

On behalf of all brethren, thank you for exemplifying leadership and concern by participating in this head table.

Our committee has made additional recommendations for future years on these and other events. It has entailed a lot of work by all members but it has been a labor of love.

Our hope is that the actions described in this report will add or have added to your enjoyment.

On behalf of all committee members we say a special thank you for the fun and fellowship we have had as we have worked together this year.

Its been our joy to serve.

All of which is fraternally and respectfully submitted.

C. JOHN WOODBURN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, seconded by M.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, it was received and adopted.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Brethren:

It was a joy for your Committee to review our Grand Master's Address. It sparkled with Leadership, Inspiration, Objectivity and Service. We observed the activity of our Grand Master during his second year in Office, and can only conclude that his physical strength and his capacity for endurance were exceptional. We applaud his selfless dedication to the high office of Grand Master, and wish to record our conclusion that his efforts were extremely beneficial to the Craft. There can be no doubt that the membership and the Grand Master are closer together as a result of his having met so many of them during his term of Office, when visiting individual lodges on special occasions, at District Receptions and at Lodge Anniversaries.

We thank the Most High for bestowing upon our Grand Master strength of body and good health, which blessing, combined with a keen intellect and the ability to understand his fellow-man, enabled him to imprint the mark of progress upon the minds of those he met during his visitations. We suggest that the brethren peruse the Appendices which follow our Grand Master's Address — he lists there his visits within our Grand Jurisdiction and, also, his visits to neighbouring Grand Lodges. Our Grand Master and his wife, Mary, excelled as goodwill ambassadors when representing us in Sister Grand Jurisdictions. They also excelled as Hosts; — their welcome to guests visiting our Grand Lodge was warm and sincere and was greatly appreciated by our visitors.

Your Committee agree with our Grand Master when he states that it was an honour to welcome Sir James and Lady Stubbs at the beginning of their World Tour. Sir James had just retired from the Office of Grand Secretary of the United Grand Lodge of England and was planning to visit all Provincial Grand Lodges under British Jurisdiction, which are literally spread over the entire surface of the earth.

Your Past Grand Masters appreciate the reference by our Grand Master to their contribution to the welfare of the Craft, but are conscious of the necessity of a complete effort by our entire membership if we are to achieve the high standard of excellence we have set for ourselves as a Grand Lodge. We agree with our Grand Master in his expression of regret that M.W. Bro. Ewart G. Dixon, Honorary Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary Emeritus, is absent from Grand Lodge activities because of ill health.

We join our Grand Master in the recognition of honours conferred upon M.W. Bro. William L. Wright and M.W. Bro. Eric Nancekivell. M.W. Bro. Wright was made an Honorary Member of the Knights of Columbus, and M.W. Bro. Nancekivell served as Chairman of the Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America.

Your Committee commend our Grand Master for his appreciation of the support given our Craft by the Board of General Purposes, the District Deputy Grand Masters, and the Worshipful Masters of our Constituent Lodges. Their dedication and loyalty are an inspiration to the brethren; recognition given is fully deserved.

We are in complete agreement with our Grand Master's expression of gratitude to the members of the Seven Toronto Districts, for their assistance in making arrangements for and in the operation of the Grand Lodge Sessions. Their gifts of the Antependium and the Grand Lodge Banner have added dignity to the District Receptions and Grand Lodge Ceremonies. Your Committee welcomed the concise report of the Seventeenth Biennial Conference of Grand and District Grand Lodges, A.F. & A.M. of Canada; likewise, his report of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America.

All members of your Committee wish to join the Grand Master in his expression of sympathy to the relatives and friends of those brethren who were called to the Grand Lodge Above during the year.

We are in agreement with all appointments made by our Grand Master, and extend congratulations to our brethren so honoured. We likewise approve the granting of Past Rank to several brethren who have served the Craft with distinction but, for various reasons, were not in office for twelve months.

Your Committee are happy to note and applaud several innovations in connection with the organization and operation of Grand Lodge. An important item was the publishing and distribution of the book "Whence Come We?". It is not possible to adequately thank those brethren who laboured so hard in the production of this fine Masonic publication. Much history is contained between its covers, in addition to a vast amount of Masonic knowledge of particular interest to newly made Masons. Three projects are mentioned by our Grand Master; the Long Range Planning Committee, the Advisory Committee on Lodge Finances, and the Special Events Committee. We commend our Grand Master for his action in this connection, and, with him, are hopeful that recommendations by these groups will be beneficial to our Institution.

We commend our Grand Master for his choice of speaker for the Grand Master's Banquet. V.W. Bro. Dr. B. C. Matthews, President of Waterloo University, is a recognized educationalist and an outstanding Canadian. He will bring a message full of inspiration.

We join our Grand Master in his words of congratulations extended to two brethren, Bro. Peter Roy Soldiuk, St. Aidan's

Lodge No. 567, Scarborough, and Gordon Proctor Sanders, King Solomon's Lodge No. 378, London, who were awarded the William Mercer Wilson Medal. In the words of our Grand Master, "This distinguished award brings with it a deep appreciation for and recognition of Service."

Your Committee rejoice with our Grand Master in the Institution and Consecration of three new lodges, namely, Friendship Lodge No. 732, Georgetown; Anniversary Lodge No. 733, Brampton; and West Gate Lodge No. 734, Streetsville. We congratulate the brethren of these three lodges upon their initiative and upon their confidence in the future of our Craft. We wish each lodge a long, happy and successful existence.

We also wish to extend congratulations to the members of lodges who dedicated New Temples this year, namely, Owen Sound Temple, Owen Sound; Sarnia Temple, Sarnia; Pembroke Temple, Pembroke; Masonic Temple, McColl Lodge, West Lorne. The effort required to construct new premises in these inflationary times is an indication of the dedication of the brethren, coupled with their love for the Craft. We join our Grand Master, also, in extending congratulations to those lodges who celebrated important Anniversaries, some One Hundred Years of existence, others their One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Anniversary. Such occasions bring to mind the support and service rendered by many devoted brethren through the years.

Many dedicated brethren have been recognized for their long years of service. Among them three brethren who have each served Masonry for seventy-five years; eleven brethren with service records of seventy years; and five brethren who have been Past Masters for sixty years. We also share the Grand Master's high regard for our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Davies, and his staff. Likewise, his sadness in the loss of two members of Bro. Davies' devoted staff by death.

Your Committee would like to quote the two concluding paragraphs of our Grand Master's Address, with the comment that we fully subscribe to the sentiment expressed therein:

"The work of Masonry is never ending. The challenge to hold high the precepts we inherited from those who have gone before is with us always. It is easy for the lustre to dim and our purpose become tarnished. I share with you sadness when this happens. I endorse the views contained in the Report of the Committee on Fraternal Relations, and may it remind us of our responsibilities.

I join with you in thanks and gratitude for the success we have achieved in this Jurisdiction and urge your full participation as we strive for continuing progress and satisfaction."

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES N. ALLAN,
Chairman

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Committee on Printing and Publications I, as Chairman, beg leave to submit this report to the 126th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

Final audited figures for the year ended April 30, 1981 appear in the Grand Treasurer's Report.

It is to be observed that the costs of printing have increased on the average about ten per cent and this reflects the inflationary pressures of our economy. The cost of postage has increased dramatically.

Your Committee wishes to thank all of the Brethren for their efforts in the sale of the publications. If the sales of "The Work" are maintained at previous levels the stock will be depleted before the end of the fiscal year and consideration therefore must be given to replenishing the inventory. The sales figures of "Whence Come We?" are gratifying and we urge those involved in the sale of the Grand Lodge publications maintain their zeal and enthusiasm to further reduce our inventory.

We urge the new District Deputy Grand Masters to continue to promote the sale of these excellent books. If they feel that their schedule does not permit them sufficient time for the promotion of the books, we suggest that the responsibility be delegated to a keen and interested Brother.

During the year, printed order forms were prepared for distribution to the District Deputy Grand Masters, so that the forms could be left in each lodge. It is suggested that this be continued next year. This is considered desirable so that the Brethren will have a simple and expedient method by which to order the books.

For the past four years, Grand Lodge has offered for sale copies of the "Proceedings" at five dollars per copy. During the past year these sales increased and we earnestly recommend this publication to the Brethren for their perusal and contemplation.

This year a separate budget for this Committee was submitted to the Audit and Finance Committee. We appreciate the opportunity to have some input into the budgetary affairs of Grand Lodge.

We express our sincere thanks to Most Wor. Bro. R. E. Davies, Grand Secretary and his staff for their continued dedicated co-operation and assistance.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted.

ROBERT T. RUNCIMAN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. E. McLeod, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. McLeod, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M., of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Board of General Purposes, through its Committee on Masonic Education, begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee was composed of M.W. Bros. W. K. Bailey and W. L. Wright, R.W. Bros. D. C. Bradley, F. J. Bruce, H. M. Cree, R. A. Cumming, F. R. Fordham, C. E. B. LeGresley, D. J. McFadgen, B. A. Mennie, C. A. Sankey, E. C. Steen, I. W. Wilson, and Arthur Youngs, and V.W. Bros. E. J. Brown and Jacob Pos, with the undersigned as Chairman.

One of the cleverest and cruelest gibes in the world is directed against educators. You've heard it dozens of times: "Those who can, do; those who can't, teach." It's brief, witty, and memorable, but it distorts reality. We have to admit that not everyone who tries to offer instruction is successful; but clearly, if you don't have the facts, you can't hope to communicate them. The truth is rather, "Those who cannot do, certainly cannot teach."

In our Grand Lodge we are fortunate to have many doers and teachers, and it is proper to acknowledge them. The Custodian of the Work continues to inspire and motivate innumerable brethren with his lodges of instruction, his manuals of guidance, and his wise counsel. The District Deputy Grand Masters carry the torch of Masonic knowledge into every lodge in the jurisdiction. The Grand Senior Warden has provided useful packets of information for all the Wardens' Associations he has visited. The Chairman of the Library Committee has brought Grand Lodge's marvellous collection of books to the attention of more brethren than ever before. The talented editor of the Grand Lodge Bulletin keeps every Mason fully abreast of interesting events at home and abroad. The Freemason magazine is not an official publication of Grand Lodge, but this year its managing editor received recognition from the Grand Master for his outstanding contribution to the science of communication. To these brethren. and to all others who give us something for the mind, the Committee expresses its gratitude.

Communication with the Masons of Ontario. When the new District Deputy Grand Masters were chosen last July, your Chairman had a chance to explain to them what was expected of them in the line of Masonic Education, and to sketch some of the options at their disposal.

During the year the Committee has arranged for five mailings to every district:

- (1) A copy of the 1980 report, for distribution to the constituent lodges;
- (2) A letter telling each lodge about The Study Group, and inviting wider participation;
- (3) (4) Two issues of a Newsletter for every lodge; of this, more in a moment;
- (5) A questionnaire directed to the D.D.G.M.s asking for a report on the educational activities in their area.

In addition the Committee has continued to publish a regular column of short book reviews in The Freemason magazine. Over the past seven years some sixty reviews have been printed. The contributors have included R.W. Bro. C. E. B. LeGresley, V.W. Bros. John V. Lawer and Maarten A. van Wamelen, and W. Bros. Harry Carr, Herbert F. Steele, and Gordon H. Stuart. They have earned your thanks.

Beyond any question more could be done to maintain contact with the Masons of Ontario. At the November session of the Board of General Purposes several members urged that there should be regional meetings of the Committee on Masonic Education, in order to provide direct guidance to the District Supervisors and the Lodge Chairmen. The same plan is suggested by a number of D.D.G.M.s in their year-end reports. It is an excellent idea, and I recommend that next year's Committee take steps to implement it.

Activities in the Districts. We are not as well informed as we should like, because fewer than three-quarters of the District Deputy Grand Masters thought it worth their while to submit a report before the deadline. One is tempted to conclude that the others had nothing to say. That is a great pity, for (without prejudice to Grand Lodge's other activities) nothing we do is as important as Masonic Education. Nevertheless it is clear that Masonic Education is alive and well in most parts of Ontario.

The district education night continues to be popular. Some regions held as many as three. Many programmes dealt with the mechanics and meaning of the ritual. Others were concerned with Boards of Trial, the regalia, Masonic Landmarks, the duties of officers, and protocol and etiquette. Ottawa 1 held a presentation entitled "The Structure of Freemasonry." Several evenings were devoted to history: "Masonry and the Egyptian Mysteries" (Toronto 2); "The Pathfinders: Masonic Pioneers" (Toronto 3); "The Beginnings of Masonry in Canada" (Wellington); "Masonry in Communist Countries" (Eastern); and even a historical quiz (Wellington).

From time to time popular items from other years were repeated: the exemplification of the Scottish ritual (Toronto 4), and of the ritual of 1760 (Hamilton B, Niagara A); the scripted quiz show "Whence Come We?" (Toronto 5); M.W. Bro. Carl H. Claudy's beautiful and moving play, "A Rose upon the Altar" (Toronto 1); R.W. Bro. Peter de Karwin's spectacular multi-media presentation on Mozart, entitled "Whom the Gods Love" (Toronto 6).

The District Supervisors are often called on for heroic efforts. In several districts they are expected to give an educational talk in every lodge. This places an unfair burden on them, and it would perhaps be preferable for several brethren to share the duties. In Temiskaming the Supervisor distributed throughout the District a brochure containing enough material for several programmes. Other new ideas as well might be worth imitating. In Chatham the D.D.G.M. named three co-chairmen, each of whom visited five lodges, arranging programmes where he could; in all there were eleven education nights. In Toronto 1 the Wardens' Association held a series of seven breakfast meetings combined with discussion. In Hamilton B at each official visitation the Supervisor presented one question and solicited written responses; the interest generated was tremendous.

Workshops were held in North and South Huron ("Beyond the Ritual"), Sudbury-Manitoulin ("Masonry in General"), and Algoma ("The Mason and the Community"). It was my privilege to attend two of these, and I found the level of leadership and participation to be very impressive. At Thunder Bay in particular two commendable strategies were employed. Discussion groups were restricted to five or six brethren, so that everyone had to participate. Past Masters and Grand Lodge officers were excluded from registration, so that the younger Masons had a chance to air their views.

The Heritage Lodge No. 730, Cambridge, has continued to flourish. The following papers were delivered in lodge or printed in the Proceedings:

"Our Grand Masters" (W. Bro. George A. Campbell);

"Masonic Heritage" (Inaugural Address by the W.M.);

"Quatuor Coronati Lodge" (R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod);

"The Great Lights of Masonry" (Bro. Timothy H. Barnes); "Early Freemasonry in the Ottawa Area" (V.W. Bro.

Alfred E. Harrington).

Three of these topics were presented during the course of visits to other districts. The lodge has also inaugurated its series of occasional publications, with "The Lodge Historian" by R.W. Bro. Charles F. Grimwood (which is available for only seventy-five cents). All enquiries about The Heritage Lodge and its activities should go to the Secretary, V.W. Bro. Jacob Pos, 10 Mayfield Avenue. Guelph N1G 2L8.

I should be delinquent if I did not put in a word for the premier lodge of Masonic research, Quatuor Coronati, No. 2076, London. Any Master Mason may join the Correspondence Circle. For further information contact the local secretaries: (for Ontario East) Brian D. Stapley, 5785 Yonge Street, Apartment 327, Willowdale M2M 3V2; (for Ontario North) John E. Taylor, P. O. Box 39, Hilton Beach POR 1GO; (for Ontario South and West) Professor Jacob Pos, 10 Mayfield Avenue, Guelph N1G 2L8; (for Toronto) Professor J. S. Basarke, 59 Sandbourne Crescent, Willowdale M2J 3A5.

While we are on the subject of addresses, there is still only one source of general Masonic publications in Canada, Masonic Book Sales, Box 250, Pefferlaw LOE 1NO. Your Committee will cheerfully advise you on what books are worth buying.

The D.D.G.M.s submitted several suggestions about Masonic Education for future consideration. This Committee, they felt, should be in constant close contact with the District Supervisors and the Lodge Chairmen. The Newsletter and the regional meetings will go some way to meet that need. The Committee might provide a booklet of instruction for each lodge, outlining a brief series of programmes, and giving a sample lesson. Perhaps it could also furnish a list of the names and addresses of potential speakers. All these proposals I commend to the attention of the new Chairman.

The Study Group. Last year we reported on the genesis and progress of this group, and recommended that it be maintained for another year. V.W. Bro. Ernest J. Brown has continued to serve as Director, and R.W. Bro. Arthur Youngs as Chief Scrutineer. Bro. Brown has enlisted the service of a wider circle of devoted Masons. As Assistant Scrutineers, to act under the supervision of Bro. Youngs, he has obtained the cooperation of R.W. Bros. F. J. Bruce, E. S. P. Carson, D. J. Emerick, S. Harbert, G. F. W. Inrig, W. E. Morley, A. N. Newell, A. A. Ogilvie, and R. S. Throop, V.W. Bro. D. M. Copeman, W. Bros. R. B. Forster, E. H. Harper, and T. A. Johnson, and Bro. R. C. Corbeil. R.W. Bro. A. A. Ogilvie has also consented to be Treasurer. At my request the books of The Study Group were audited by V.W. Bro. Frederick A. Hamilton; he found all the records to be scrupulously kept, and the accounts therein to be correct.

By the middle of May more than 330 brethren had enrolled. Many comments have reached us. (From participants) "I appreciate the opportunity to be able in some small way to express my feelings, and I thank you for giving me the chance to learn more about our great order." "I should have taken this before I became W.M." (From an Assistant Scrutineer) "Some students have made fantastic strides in their research and quest for knowledge." (From D.D.G.M.s) "The course is great and should be promoted at every opportunity." "How can we encourage others to take part?" The reaction has been almost unanimously favourable. Two reservations only have been voiced. Some brethren have difficulty in getting started, and need considerable encouragement to send in the first assignment. A few students, particularly in outlying areas, find it hard to lay hands on appropriate source books.

In some ways the assignments superficially resemble those in the old Syllabus of Instruction sponsored by this committee from 1950 to 1974. The differences, however, are fundamental. The Syllabus was directed to the lodges, and the brethren had no opportunity to feel that they were accomplishing anything. The Study Group is aimed at the individual Mason, who has a chance to receive criticism and encouragement. The Study Group has evidently met a real need. The Committee therefore recommends that, contingent upon the availability of suitable staffing, the programme be continued.

The number of those enrolled may not seem very large when compared with the total population of Masons in Ontario. The amount of paper work, however, is immense, and is increasing day by day as new members sign up. It may well be that the burden of administration may become too heavy for one volunteer, no matter how great his energy, or that at some stage Bro. Brown may choose to retire. The Committee therefore exhorts the new Chairman to maintain a watching brief, and to explore alternative methods of running the programme in case need should arise. In the meantime, we all owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to V.W. Bro. Ernest J. Brown for his incredible efforts, and to the disinterested altruism of the members of his team. Anyone who would like to know more should contact "The Study Group," 43 Cedar Street, Guelph N1G 1C2.

There have been enquiries about more advanced courses. One might imagine, for example, a programme which was founded on the publications distributed by Grand Lodge. We recommend that the possibility by investigated.

The Newsletter. In 1977-78 your Committee distributed four issues of a newsletter. Other demands upon the Chairman's time supervened, and he was unsuccessful in persuading others to continue it. Finally last Fall he named a Sub-Committee on Communication, with R.W. Bro. David C. Bradley as Chairman. By the middle of May the Sub-Committee had placed two newsletters in every lodge. They are handy pocket-size booklets, some thirty pages long, intended to disseminate educational information. In particular, programmes which have proved useful in one part of the province are publicized for emulation elsewhere. These early issues have also included questions and answers, book reviews, and splendid short talks on such subjects as the Apron, the Landmarks, Jacob's Ladder, the Doric Column, Public Speaking. and our relationship to Roman Catholicism. The venture has met with unalloyed enthusiasm. Typical comments include, "Superb: timely, informative, and helpful;" and "excellent; keep it up."

The production of a newsletter like this requires special talents that not all of us have, and we are fortunate to have extorted Bro. Bradley's consent to serve. He has expressed his willingness to continue for another year. I therefore recommend that three issues of The Newsletter be distributed, in September, January, and March.

In times past this committee has been able to publish large amounts of material only because most of the printing was contributed without charge. Your present Committee is compelled to pay its way, and printing is a very expensive proposition. This year's newsletter has driven our disbursements far above the budget allocation. If Grand Lodge wishes educational material to be sent out gratis, it is clear that a larger budget will be required. In the meantime, for next year I recommend that, to cover the cost of the newsletter, a subscription fee be charged, of two dollars per year or seventy-five cents per individual copy.

Deacons' Programme. The Master of the lodge is placed in the East to employ and instruct the brethren in Masonry. He is further told that the honour, reputation, and usefulness of his lodge will materially depend on the skill and ability with which he manages its affairs. A successful year does not just happen by accident; everything does not suddenly fall into place after installation. A good Master needs talent, preparation and constant effort.

This brilliant insight has not been excogitated by your Committee on the spur of the moment. Over a century and a half ago our Provincial Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Simon McGillivray, offered some sage advice to the Canadian brethren. "I request it may always be remembered that the genuine source of Masonic instruction is to gain it from the Master, and therefore I earnestly recommend to the brethren generally, to elect as Masters such brethren as are capable of bestowing instruction, and to the Masters and rulers of the Craft I recommend assiduity in obtaining, and zeal in communicating, Masonic knowledge."

A mere ninety years ago M.W. Bro. John Ross Robertson observed, with his customary forthright pungency, "The election to the East of brethren who are utterly incompetent, not to say indifferent, and who are honored either by personal popularity or by persistent canvassing for office, is a primary cause of trouble in lodges . . . Boards of Installed Masters . . . deliberately violate their duties and obligations by presenting for installation brethren, who ofttimes . . . possess but the rudiments of the work."

Evidently the Master should enter office with some notion of what is required of him. The book Meeting the Challenge was designed for this purpose, but it can accomplish nothing unless it is read. In 1977 the District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto 3, R.W. Bro. Frank J. Bruce, resolved to take more active measures to prepare brethren for the Chair of King Solomon, and to that end he instituted a Deacons' Programme under the direction of R.W. Bro. David C. Bradley. A series of five seminars was held, each dealing with a separate aspect of the task; the Master, Meetings, Committees, Officers, and Grand Lodge. The idea was not new, but the novelty in this instance was that the substance of the seminars was printed as a booklet under the title Towards the Square. Bro. Bruce arranged for several reprintings on a limited scale. Since that date it has been used regularly as a text-book in Toronto 3, and this year it has been adopted in Georgian District for a Deacons' Programme under the direction of V.W. Bro. Jack McBeth. It has been very well received.

Your Committee had hoped in 1978 to make the book more widely available, but the scheme was stillborn for several reasons. Grand Lodge was not in a position to provide special funding for a larger printing at the time it was needed. Moreover the revision of the Book of Constitution meant that one chapter was obsolete. I am happy to tell you that Bro. Bradley has now thoroughly revised his text, and it has been edited and retyped under the auspices of this Committee. A revolving fund has been set up to make publication possible; the money spent for reprinting will be recovered from the sale of copies. If you wish to begin a Deacons' Programme among the officers of your lodge or district, copies of Towards the Square are available from this Committee at a charge of only three dollars apiece. All you need is a dynamic, committed leader for the group.

Closing Observations. Two of the most revered educators in the Masonic world today are M.W. Bro. Dwight L. Smith of Indiana and R.W. Bro. Allen E. Roberts of Virginia. Hear what they have to say. First, Bro. Smith: "Let us proceed on the assumption that every candidate for the degrees sincerely desires the Light Freemasonry has to offer him, and expects to receive it. What happens? Well, first, we recite, recite, recite until there is nothing left to recite. Then we try to persuade the new Brother to recite also, and if memorizing and reciting do not appeal to him, we have nothing further to offer. We wash our hands of him . . . He asks for bread; we give him a stone." Next, Bro. Roberts: "What's the first thing we encounter when we're accepted into the Craft? The ritual. What's the only thing we're forced to learn about Freemasonry? The ritual. What's the one thing stressed throughout our Masonic careers? The ritual. What's the one thing we must understand if we want to become Worshipful Master? The ritual. Sounds like a broken record, doesn't it? The needle has been stuck in this groove for centuries."

Speaking for myself, I yield to nobody in my affection for The Work. It is full of great truths, and in places its beauty matches anything in English. Even today, after so many years, some parts of it still make my flesh tingle and the hair on the back of my neck stand up. But is that all there is to Masonry? Is that all? What ever happened to the principles of intellectual truth, the daily advancement in Masonic knowledge, the cultivation and improvement of the human mind? Your Grand Lodge has provided a good core of basic material: The Book of Constitution, The History of Grand Lodge, First Grand Master, Beyond the Pillars. Meeting the Challenge, Whence Come We?, the booklets for the candidates, the guidelines for officers, and for the Ceremony of Installation, and the Functional Pronouncing Glossary of The Work. Your Committee on Masonic Education has now given you The Study Group, and the Newsletter, and the Deacons' Programme. And what is being done with this material? Well, some of us, a few, are putting it to good use. But so much more needs to be done.

We are supposed to be the leaders of the Craft in this jurisdiction. Isn't it time for us all to pull our weight? The opportunity is there. The need is urgent. All that lacks is a little devotion, a little effort. To each of you I say, show that devotion, make that effort. Go back to your lodge, and help your brethren to expand their horizons. We've done what we can. Now it's up to you.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

WALLACE McLEOD, Chairman.

SECOND BALLOT FOR DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

R.W. Bro. Robert Strachan, Chairman of Scrutineers, had advised the Grand Master that there being no requisite majority for the office of Deputy Grand Master, a second ballot was required.

M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards then suspended labor at 9:55 a.m. and requested the Grand Secretary to instruct the brethren on balloting procedure. At 10:00 a.m., as required by Section 60(b) of the Constitution, the Scrutineers supervised a second ballot.

CALLED ON

Grand Lodge resumed labor at 11:00 a.m., Thursday, July 16, 1981.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. W. Millar, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Millar, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This Committee now has reviewed and considered in detail the reports of the Grand Treasurer, the Auditor's Report attached thereto, and the report of the Grand Secretary as referred to it by this Annual Communication. These appear to fully and accurately record the essential details pertaining to:—

- (a) the financial position of this Grand Lodge as of April 30, 1981 and the results of its fiscal operations on a cash basis for the twelve month period ended on that date.
- (b) details of all Records and Disbursements in respect to the General Fund, the Commutation Fund, the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Fund: together with particulars of all transactions and changes in Capital Accounts of Grand Lodge, which have occurred during the said period.
- (c) the Investment Accounts of the above mentioned Funds and the summary of all financial resources as of April 30, 1981.

The following observations respecting certain matters covered by these reports, and / or relative to its financial affairs, are presented for your consideration.

- (1) The Audited Statements of Grand Lodge accounts show that the net balance of all its resources now amount to $2,081,322. This net balance includes total investments at cost value (not market value) plus cash on hand and in the bank and represents a decrease in assets of $34,549 over the same figures a year ago.
- (2) Total receipts under the General Fund for fees, dues, commutations, interest on investments, etc. amounted to $384,617 while disbursements etc. amounted to $464,696, leaving an excess of expenditures over income of $80,079.

(3) Grants for benevolent purposes, less those refunded and cancelled, amounted to $77,642, an increase of $4,518 from a year ago. These grants were paid out of the combined incomes of the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, as supplemented by transfers from the General Fund, which last year amounted to $30,000. It is anticipated that the amount for the coming year will be less. The Committee on Audit and Finance therefore recommends that in order to provide these funds, the Board of General Purposes authorize in accordance with Section 126 of the Constitution, appropriations from the General Fund up to the amount of $25,000. Such funds to be transferred as and when required, to the combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, in order to supplement the interest and income therefrom, thus making adequate provision for all benevolent grants which Grand Lodge may make during the period May 1, 1981 to April 30, 1982. It should be noted that the Committee on Benevolence has shown great care in administering its funds.

Your Committee recommends approval of the special donations to charitable institutions totalling $5,000 which were made under the authority of the Grand Master as itemized in the Financial Statement.

In its review of all matters covered in this report, your Committee has received the fullest cooperation and assistance from the Grand Secretary and his staff. The cooperation of the Grand Treasurer is also appreciated. Your Committee now formally recommends to this Grand Lodge the adoption, without amendment, the reports of the above mentioned officers and approval of the recommendations contained in the report of this Committee.

In accordance with Section 134(c) of the Constitution, your Committee submits for consideration and approval, an estimate of Receipts and Expenditures as it relates to the General Fund for the year ending April 30, 1982.

The foregoing estimates have been carefully considered and compiled by the Committee after consultation with the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Treasurer and the Grand Secretary. Your committee, which has met three times this year, believes these estimates are realistic and provide for all items which might be reasonably foreseen and for such amounts as may be required to meet all Grand Lodge financial responsibilities, obligations and commitments for the current fiscal year.

Some further information concerning the budget may be of interest.

Re Format — The format of the budget has been changed in two main areas in order to give a more detailed explanation of the expenses related to the Annual Meeting of Grand Lodge and the various committees.

Re Charitable Donations — The function for awarding donations, excluding benevolence, is becoming the responsibility of The Masonic Foundation and is being phased in over a five year period.

Re Dues — Annual dues were raised at the 1976 meeting of Grand Lodge from $1.50 to $2.00 per member, effective January 1st, 1977. It is anticipated that this increase will meet the requirements until January 1st, 1982. Notice of Motion has been given to raise the dues to $2.50 per member at that time. It should be noted that with costs increasing a further increase will probably be required in two or three years time.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of your Committee.

JOHN W. MILLAR, Chairman.

MOTION RE AUDITOR

As A. William Parish, F.C.A., has joined the firm of H. R. Doane and Co. of Hamilton, I move, seconded by M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, that H. R. Doane and Co. be appointed our Auditor for the year May 1, 1981 to April 30, 1982.

M.W. Bro. Allan, M.W. Bro. Davies and myself have had a meeting with Bro. Walter Swing, a partner of H. R. Doane and Co. and he has recommended certain changes in the accounting system in our office. It is proposed that these changes be made under the direction of Bro. Swing. One of the results of these changes will be that the monthly audit will be dispensed with.

These changes will incur some extra audit cost this year but will, we expect, reduce the cost in the future.

This motion, made by R.W. Bro. J. W. Millar, seconded by M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, was received and adopted.

R.W. Bro. James J. Talman has been a Director and adjudicator of Bursary Awards for The Foundation since the inception of the bursary program in 1965. May I express in your behalf, as he retires from the Board, sincere appreciation for his lengthy and meritorious service to the Masons of Ontario and the students who have been the recipients of financial assistance from The Foundation. The responses from the more than 600 students and from the Awards Officers attest to the usefulness of the bursaries in filling genuine need.

We are satisfied that the $60,000 contributed to the research program towards relief for the profoundly deaf in and beyond this province has been wisely and fruitfully applied. We are privileged to have R.W. Bros. Alvin J. Anderson and Frank J. Bruce as liaison in this work. Your Board has received numerous requests for financial aid which for reason of lack of funds or failure to fall within the terms of reference which have been set up, we have been unable to satisfy. A brochure is being prepared for circulation to each Mason in the forthcoming year. Please be as generous as your circumstances will permit in giving The Foundation your moral and financial support.

Your Board has held three meetings as well as several subcommittee meetings in the administration of the affairs. The services of your Directors — J. N. Allan, A. J. Anderson, T. J. Arthur, W. K. Bailey, F. J. Bruce, W. E. McLeod, N. R. Richards, J. J. Talman and C. J. Woodburn have been given freely and voluntarily. Needless to say, the brunt of administration each year falls on our diligent and dedicated Secretary-Treasurer, R.W. Bro. T. John Arthur, to whom our sincere thanks is duly tendered.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM K. BAILEY,
President.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Book of Constitution as revised and adopted in 1979 defines the Grand Historian as an appointive officer of the Grand Lodge. His duties are "from time to time [to] compile and preserve a record of all matters connected with the history of Grand Lodge." In earlier years similar responsibilities had been entrusted to several distinguished members of this august body: M.W. Bro. John Ross Robertson in 1900, R.W. Bro. Edward B. Brown in 1919, and M.W. Bro. Walter Stevens Herrington in 1935. It is appropriate that the present incumbent express his gratitude to the Grand Master for setting him in this company of immortals.

The rôle which the Grand Historian is to fill at the Annual Communication is less clear; on the present occasion at least he proposes to share with the brethren certain details which have recently come to light. They concern a brief description of Masonry in Ontario as it was 144 years ago.

A REPORT ON MASONRY IN UPPER CANADA IN 1837

In 1837 the Craft in Upper Canada was in disarray. The Provincial Grand Master, Simon McGillivray, lived in England, and had been unable for twelve years to provide direction for his Provincial Grand Lodge, which had not met in any case for nearly a decade. The constituent lodges, too, were in a state of confusion. Perhaps the public hostility generated in the United States by the Morgan affair had spilled over into Canada; and certainly the lack of any central authority did not help. Most of the lodges were either dormant or extinct altogether.

Finally, on 29 May 1837, the Provincial Grand Master appointed as his Deputy John Auldjo, who was about to visit the Colony. The letter of instruction, which is preserved in the Grand Lodge Library, is quoted in John Ross Robertson's History of Freemasonry in Canada, volume 2, pages 195-196. It runs, in part, as follows: "I request you . . . to put yourself in communication with the lodges, and the brethren throughout the province, so as on your return to be able to give me a detailed report. . . . In your appointments of Provincial Grand Officers you will, of course.

endeavour to select those brethren, whom you shall find to be the best qualified, and the most respected by the fraternity at large, and your report will, of course, comprise a list of all such appointments. I found it necessary to have two Provincial Grand Secretaries, viz.: Bro. Turquand at York, and Bro. Dean at Kingston, and you will see in my instructions to Bro. Beikie, the suggestion of holding alternate meetings of the Provincial Grand Lodge at each of these two cities. The province is, in fact, too extensive for one Provincial Grand Lodge, and . . . I have obtained authority from His Royal Highness [The Grand Master] to divide Upper Canada into two Masonic Provinces (those of Toronto and of Kingston) and to constitute a Provincial Grand Lodge for each of them. That authority, however, I shall not in the present instance act upon, but shall wait for your report of the state of Masonry throughout the province generally. . . ."

John Auldjo (1805-1886), a native of Montreal, sprang from the Scottish mercantile class of the city. He was brought up in Britain, and at the age of twenty-one he was initiated into Masonry in the Lodge of Antiquity, No. 2, London, his proposer being Simon McGillivray. He spent much of his life in Europe, and wrote several books on his travels. As to his activities in Canada in 1837, we have a few tantalizing hints in the records. In his History (2. 423) Robertson quotes from the minutes of True Britons' Lodge, No. 21, Perth, which report a meeting held on 4 September 1837: "The Secretary read a letter received by the W.M. from John Auldjo, Esq., Master for the Province of U. C., wishing to have all the necessary information respecting the state of Masonry in this Lodge in order to bring the ancient fraternity to its former glory and knowledge of the Craft." And the Provincial Grand Master himself, R.W. Brother McGillivray, subsequently stated, "When John Auldjo went to Canada nearly three years ago, I gave him a Warrant as my Deputy, chiefly for the purpose of enquiry, and on his return he made to me a report as satisfactory as under the circumstances I could have expected; and which, with a report of my own, I placed in the hands of H.R.H. the M.W.G.M. . . . " (Robertson's History, 2. 156). But John Ross Robertson confesses. somewhat forlornly, "There is no record of the work of Bro. John Auldjo . . ." (History, 2, 196).

In February of this year, I was able to spend some time working in the Library of Freemasons' Hall, in London. The Librarian, Bro. T. O. Haunch, extended every possible courtesy, including access to the Library's Historical Correspondence File for Canada. From the period before 1858 it has many documents which were evidently consulted by John Ross Robertson. One escaped his eagle eye. Under the reference number "G.L.Lib., Hist. Corresp. File, 16/D/48," I had the good fortune to locate Auldjo's long lost report on the state of the Craft in Upper Canada. This seemed to me of considerable interest to the Masons of this jurisdiction, and by permission of the United Grand Lodge of England, I am privileged to present a transcription.

The report is in the form of a letter, on black-edged stationery (for reasons which become clear), and consists of eight closely written pages.

"To the R^t Worshipful Simon McGillivray Esqre P. G. Master for Up^r Canada.

Dear Sir and Rt Worshipful Sir

In pursuance of the instructions which you had the kindness to give me on appointing me your Depy. Prov. Grand Master for Upper Canada, I no sooner arrived at Toronto, than I called on Brother Beikie and explained to him the nature of my mission, requesting his assistance. Age — the great press of his official duties and personal embarrassments deterred him from offering any active cooperation, but he promised such as circumstances would allow. He remembered having received the copy of the report you desired me to obtain from him, but could not say where it now was. He promised to look over his private and Masonic papers at the first opportunity, and forward it to me, if found. It will now be given into the care of Brother Mercer Jones, till further directions make known to him, what to do with it.

By Colonel Fitzgibbon, I was kindly, cordially received, and by his promptness, added to the assistance of Brother Jones, I obtained interviews with most of the influential Brethren at Toronto, and afterwards assembled them together at the house of the latter Brother, where I read to them your patent and letter of instructions — I found that it had been many years, I believe eight, that the Grand Lodge had not met, and not one of them could give me any other information of the Lodges in the Province than that to the best of their belief they were all dissolved, except one at Toronto — another at Kingston, and one unauthorized by any warrant in some other part of the Province. The lodge at Toronto — the S! George's continued to meet occasionally, but its members were very few, — these remaining with the desire of keeping alive the last expiring embers of Masonry in Upper Canada. Its Master Brother Carfrae was present at the meeting and informed me that he had in his possession the jewels of the Grand Lodge, and I desired him to retain them till further instructions, which he has consented to do.

The other Brethren present were Fitzgibbon Turquand Thos and George Ridout, Dean Rose and Jones. They all expressed themselves to be highly delighted at the prospect of the revival of the Grand Lodge and promised to give their utmost aid in this good work, having no doubt that with a D.P.G. Master who would take trouble and had time to devote himself to his duties, Masonry would again flourish and afford many persons who had been separated from each other by various circumstances, the means of once more meeting on that beautiful pavement, where the asperity of political or religious differences has no sway and severs not the bond of Union and of Friendship.

I succeeded at once in making out a list of Grand Officers, composed of the following Brethren, distinguished in the Craft and by their positions in the Province.

P.D.G.M. Brother Fitzgibbon - Beikie Sr. Grand Warden -Adiel Sherwood Esgre Captⁿ. Macauley Revd Mr Smart Grand Chaplains — Revd Dr Philips Grand Treasurer. Thos. G. Ridout Esq^r Bernard Turquand Esq^r Grand Registrar, Grand Secretaries -J Dean Esq^r T Mercer Jones Esar Grand Director of Works-Thos Chewett Esq^r --- Rose Esq Grand Director of Ceremonies, Grand S. Deacon -W. J. Ker Esg^r W. Carfrae Esq Junior Grand Deacon -Grand Sword Bearer. Dr Burnside Tyler of S^t George's Lodge. Grand Tyler ——— leaving me Still — Major Winniet and the Honble H. Dunn, both active masons ready to take office.

Brother Fitzgibbon, as also Brother Jones promised to obtain the consent of those Brethren who were not present, but who they knew would accept their appointments with pleasure and with a wish to do their duty. It was also arranged that the Grand Lodge should meet at Toronto in the first week of October, and each promised to acquire all the information he could of the state of the Craft. With regard to the proposed plan of separating the Province into two Masonic provinces, the universal opinion of the Brethren I consulted was against it; in the present state of the Craft, it would not be adviseable but it was their opinion that the plan recommended by you and adopted by the last Grand Lodge, of meeting alternately at Toronto and Kingston ought to be continued, at least until Masonry had regained its influence.

During the few remaining days I spent at Toronto, I succeeded in persuading many Masons who had deserted their duties to promise to rejoin their Lodge, and some of the Superior Officers of the Government signified to me their wish to join the craft. Brother Carfrae I am certain will leave no exertion untried to restore the S^t George's Lodge to its former high rank, and assisted by the Brethren who have pledged themselves to return to their work, will succeed in enrolling these Gentlemen among the members of our Antient Fraternity and shew an example which will speedily be followed by the Brethren in other parts of the Province, and I look for the happiest results when it be known that members of the Legislative & Executive Councils and some of the most distinguished persons of Society in Toronto have been initiated into our Mysteries.

The document C described in your letter of instructions, I delivered to the care of Brother Turquand the Grand Registrar.

I proceeded to the lower Province with the intention of returning in the end of September, to Kingston, Brockville and the towns where Lodges had existed but in the mean time thought it adviseable to address a circular (of which a copy is annexed marked A) to the Masters of Lodges enumerated on the Grand Books, calling on them for information. No answer to this had been received when I left Montreal, but I directed such as did arrive after my departure, should be sent to Brother Jones — and also requested him to report to England, to you, any information they might contain.

I had advanced so far in my mission which it was my intention to have fulfilled most strictly and to the best of my ability, and with the anxious desire of every Mason I met to assist me in it, I looked forward with a well grounded hope that I should succeed in restoring Order to [the] Craft in the Province and give you such a report, as would in affording you gratification, have entitled me to this the only reward I sought. But alas! man proposes — the Great Ruler of the Universe disposes — and in removing to a better world my only and Beloved Brother, has inflicted a heavy bereavement on me, which Time and the sacred Duty I have now to perform in watching over his Widow and infant Children, can alone alleviate To me they are the only tie left which binds the memory of the past with the hope of the Future. As soon as this painful intelligence reached me I decided to return instantly to Europe, for this object must be paramount in all my future arrangements. I wrote to Brother Mercer Jones, desiring him to make known to the Brethren who had so kindly come forward to further my wishes, the melancholy position in which I was placed and to assure them, that though obliged to leave the Country without meeting them — and without fulfilling my mission, I should lose no time in reporting to you — what I had done and what I had learnt, but that everything as far as concerned the Grand Lodge must rest in abeyance till he received some communication from you. I also obtained a printed copy of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge at various meetings held in 1826 and which I enclose for your information.

Thus, Right Worshipful Sir, in returning to its Source the appointment so kindly entrusted to me, I regret that I do not do so with the satisfaction I should have derived had I accomplished the object for which it was bestowed but I trust that the sudden and melancholy cause which obliged me to forsake my work, will absolve me also from all blame in having left it unfinished.

Believe me to be Dear Sir and Rt Worshipful Brother

London, Oct. 10: 1837."

The document which Bro. Beikie "remembered having received," but could not lay hands on, was a copy of the official report submitted by McGillivray on his mission of 1822. He had told Auldjo to claim it back in replacement of the original, which was "mislaid" in London.

"Document C," which Auldjo says was described in McGillivray's instructions, was a letter from the Grand Secretaries to McGillivray, dated 12 June 1826, providing for the temporary succession of the Provincial Grand Lodge in the event of the death or resignation of the Provincial Grand Master.

During his sojourn in Upper Canada, Auldjo visited only Toronto, and he met few Masons from other parts of the colony. Inevitably his report has a certain local bias. Yet even here it is not free from error. The lodge in Toronto was not in fact St George's (which had dissolved itself in 1829), but St Andrew's. The mistake is understandable, because several members of St Andrew's (W. Bro. Carfrae, and Bros. Burnside and Rose) had previously belonged to St George's.

Actually St Andrew's was in effect dormant, not having met since about December 1835. St John's, Kingston, as well, had been in recess since February 1834. The third lodge cited by Auldjo, "in some other part of the Province," was apparently Unity, Whitby, working under a dispensation of 1825. Communication had clearly broken down among the Masons of Upper Canada, for there were other lodges elsewhere which, unknown to Auldjo, were more or less active: King Hiram, No. 12, Ingersoll; No. 14, Brantford; possibly No. 15, St Catharines; possibly Western Light, No. 18, Lloydtown; Mount Moriah, No. 20, London; True Britons', No. 21, Perth; possibly Harmony, No. 22, Yonge; and possibly Richmond Lodge at Richmond Hill.

Nearly all the brethren named in Auldjo's report may be identified. Several were prominent in civil affairs; most were residents of Toronto, and were in fact members of St Andrew's, No. 1, Toronto. A list of the names is given below, with brief notes on each individual. The abbreviation F after a name indicates that the man receives a biographical notice in Edith G. Firth, The Town of York 1815-1834 (Toronto 1966). The letter M shows that he appears in the Macmillan Dictionary of Canadian Biography (fourth edition, Toronto, 1978). Those brethren whom Auldjo actually met are distinguished with an asterisk.

*Beikie, John (F, about 1767-1839); former Clerk of the Executive Council; initiated No. 9, P.R.Q., Cornwall, 1799; affiliated No. 1, York, 1822; W.M., 1825-1828; D.P.G.M., 1825-1827.

Burnside, Dr Alexander (F, 1780?-1854); founder of the Burnside Lying-in Hospital; a member of No. 16, York, in 1815; W.M. 1819; the lodge received the number 9 in 1822; affiliated No. 1, York, 1829; Prov. G. Swd. B., 1837.

*Carfrae, W.; apparently an error for Thomas (F, 1796-1841); Collector of Customs at Toronto; initiated No. 9, York, 1825; W.M., 1826-1827; affiliated No. 1, York, 1829; W.M., 1832-1839; Prov. G. Swd. B., 1827; Prov. G.J.D., 1837.

Chewett, Thomas; Prov. G. Dir. of Works, 1837; not identified; possibly an error for James Grant Chewett (F, 1793-1862); Deputy Surveyor General; initiated No. 1, York, 1823; Prov. G.D. of C., 1825-1827.

*Dean, John (1791-1847); a civil servant in the Crown Lands Department; a member of No. 13, Ernestown, 1817; the lodge was renumbered as 7 in 1822; W.M., 1822-1824, 1826-1827; Prov. G. Sec. 1822-1827, 1837; affiliated No. 1, Toronto, 1840.

Dunn, the Honorable H.; i.e., John Henry (F, 1794-1854); Receiver General of Upper Canada; a member of No. 1, York, 1822; Prov. G. Treas., 1822-1823.

*FitzGibbon, Col. James (FM, 1780-1863); Assistant Adjutant General and Clerk of the Legislative Assembly; initiated No. 40, E. R. (A.), Quebec, 1803; affiliated No. 1, York, 1823; D.P.G.M., 1822-1823.

*Jones, Thomas Mercer (F, 1796-1868); commissioner of the Canada Company; affiliated No. 1, Toronto, 1840; Prov. G. Sec., 1837.

Kerr, William Johnson (1787-1845); Member of the Legislative Assembly; a member of No. 2, Niagara, 1822-1824; W.M., 1823; Prov. G.S.W., 1822-1823; Prov. G.S.D., 1837; W.M., No. 10, Hamilton, 1841.

Macauley, Capt., Prov. G.J.W., 1837; probably John Simcoe Macaulay (M, 1791-1855), an officer in the Royal Engineers, who returned to Toronto in 1835, and served as a colonel in the militia in 1837; his Masonic affiliation is not known.

Phillips, Rev. Dr Thomas (F, 1781-1849); rector of Weston; affiliated No. 1, York, 1829; Prov. G. Chaplain, 1827, 1837.

*Ridout, George (F, 1791-1871); barrister in Toronto; initiated No. 1, York, 1823.

*Ridout, Thomas Gibbs (FM, 1792-1861); cashier of the Bank of Upper Canada; initiated No. 1, York, 1823; W.M., 1840-1841, 1844; Prov. G. Treas., 1825-1827, 1837; D.P.G.M., 1845-1857.

*Rose, Walter; second clerk in the Receiver General's Office; initiated No. 9, York, 1825; W.M., 1829; affiliated No. 1, York, 1829; W.M., 1829; Prov. G.D. of C., 1837.

Sherwood, Adiel, (M, 1779-1874); High Sheriff of the Johnstown District; initiated No. 13, Elizabethtown, 1800; W.M., 1802; member of No. 3, Brockville, 1815; W.M., 1823-1824; Prov. G.J.W., 1825; Prov. G.S.W., 1827, 1837.

Smart, Rev. William (M, 1788-1876); pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Brockville; initiated No. 3, Brockville, 1820; Prov. G. Chaplain, 1822-1825, 1837.

*Turquand, Bernard (1790-); Deputy Receiver General; a member of No. 1, York, 1822; W.M., 1830; Prov. G. Sec., 1822-1827; Prov. G. Reg., 1837.

Winniett, Major James (F, fl. 1795-1832), of the 68th Regiment; Superintendent of Indian Affairs on the Grand River; affiliated No. 5, Kingston, 1825; acting Prov. G. Reg., 1826.

John Ross Robertson quotes two old letters which had seemed very puzzling: one from Thomas Mercer Jones to FitzGibbon. dated 24 August 1837 (volume 2, page 197), and another from William J. Kerr to John Dean, dated 7 September 1837 (volume 2. page 194). They state that John Dean (who we know was very legalistically minded) had called a meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge at Toronto for 25 September. But under what authority? He would certainly never have ventured to do so on his own! Again. the Deputy Provincial Grand Master had recently appointed new officers. Can this really have been a suddenly rejuvenated John Beikie, as Robertson alleges? Moreover, there is no record of the meeting ever taking place. Why not? Was it really because of the state of political agitation in the province? Mackenzie's "Siege of Toronto" did not begin until 4 December. All these difficulties are swept aside by the discovery of Auldjo's report. The sudden flurry of Masonic activity was prompted by his arrival; its abrupt cessation coincided with his unforeseen departure.

The report emphasizes the discouraging depths to which the Craft had sunk in Upper Canada by 1837, with only a handful of isolated lodges limping along as best they could. It also hints at latent reserves of interest and ability which, under proper supervision, would lead to the revival and rapid growth of Masonry in the 1840's.

Acknowledgements. For unpublished information about John Auldjo I am indebted to Bro. T. O. Haunch, Librarian of Freemasons' Hall, London, Miss J. P. Birkett of the Public Archives of Canada, Ottawa, and Mrs Shirley C. Spragge of the Queen's University Archives, Kingston.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege to present the Report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence which is really the Foreword to the reviews of the Annual Proceedings of the Grand Lodges with which our Grand Lodge is in amity and from which we have received Proceedings. The Foreword, in the past fifty years, has never included a list of the many events that are reported in the Annual Proceedings of the several Grand Lodges, but your chairman has tried to point out a sufficient number to interest you in reading them all. If you do so, you will be greatly rewarded.

Every Grand Lodge seems to be concerned with the number of Masons on its roll and the annual losses from that number. At the time of writing this Foreword there were four Grand Lodges that reported increases and forty-four reporting losses. Read Arizona and New Zealand.

Inflation is the number one concern today. It could reduce the effectiveness of lodge activities unless extraordinary consideration is given to this facet of the life of each lodge. As your chairman, may I point to the review of Idaho (1979) and then if you will turn to the next page after this Foreword where R.W. Bro. Sankey has quoted four paragraphs from Idaho (1980) which I hope will direct us all into some positive action.

Retaining the interest of lodge members is fundamentally the job of the Worshipful Master and the Officers. There is a possibility that a Grand Lodge might concern itself in this field by appointing a committee which could direct applicants to lodges which have members with similar interests in the Craft. Read Victoria, Australia, and see if you agree.

Encouraging news is always welcome. One such item that appears in most reviews is the real success of the scholarship program to assist students beyond the secondary level.

Anniversaries are important and satisfying. They remind us of the past and direct us in the path to be followed in the future. In 1980 residents of Saskatchewan were celebrating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the province. M.W. Bro. Hanson, in addressing the Grand Lodge Banquet, referred to this event. We should all read and reread his words recorded there.

A rare event happened in the Grand Lodge of Montana. The Grand Master made a Mason 'at sight'. As far as your chairman has been able to determine a like occurrence has taken place only once in the history of our Grand Lodge.

The great work of the Grand Lodge of Minnesota is the Masonic Memorial Fund. This began in 1955 and has expanded in scope since. You will be happy to note the continuing efforts of our brethren in this Grand Lodge towards research in the field of cancer treatment. The proposed appropriation for the year 1980-81 was $185.000.

So far your committee has not mentioned many of the reviews. Of those remaining we believe that you will be interested in reading the following: Ireland. Japan, Oklahoma, Quebec, Southern Africa, Pennsylvania, England, Nebraska and South Australia. Each of these have concerns that are not common to others and they suggest some unique answers.

Many other items are worthy of comment. We urge that you read every review, for each is educational and each is truly interesting. We are sure you will enjoy the exercise!

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

BRUCE B. FOSTER, Chairman.

Fraternal Correspondence and Reviews

Reviews written by R.W. BRO. CHARLES A. SANKEY

Two speeches, one by a young member of a small American Grand Lodge and the other by a senior officer of the Grand Lodge of England on an historic occasion, seemed, to your reviewer, to be especially pertinent in considering the future of Freemasonry.

When the Grand Lodge of Idaho opened in Moscow, Idaho, on September 18th, 1980, the Worshipful Masters present were received at the altar. If, when W. Bro. James A. Downs of Cassia Lodge No. 14 replied to the welcome, the brethren expected, at most, a couple of the conventional platitudes, they were in for a surprise:—

"--- As we consider our future, we are all concerned about SURVIVAL. ---

I remember, as a child, my father pointing to some men who were unloading a car-load of coal (during the depression) and telling me 'The Masons bought it and are delivering it to some needy families.' At that time, Masonry was a force and a respected organization in every community. How many of our Lodges today could buy a car-load of anything without going bankrupt? ---

- --- First, we must convince our members (old and young alike) to forget, yes, forget yesterday's dollar. Our brethren in earlier days believed in the concept of a day's wages as annual dues, and a month's wages for the fees. We are a long way from these guidelines now. ---
- --- Our obsolete and cheap dues and fees have done much to cheapen Freemasonry, and the old and proven adage needs our sincere attention,—'If it is cheap, it can't be quality and it can't be very good'. ---

Secondly, Life Memberships, — while it takes time to feel the effects of this fine program, everything must begin --- It is a wonderful way for many of us to leave a small legacy to our beloved Lodges, --- It is a permanent investment. --- As time passes --- our Lodges can be doing more and offering more, they can rebuild and retain the respected place a Masonic Lodge should have in its community."

W. Bro. Downs received a standing ovation. Your reviewer would have joined had he been present.

At the Communication of the United Grand Lodge of New South Wales during the International Masonic Festival in Sydney, Australia, on March 7, 1979, R.W. Bro. Hon. E. L. Baillieu, Asst. Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of England delivered a major address. You will find extensive quotations from it in the review of England. He concluded as follows:—

"--- these three Grand Principles ---

First, BROTHERLY LOVE, --- On this principle Masonry unites men of every country, sect and opinion. --- we eliminate all divisive prejudice arising from differences in race, colour, class and creed: how difficult and how challenging! ---

Second, RELIEF, --- We do not discharge this duty by giving money; it is a much wider concept, involving compassion.---

Thirdly, TRUTH, --- It is not enough to contemplate; we have to translate its precepts into action. Again, what a challenge!

If we practice all our grand principles, then the world will know that a Mason 'is one to whom the burdened heart may pour forth its sorrow, to whom the distressed may prefer their suit, whose hand is guided by justice and whose heart is expanded by benevolence.' BUT the world knows nothing of the sort at the moment. The world regards us as a secret society essentially concerned with the welfare of Masons and their dependants and possessing very few principles. Young men ought to be clamouring to join us, but they are not doing so, not because they cannot afford to but because they are given no sufficient indication of what we stand for, — our system of morality and our concern for the whole human species.

I am convinced that Masonry requires from us a positive and not a passive role. --- Brethren, I refer to Precept or to use a more modern word — Example. If we — all of us — really practised the Principles and tenets of our Masonic Arts; if we truly lived them --- in our public and private lives. --- then surely that part of the world with which we are connected would become a better place. Masonry must thereby attract to itself — as it has in the past — numbers of men who think as we do. Inevitably our influence will spread and (we) must surely agree that that (would) be to the benefit of mankind."

Our R.W. Bro. Donald M. Fleming was the speaker at the banquet before the Friday evening opening of Grand Lodge. His forceful address was well received and appreciated. He was, later, given the rank of Hon. Past J.G.W.

The Grand Master made a special point of visiting remote lodges. He emphasized the importance of district meetings and suggested that dates could be arranged to allow "up-coming" D.D.G.M.s to attend as observers. He commented on a problem by no means confined to Alberta:—

"---There are still too many candidates for office who are nominated on a simple rotation basis through a district. Even worse there is a tendency to use the office and title as just a reward and honour for some fine old brother. --- Election to Grand Lodge is not supposed to be a popularity contest. It is a careful selection process whereby the Craft will be assured of services of the men most qualified to do the job."

The Jurisprudence Committee had an unusual case following the refusal of a W.M., after consultation with his P.M.s and the D.D.G.M., to permit a nomination for warden of a brother who at the time was a warden in another lodge. (To complicate matters he would have been W.M. later in two lodges at the same time!) The Committee held that all rulings previous to the new Constitution of 1969 were abrogated, including a prohibition from holding more than one lodge office at the same time. The W.M. and the D.D.G.M. were therefore wrong and the nomination should have been permitted. The offended brother had, meanwhile, demitted from the lodge refusing the nomination.

The Grand Master had strong opinions on two Masonic conferences:—

"Both were notable, --- The Banff Conference by --- its purely Masonic content and attention to Craft business and the North American Conference for just the opposite reason --- its seeming preoccupation with almost anything but the concerns of the individual Mason and his Lodge."

Because of previous rejection of an increase in the per capita dues, Grand Lodge continues to operate on a deficit budget covered by a year by year assessment to balance. The report of the Finance Committee is detailed and an extensive report compared Grand Lodge expenses and salaries with those of other jurisdictions. The estimated 1981 deficit is nearly $40,000, 45% of the estimated revenue before assessment!

Fiat Lux Lodge of Research U.D. will be given its charter as No. 1981.

As usual, while the number of benevolent grants was small, some were sizeable (max. $6,000). Thirty-six bursaries of $700 each were awarded plus 1 scholarship of $4,000 from the Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milling Scholarship Fund.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium, extended to the Grande Loge Reguliere de Belgique, to Honduras and to Uruguay. Action on 3 Brazillian State Grand Lodges was withheld.

After the installation of the new Grand Master, a Service of Rededication preceded the formal closing of Grand Lodge.

Camelback Daylight Lodge No. 75 was constituted.

Nineteen of the 23 living Past Grand Masters were present at Grand Lodge. Five lodges lost their vote because of failure to file their returns by January 31st. All returns were in well before the Annual Communication, but that is not good enough under Arizona regulations.

The Grand Master noted that the membership gain was due to affiliations of out-of-state Masons (presumably moving to or wintering in Arizona). There were 410 "Foreign" affiliations, in addition to 71 "Arizona" ones. He issued an edict forbidding any Mason to attend a meeting of the Shrine when any suspended Mason was present. A second edict directed lodges to celebrate public schools week with special events. He ruled that a Fellowcraft who had been convicted of a felony was not only barred from advancement but was not entitled to a Masonic trial.

It is inferred that in Arizona the letter "G" is normally displayed on the east wall. Letters were written to lodges where there were pictures near this, requiring removal of anything that might compete with the "G" for attention.

There are several "Masonic Home" funds and trust funds, total $1.1 million. There is no Home and the committee reports are against starting one. Ten university students each received a $750 scholarship. The Grand Master proposed setting up a non-profit "Arizona Masonic Foundation." A committee will make recommendations next year. General funds had a small cash surplus from the year and next year's budget is balanced.

There are a series of booklets in "the Lodge System of Education." The candidate, his wife and "other interested parties" may be present for "the 1st reading." Subsequent books and instructions may be given only to candidates.

A special committee is planning centennial celebrations for 1982. "Arizona Masonry" is published monthly by Grand Lodge, 2700 copies per issue, and is on its 4th year of publication.

Two Emergent Communications were held. In the first, Langley Lodge No. 184 was constituted and consecrated and, in the second, the cornerstone of the Royal Arch Masonic Homes was laid in Vancouver. The latter was attended by representatives of city, provincial and federal governments, by members of the Grand Lodge of Washington and by some 350 members of the Craft and the public. The last previous ceremony of this kind was in 1971, and there have been only 3 others since the 1930's.

Our M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards attended the Annual Communication, and was one of several visiting Grand Masters to address the brethren.

The Grand Chaplain emphasized the desirability of having VSLs of all monotheistic religions available to lodges. He continued:—

"Once, I was very upset when a person who knew that I was a Mason, said to me: 'The trouble with you Masons is that you restrict membership to descendants of Masons and consist only of White Anglo-Saxon Protestants!'

--- In my response --- I showed this person a picture of Masonic Brethren in full regalia marching down the main street of Barkerville on their way to a Service of Worship and representatives of 3 Ethnic groups were most obvious."

The Grand Master visited each of the 27 districts and was pleased with his trip to northern British Columbia and the Yukon. He got advice and support from his "Advisory Committee" but a constitutional amendment to set up an Advisory Council was defeated. Other proposals defeated would have allowed "Lewis" status for sons of Masons, have made it optional to the W.M. to conduct lodge business in the E.A. or F.C. degrees (all business now in a lodge of M.Ms.), and allowed recorded music in ritual when there was no organist. A special committee will, however, recommend guidelines relating to the use of sound and/or light recording or play-back devices during a communication of a constituent Lodge.

The Committee on Penalties was unable to come to conclusions and asked for another year of tenure.

An unusual event was the celebration of Bro. George Alchin's 100th birthday in his Lodge. The Grand Master was present and Bro. Alchin headed the Grand Master's procession, carrying the Book of Constitution.

The per capita dues were raised $1.50 to $5.75. The new amount is still the lowest in western Canada.

The Board of Benevolence made grants of $65,000 including $25,000 for bursaries. 77 bursaries and 22 educational grants were awarded.

Fraternal recognition was given to Uruguay, to Ceara (Brazil) and to Baja California Sur. Action on Belgium, on Ecuador and on Honduras was deferred.

Your reviewer, who is the representative of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia near our Grand Lodge, records with happiness, the election and installation of his long-time friend, R.W. Bro. D. J. MacLaurin, as Deputy Grand Master.

(Last year your reviewer had the brochure for the 30th anniversary of this Grand Lodge and this was reviewed under "China - 1979." The proceedings are now at hand.)

The recognition by the United States of the People's Republic of China and the corresponding severance of Sino (Taiwan) - American relations meant the loss of several members (who left Taiwan) and obviously places the long range future of this Grand Lodge in jeopardy from communist control with results of which our Chinese brethren are only too well aware.

The Grand Master, in his 2nd year in office, built up international contacts. He attended the Conference of Grand Masters of North America and was very favourably received. He also visited India and was given the rank of honorary P.D.G.M. which is the highest honorary rank given by the Grand Lodge of India.

With inflation and the small membership there were financial difficulties. NT$100,000 (Canadian $3,300) from per capita and designated for charity had to be transferred to general fund to balance the books. This was criticised at Grand Lodge. After discussion it was agreed that ½ of the per capita charity assessment next year would, by resolution, go to general fund. Grand Lodge is talking about building a new Temple in Taipei which would include business premises to provide revenue. Government regulations dictated that senior Grand Lodge officers be officially "Directors, Supervisors and Alternates."

Three scholarships were given to students.

Four pages of the 69 in the Proceedings are in Chinese and Chinese characters of surnames of all officers are included throughout the text. Translation of rituals is apparently complete. The Policy Committee felt "that the use of both Chinese and English rituals by subordinate Lodges be left to the discretion of the Master of the Lodge."

Our M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards attended the Annual Communication.

At the written request of The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Connecticut, cordial meetings have been held and a joint committee set up with 8 members from the Grand Lodge of Connecticut (including 4 Past Grand Masters). The Prince Hall Masons do not want amalgamation but wish to retain their sovereignty with "a closer working relationship with the A.F. & A.M. Connecticut Masons." Several (joint) successful programs were arranged, with the assistance of Scottish Rite bodies as sponsors which "have not violated our Constitution." The Grand Master reported:—

I value the concerns of all those who have worked and lent support to this endeavor. The Brotherhood of Masonry has been working to dignify the internal and not the external qualifications of mankind regardless of color, race or creed."

This is the most pertinent breakthrough your reviewer has seen. How hard are the winds of change really blowing? (see also the reviews of Southern Africa 1979 where a completely different racial situation exists).

The Grand Master directed each W.M. to appoint a "Retention Committee" whose duties included noting and visiting members in arrears well before they were liable to suspension N.P.D., contacting demitted members ("they should be encouraged to return to the fold. Many would like to but are too embarrassed to ask"), and "an out-reach program" for personal visits and telephone calls to distressed Masons and to widows.

A blanket dispensation was issued permitting lodges to cancel stated communications in January and February if desired to conserve fuel.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium by edict. Grand Lodge approved recognition of the Grande Loge Reguliere Belgique and the Gran Logia de la Masoneria Del Uruguay. The Grand Master attended a special communication of Union Lodge No. 40 for a memorial service to honor General David Wooster, "the founder of Freemasonry in Connecticut." The lodge was filled to overflowing, the day proclaimed "Wooster Memorial Sunday" by the mayor, and a parade decorated Wooster's grave. Your reviewer cannot help wondering what Bro. Wooster's reaction would have been to the "circus" bands, minibike patrols, Knight Templar Color Guards, De Molay marchers, and all the other trimmings displayed on the occasion.

The new Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Morris I. Budkofsky, is the first of the Jewish Faith to hold that office in this jurisdiction.

The Grand Master presided at the Annual Investiture, R.W. Bro. Hon. Fiennes Cornwallis, Deputy Grand Master presided at the March and September Quarterlies, R.W. Bro. Hon. E. L. Baillieu, Assistant Grand Master, in June, and the Pro Grand Master in December. Our M.W. Bro. Davies attended the Annual Investiture.

During the year 65 new lodges were chartered, 7 of which were abroad. There was a net gain of 53 lodges. The newest lodge on the register was No. 8917.

The Grand Master, in his address, cited his own reaction on his initiation for his strong support for the "traditional" modification of the penalties. The modification is still optional, But:—

"It is up to (Preceptors of Lodges of Instruction) to --not let the more conservative members persist in the old routine without giving full and open-minded consideration to the problem; its moral implications are to my mind much more important than any considerations of preserving traditions."

The constitution was amended to provide for a "Senior London" Grand Rank and to increase the availability of conferred past ranks which are so much a characteristic part of English Constitution Freemasonry.

Benevolent grants were extensive and significant. £154,160 was divided among 483 "petitioners". The "Annual grants" included £5,000 to each of the Masonic Institutions and to the Samarian Fund of the Royal Masonic Hospital; £100,000 to the Provincial Grand Lodge of Devonshire towards the cost of a home for the aged; £42,500 to the disposal of the Board for general (non-masonic) charitable purposes; £5,000 to St. George Lodge No. 3421, Dominica, to alleviate distress caused by a hurricane; £1,000 to the District Grand Lodge of West South Africa towards expenses of brethren injured in a bomb explosion. £2,000 went to Sri Lanka for cyclone relief.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium and accorded to the Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium.

Per capita fees are revised annually. They now total £3.95 in London, £2.65 in the provinces, £0.41 in the districts and £0.68 abroad.

Advertising of "Masonic Cruises" and the like was condemned. The Board "does not consider that any statement that 'profits' from such ventures will be devoted to Masonic Charity affects this situation."

At the Annual Investiture, R.W. Bro. Baillieu, Asst. Grand Master, reported on his attendance as the official delegate of the Grand Lodge of England at the International Masonic Festival in Sydney, Australia, in March 1979. The 8 days were packed with activity, bracketed by services in St. Andrew's Cathedral on March 4th and in the Great Synagogue on March 11th, and culminating in the opening of the Masonic Centre on March 10th. Some 6,000 Masons paraded to the centre on the occasion.

R.W. Bro. Baillieu addressed the Quarterly Communication of the Grand Lodge of New South Wales "attended by all the visiting delegations and some 1,500 other Masons." His text, printed in full, began with the historical and philosophical background of Freemasonry:—

"Whence come we and whither are we directing our steps? ---

The whole idea of what modern men called 'morality' stems from the development of the idea of one spiritual, moral God, ---

Moses --- was allowed --- to build no more than an altar of stone to try to symbolize worship of the one true God.

It was left to Solomon, the first powerful ruler of a settled and organized State of Israel, to build the first Temple --- dedicated to the idea of a spiritual God; a God of love, of justice and of mercy; a God, who, of necessity, is veiled in allegory, can be pleased only by morality and can be illustrated only by man-made symbols. ---

For the majority of those of us who are of Western European ancestry this idea has come down, developed in the Christian tradition and through the teachings and influence of Jesus. But Judaism was, and is, the original religion of the Most High God, to use a standard Irish Masonic expression.

(In England) the original Freemasons were organized bodies of skilled men, engaged like King Solomon himself, in erecting Temples to the Most High. --- Each such band of Masons was presided over by a Master Mason and came to be known by name from its meeting place. --- (today) we find points of observance --- dating from the 12th and 13th centuries. A covenant entered into in 1552 between the Freemasons engaged on the fabric of York Minister and the Dean and Chapter is full of information concerning their 'ancient usages' which the ecclesiastical authorities agreed to maintain. ---

Elias Ashmole, after whom the world-famous Ashmolean Museum at Oxford is named, has left a record that he was initiated in a Lodge in Warrington, Lancashire, on the 16th October 1646. He was no builder, and we have come to the point where the operative Masons first take in the speculative - and, in quite a short time are swallowed up by them.

The two most important --- organizers of early Grand Lodge days in England were James Anderson and John Desaguliers. --- Jean Theo Desaguliers was brought to England (age 2) by his father, a Huguenot pastor, in 1685, --- graduated from Christ Church, Oxford in 1710, was made a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1714 and was, for many years the Minister of the French Protestant Church in London.

In my view the rapid spread of Freemasonry (after 1717) is only explicable on the basis that like was attracted to like and not that the original four Lodges almost at once hived off new Lodges all over the country.

I do not believe that the philosophy of Anderson and Desaguliers in the early 18th century was much different from our own in the latter part of the 20th: eternal verities do not change any more than landmarks."

You will find part of the conclusion of R.W. Bro. Baillieu's address at the beginning of these reviews.

(Your reviewer is again indebted to V.W. Bro. V. F.Koivu for preparing this review. Five issues of six of KOILLIS-KULMA ["The North-East Corner"] were available. We did not have [and, in the past, have not had] formal Proceedings.)

Membership of the Craft in Finland continues to grow. Three new lodges were constituted in 1979. The number of lodges given above is that reported as of the end of 1979. It is 12 lodges higher than would follow from adding 3 to the 73 lodges reported in last year's review. Regardless of where the error is, this Grand Lodge is flourishing. The end-1979 membership is given as 3,938, an increase of over 26% since 1975, and involving gains from 4.1% to 5.8% over the previous year.

The 50th Anniversary of Royal Arch Fidelitas Chapter No. 1 is reported. R.A. Chapters in Finland were originally under England and became an independent Grand Chapter in 1961. Mark Master Masons' Lodge Astrum No. 1 also had its 50th anniversary. The history of these bodies seems to have run in parallel. A special anniversary book was published.

One of the issues of KOILLIS-KULMA is primarily concerned with "Glimpses from Masonic History". The founding of the Grand Lodges of England, Scotland and Ireland is reviewed.

In another issue prominence is given to the 20th anniversary of the Rose Croix Chapter "Boreaksen" in Helsinki. The Grand Master was in attendance. There are pictures at dinner, which appear to be similar in format to one of our Rose Croix ceremonies here.

The Grand Master of the Netherlands, M.W. Bro. Th. Boesman, visited Finland, attended the Opera in Savonlinna and the 20th anniversary of St. Olavi Lodge No. 19 in the Fort of Olavanlinna.

A trip of Finnish Freemasons to New York and Florida was being considered for 1981. This would mean attending the 200th anniversary of the Grand Lodge of New York.

Another anniversary was the 30th of "Humanitas," a benevolent organization within the Craft which assists the needy, the crippled, the elderly and war veterans.

A new ritual music tape (cassette) was recorded in the Cathedral of Tampere. The artist is the singer-organist Bro. Matti Hannula and the composer Bro. Bengt Johansson. Proceeds from the sale will go to a building fund for a new Freemasons' Hall in Tempere.

(Your reviewer obtained from Finland the record of Sibelius' Masonic Music reported in these reviews last year. Several tenor solos are beautiful. The text in Finnish includes translations of poetry of Schiller and of Geothe as well as Masonic odes. Swedish, English and German translations are supplied.)

The editor of KOILLIS-KULMA retired, R.W. Bro. Jaakko Vory was warmly commended by the Grand Master. The new editor is R.W. Bro. Reijo Ahtokari. R.W. Bro. Vory had also been local secretary for Q.C.C.C. for some 10 years and asked to be replaced.

Lodges 325 Membership 83,448 Gain 97 plus 3 memorial lodges and 1 lodge of research

Before Grand Lodge opened, there was a reenactment of the organization of this Grand Lodge in Tallahassee, in the Territory of Florida in July 1830. The formal opening followed, 15 of 23 Past Grand Masters being present. The start of the first afternoon session was "at refreshment" for reception of ladies and youth groups, the Grand Orator's address "Freedom is not Free," necrology, eulogies and a memorial service. Labor was resumed for the Grand Master's report.

The Grand Master emphasized leadership by example:—

"First, use your head. Make your choice whom ye shall serve ---

Second, use your heart. Love those things that neither time nor tide nor circumstances will erase. ---

Thirdly, use your feet --- There are times when it is wise to retreat. But feet are also made to dig in. Stand firm. ---

The proceedings are verbatim text and everything appears to be recorded in full. The 640 printed pages are too bulky for a detailed review and your reviewer had to rely on casual skimming. Here are a few items:—

The Grand Master issued 64 dispensations and refused 6. The latter included (and your reviewer regrets this) not permitting a petition to be received from a blind man, and, believe it or not, a request from a lodge to postpone a stated communication for a week so that the members could watch on TV a Florida State Seminoles football game. The Grand Master said that this was "insufficient reason" which may well be the Masonic understatement of the year. He gave 18 executive orders, including several that appear to require annual repetition dealing with charitable (non-masonic) items as compulsory at each lodge meeting and in summonses in order to retain the "charitable" status of Masonic Temples. One of his rulings prohibited a member of another jurisdiction from affiliation in Florida until he was 21.

All Grand Lodge records and accounting are computerized. This is being expanded and will involve services to lodges (dues cards, address labels, membership print-outs, classifications by age and by professions etc.). The Grand Secretary recommended getting Word Processing equipment. This would, by having "camera ready copy," cut costs of the Annual Proceedings, of printing Grand Lodge Forms, and expedite Grand Lodge business.

The minutes of 28 meetings of the Budget Committee are recorded. These cover financial management of the Home as well as of Grand Lodge including investment portfolios, insurance, bonding, budgets etc. Total revenue available was $2.7 million. The Home averaged 148 residents. "Operating Cost" was $1.56 million. Next year's budget is $1.76 million. Grand Lodge budget is $614,000.

Recognition was withdrawn from Belgium and accorded to the new Regular Grand Lodge of Belgium, to Uruguay and to Honduras. Recognition was withheld from Spain and from Los Andes, Colombia. "Avouchment cards" are issued to Cuban Masons as a prerequisite for affiliation in Florida lodges. There are 40 fraternal reviews printed. Our Grand Lodge is not included.

The Committee on Appendant Orders refused recognition to the "Order of the Sword of Bunker Hill" and to the "Knight Masons". They said enough is enough.

The Penal Affairs Panel Report finalized 16 cases and has 6 pending. One is remarkable in that a brother "convicted of a felony" was found not guilty by his lodge, and this was, apparently, accepted.

Florida is almost unique in recording steady, if slow, annual growth. May this continue.

The Governor of Idaho, Bro. J. V. Evans, was received at the opening of Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master reported with especial pleasure his visit to "Idaho night" at Fiat Lux Lodge No. 1079, New York. The highlight of his travels, was going to Taiwan for the 30th anniversary of the Grand Lodge of China. He had met M.W. Bro. Yen at the Grand Masters' Conference.

"To have experienced the hospitality of our Chinese Brothers is an experience we will never forget. Though their Grand Lodge is relatively young and small in number, the quality of Masonry is unparalleled."

Harrison Lodge No. 35, substantially dormant, was revived with Grand Lodge attention and encouragement. The Grand Master applied his belief that personal contact can never be replaced by the usual printed notice:—

"It is also apparent that we, as Masons, have been pennywise and pound foolish in refusing to face the issues of inflation and acknowledge what it is doing to almost every lodge. Twenty years ago --- there was good attendance, --- there were many social activities which included the ladies --- even the children. Lodges sponsored activities involving our youth groups. But in order to keep dues and fees low, in the fear that they would not get new members, one by one these activities were dropped until we became, in truth, just degree mills. Masonry is alive and strong in Idaho but it must not be restrained within the walls of a Temple."

The Report of the Grand Historian is a special feature of the Idaho Proceedings. This year includes some legends of Indian recognition of Masonry during pioneer days and Chinese Masonry among the Chinese during the frontier expansion and the gold rush. Also detailed are the establishment of lodges in the Territory and the founding of the Grand Lodge in 1867.

Grand Lodge continues in excellent financial shape. Their common stock investments have been most successful.

Grand Lodge was called to refreshment before the open installation of the new officers.

Grand Master M.W. Bro. W. K. Feely presiding Grand Master M.W. Bro. L. R. Turner elected and installed

To your reviewer by far the most vital thing in the Proceedings was the reply of W. Bro. Downs to the reception of the Worshipful Masters (41 from the 84 lodges, - less than half of those who should have been there) at the opening of Grand Lodge. You will find some excerpts at the beginning of these reviews.

Certificates of Proficiency for Masters and for Wardens have been earned by fewer and fewer brethren in recent years. Resolutions were passed making such certificates a condition in the future for election as Master or as Warden.

Grand Lodge finances are, due to wise common stock investments, in excellent shape. By contrast, lodge finances are in trouble. "Some lodges are still trying to meet 1980 expenses with 1950 income." The Grand Treasurer promoted life memberships and endowments. A resolution was approved establishing life membership requirements.

The Grand Orator spoke at length on education, the American tradition of public schools, and the importance of youth to the Craft.

The Grand Historian's report traced the history of each of the lodges in the Moscow area, where the communication of Grand Lodge was held.

As is normal here, the installation of Grand Lodge officers was open.

Twelve "Occasional" Grand Lodge meetings were held, 2 for lodge cornerstones, the rest for lodge dedication ceremonies. There was a net decrease of 10 lodges, with 1 new lodge and 11 consolidations.

Our M.W. Bro. N. R. Richards attended the Annual Communication.

The Grand Master's actions to break the backlog of candidates who had not completed their degrees (the long list of questions requiring memorized answers being a principal cause) by liberalizing the requirements for advancement resulted in 1,111 waivers affecting 5,177 unfinished candidates. "You will be proud you were part of this reclamation program." The Grand Master was enthusiastically optimistic:— "Our membership loss is the lowest it has been in many years. The number of petitions received is the largest --- Freemasonry is on the move." Only the future will verify or refute this. There were 3,599 raisings but 4,700 deaths, 3,005 affiliations but 3,382 demitted.

The Grand Master suspended a brother indefinitely following charges of trafficking and the announced discovery of a major drug cache on his premises. Grand Lodge confirmed the action and amended the code to authorize similar action in the future when charges of felony are before the courts and then, by the Grand Master's order, expulsion if convicted and automatic restoration with no break in membership if acquitted. Obviously, such action would only be taken in cases of serious felony.

Pope John Paul II visited Chicago while Grand Lodge was in session. The Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master were invited to attend the Papal Mass and did so. The Deputy Grand Master reported:—

"This man, certainly a man of God, but I would have to say my impression was that he was also a man of the people. And it just seemed to radiate from him. --- I was just absolutely delighted to be with our Catholic brothers and sisters. I just felt as one of them."

The Committee on Lodges was concerned with poor management and deficits in lodge financing. Grand Lodge General Fund also operated at a substantial deficit for the year.

One amendment to the code would jeopardize any good Masonic library, private or otherwise (your reviewer questions that this was intended ---:)

"--- The possession or use of any unauthorized code, expose, or other work purporting to set forth the esoteric work of Masonry is an offence under this code and shall upon conviction subject the offender to the severest Masonic penalty."

An amendment to limit the required questions in the proficiency examinations to six was rejected. Proposed amendments held over until the next year included reduction of the age of admission to 18, and reduction of residence requirements from 1 year to 6 months.

The position of the Childrens' Home was much improved with 33 boys and girls at the end of the year (up from 10). The newcomers range in age from 4 to 16. Cost was just under $300.000.

The Home Endowment Fund passed a long range objective of $25 million and stands at $26.4 million. $2.6 million came from estates, including $1 million from the Karl Boggess estate. The average population of the Home was 260 and the cost $3.6 million of which $0.9 million was for special improvements. Next year's budget is for $4.6 million of which $1.6 million is for special improvements. The facilities are really being properly modernized and maintained.

The Grand Lodge of Pernambuco, Brazil was recognized. No action was taken on Belgium. Request for recognition from Uruguay was refused.

The installation of the new Grand Master and Grand Lodge officers was public.

IRELAND - 1979

Quarterly Communications in March (Omagh), June (Dublin), September (Lisburn) and December (Dublin)

Grand Master M.W. Bro. Rt. Hon. the Earl of Donoughmore

Your reviewer has only the "Annual Report," with the Grand Master's Address at the St. John's Day meeting and selections by the Grand Secretary from reports of 12 Provincial Grand Masters in Ireland, 8 Provincial Grand Masters overseas and 6 Grand Inspectors overseas.

The Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Dr. M. H. R. O'Connell, died. A Memorial Service of Thanksgiving was held for him in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin. R.W. Bro. Major G. M. Malone was appointed D.G.M.

The finances of the Boys' School deteriorated and, after special reports and consultation with the Provincial Grand Masters is being closed. This has caused heartache and some sense of failure, but no other action was feasible.

Four new warrants were issued, 1 in Ireland, 1 in Ghana and 2 in Transvaal. Two warrants, both in Ireland, were "returned to Grand Lodge."

A "Grand Lodge of Freemasons of Ireland Benevolent Fund" was set up for improved management and control of benevolence.

At a "Grand Lodge of Instruction" a Lodge opening was demonstrated with "many common and easily made errors," and a competition set up to see who could list the most errors.

Here is a sampling of items from the provincial reports:—

Local brethren undertook and carried out major renovations in their premises in lodges in North Connaught, in South Connaught ("transforming a dilapidated small building into a lovely Hall"), and in Munster.

The "Charity giving for the year" in Down was an amazing $\pounds74,000$.

In addition the provinces of Antrim and Down joined in a service in St. Anne's Cathedral, Belfast. "The Cathedral was filled to capacity and the collection amounted to £1,722, which with amounts received from 411 Lodges, 148 Chapters and 63 other Masonic bodies --- (permitted handing) the Dean --- over £7,700 for the Cathedral Building Fund.

Rhodesia reported; "difficulties have not alleviated --- and attendance has continued to suffer, but the numerical strength is not declining."

Ghana was threatened with a bann on Masonic membership of public servants. This was, fortunately, cleared up by representations that the Fraternity was not a "secret society."

Nigeria could not transfer Grand Lodge fees due to currency restrictions.

Grand Master M.W. Bro. R. E. Napier presiding Grand Master M.W. Bro. H. M. Voss, Jr. elected and installed

The incoming Grand Master is the third in succession with an American background (his wife is Japanese). The next three officers "in line" are Japanese. Remarkably, the Grand Master presiding does not speak Japanese! He delegated another officer to represent him at lodges in Hokkaido. Several of his many dispensations were to confer degrees collectively. One, dealing with a restoration, was disallowed by the Jurisprudence Committee as being contrary to the Constitution. The lodge obviously acted in good faith and their action was healed by Grand Lodge.

Suggestions to improve the Japanese text of the ritual were welcomed. M.W. Bro. Nishiyama has completed a translation of "the Lodge System of Masonic Education." This has been extensively reviewed, in ms. form, by other brethren and is being printed. The report of the Charity Committee is the only text translated into Japanese in the Proceedings.

M.W. Bro. Yamada gave a paper on who was the first Japanese Freemason. Until the end of World War II, Japanese were not accepted in lodges in Japan. In the 19th century almost no Japanese were allowed to leave Japan. One such rare exception was Amane Nishi, who became a Mason in Leyden, Holland in 1864 under the name Shusuke Nishi. The story in fascinating:—

"Shusuke was the child name of Mr. Amane Nishi. At the time it was customary to change one's name when they came to a certain age. --- He was born in 1829 and died in 1897. (His father was) a medical doctor. He studied Chinese classics since childhood. In 1853 he was sent to Edo, the former name of Tokyo, to study the Dutch language, by the order of the Lord of his native Province, Tsuwano. The following year he severed his tie with his native province and became a free man in Edo. At that time it was a very bold step to cut the tie of one's own province.

He was appointed to the government of the Shogun as a researcher in the School of Study of Foreign Books. In 1862 he was sent to Holland by the Shogun to study jurisprudence and economics. He came back to Japan in 1865 and was appointed Professor of International Law at Kaiseisho which later became the Department of Jurisprudence of the Tokyo Imperial University. I myself studied at (this) department and majored in International Law.

Mr. Amane Nishi was one of the foremost leaders of the enlightenment movement of Meiji. He was a philosopher too, and coined almost all the words of philosophy in the Japanese language which are used today."

There was an operating deficit in 1978 and the 1979 budget allows for a ¥1.6 million deficit. Corrective action is recommended. The value of Grand Lodge investments is near ¥100 million.

Individual lodges report major charitable efforts. Hokkaido Lodge No. 17 gave a stereo set to a home for the aged and ¥144,000 to a high school scholarship fund. Wakkanai Centennial Lodge No. 21 raised funds for their city's charities.

At the open installation the new Grand Master dealt with the state of the Craft in Japan with frankness and sincerity—

"--- The foundation that we are laying for Masonry here is taking shape, albeit slowly. --- Even though Masonry has been here for over 100 years it has still not taken roots to the degree we would desire. The fact that there is little in the Japanese language to explain our purposes is one reason, and why we must make a greater effort --- (to) translate more documents into their language--- The fact that much misinformation concerning Masonry is printed in the media --- makes progress difficult. Just three weeks ago an article in one of the leading Japanese newspapers branded the Fraternity as corrupt, insidious and desirous of controlling the earth.

How do you break down --- these barriers? --- By deed, and acts, and most of all by education. Your conduct, activities and demeanor must at all times reflect favourably on the Craft. --- Dispel the idea that we are a secret society. Become involved with your community and let them know you are a Mason and are proud of it. --- Actively support our children's festival. It has done wonders.---"

The Grand Master shattered complacency when, during his first week in office, he issued two edicts. By the first he waived time intervals between degrees, waived all proficiency requirements for advance, permitted group conferral of degrees, and, for an additional fee, permitted petitions to be referred to him for approval when "Your lodge is unable to act on that petition because of lack of time or whatever the reason." In the edict these were cushioned by insistence that work be fully carried out "in a very proficient, solemn and impressive manner." The second edict "encouraged" lodges to become involved in community affairs, especially charities, and suggested a $100 donation per lodge per month to some "worthy cause." It also suggested "Pancake suppers, chili suppers, potluck suppers, community dances, and bingo, if you are properly licensed. Be sure to have legal counsel advise the lodge ---."

Of course there was a lot of heavy flack and opposition and these edicts were revoked some 8 months later. M.W. Bro. Artz insisted that he achieved his object of "bringing the Craft into the 20th century."

"I found membership --- at 72,635 down from 101,273 in 1957, a loss of 28,638 in 22 years. --- Of course we need Quality --- but for Quantity we have to go a long way before Quantity will be a problem. --- I felt that Masonry must make changes to adapt itself to the 20th century and still maintain without change Masonic Truth --- I believe the procedure proved very successful in many lodges. --- Our loss in membership this year will be reduced by approx. 700 members. --- It is now up to Grand Lodge to propose and adopt the procedures necessary to adapt to changing times ---"

I find Masonry alive and open for growth if we as Masons will only give Masonry the chance to grow and expand, as it so rightly deserves.---"

The Jurisprudence Committee report was signed by only 3 of 5 members. As this was a "majority," the Grand Master refused to permit a minority report. The report believed several of the directives in the edict were beyond the power of the Grand Master, but gave him an A for effort and sincerity. As the edicts had been revoked no further action was proposed. By inference, the "minority" was much more critical. The Ritualistic Committee recommended a survey to ascertain "the will of the Craft" on group degree conferral, on revision (shortening) of the lectures, and on acceptance of petitions by any other means than the traditional lodge ballot.

There were 8 Special Communications. These included cornerstones of a public library (the Grand Master noted that the cornerstone of the Capitol of the U.S. in Washington and of the Capitol of the State of Kansas had been Masonically laid), and of an administrative building in a military school, dedication of a high school and groundbreaking for a new 120-bed facility at the Kansas Masonic Home. An unusual dedication was of an archive room in the library of Baker University for Masonic memorabilia.

At Grand Lodge, recognition of the Grand Lodge of Belgium was withdrawn. Only local conditions of which your reviewer is unaware could, in his opinion, have justified the Grand Lodge Bylaw amendment approved to limit the Charity Fund to $80,000, "all over that amount shall be transferred to the General Fund." Grand Lodge mileage and per diem for the Annual Communication includes 1 representative from each lodge attending. The total was over $23,000.

Scholarships totalling $4,500 were awarded to 4 boys and 4 girls from an essay contest (164 entries) on "Education—How Much Is Enough." Lodges were asked to hold special programs in celebration of "Heritage—Public Schools Month" proclaimed by the Governor of Kansas.

The Committee on Church-Lodge Relations dealt with the Funeral Service. "Each lodge has their own presentation, adding or deleting words which they prefer rather than those listed in the Monitor." A number of suggestions were listed to effect complete co-ordination with the clergy.

The Grand Master looked to the Masonic Home becoming a "leading Gerontology Centre." He suggested a voluntary $1 per week per member to the Home. There were, on average, 121 guests in the Health Care Centre and 88 in the "residential" centre. Thanks to donations of over $400,000 the accounts for the year were nearly $300,000 in the black. Assets are listed at over $8.6 million ($6.8 in investments). Average cost was $10,000 per guest.

The Correspondence Committee gives pertinent reviews of 63 jurisdictions. The review of "Ontario" makes very favourable mention of our Masonic Foundation campaign, and refers to our new lodges, the high representation of our lodges at Grand Lodge, M.W. Bro. Davies' "homecoming," and our up-coming (now issued) History.

There were 10 Emergent Communications, including placing "plaques" on a municipal building and a school and laying a cornerstone for a school.

A recommendation from the committee of D.D.G.M.s was that "each Lodge hold Open Lodge receptions and honor each newly made Master Mason, where he can invite his coworkers, friends and relatives."

The Grand Master records Masonic engagements on over 300 days of the year. He ruled that "conferral of the Wife and Daughter Degree" was illegal, and that a member of a lodge under the Grand Lodge of Iran (recognized but no communication) could be reobligated as a M.M. and affiliate. He particularly praised the work of "Relief Lodges." There are 5 of these and their work is personal attention oriented.

The Committee on Grievances and Appeals reversed 2 acquittals by lodges and ordered indefinite suspension in cases of wife desertion with false testimony in a divorce attempt and of "driving while intoxicated and negligent homicide." Another case of theft drew indefinite suspension instead of reprimand imposed by the lodge.

The Grand Secretary's comprehensive report includes a section on taxation. Exemption from income tax does not relieve the lodge from liability for Social Security and other "applicable employment taxes." Lodges must also pay local and state sales tax on purchases. Grand Lodge is protesting the assessment of the Masonic Temple.

The "Masonic Youth Foundation" is being revitalized. The "Masonic Home Educational Foundation" gave some $44,000 in awards to 56 post-secondary students. The Masonic Home for children had 37 residents, age 5 - 15. It is operating at a deficit and a resolution was approved increasing the contribution from each member from $1 to $3, effective 1980. Its work was praised as much superior to foster homes etc.

Grand Lodge records and accounts are computerized and data in the Proceedings almost tell you more than you want to know. In addition there is a 374 page appendix in the Proceedings comprising a full "masonic directory."

Immediately after opening, Grand Lodge was called to refreshment and ladies and guests were present for the reception of dignitaries, necrology and presentation of awards.

The Grand Master withdrew recognition from the Grand Lodge of Belgium. He instructed a D.D.G.M. to have the charter and furniture of a chapter of the Eastern Star removed from a lodge, because internal dissention in the Star had caused "conflicts" in the lodge. A thorough examination of the accounts of a lodge cleared the secretary of charges laid by a brother and established that finances were fully in order. The brother laying the charges had been asked not to attend lodge while the investigation (by the Grand Secretary's office) was underway. He was apparently a trouble maker and was a member of 10 different lodges! The Grand Master recommended that the matter be closed and the return of (the brother) left to the discretion of the Master.

The Grand Master commented on D.D.G.M.s:-

"--- I cannot say that our selection of District Deputies by the "rotation system" produces the best results. I would suggest that the District Lodges make their recommendations to the Grand Master, based on a brother's past services, his ability, the amount of time he has to devote to the office, and his love of the Craft."

Among the resolutions approved (unanimously this time) was support for an issue of George Washington stamps for the 250th anniversary of his birthday in 1982:

"--- humanizing him in his various stations in life including Surveyor, Husband, Family man, Landowner, Soldier, President, Churchman, and Freemason. ---

--- suggested subjects of the proposed Churchman and Freemason themes are the two elaborate, full color, 18 by 46 murals enshrined in the George Washington Masonic National Memorial."---

The issue of commemorative stamps may be taken as certain. It will be interesting to see what form these take.

Grand Lodge has been running deficits for over 2 years. The per capita was increased from $3.50 to $5.50. Mileage and per diem at Grand Lodge were also increased (8¢ to 16¢ each way, $25 to $35).

Your reviewer found some disciplinary actions somewhat inconsistent; one brother was expelled for embezzlement of church funds; another, guilty of manslaughter, was indefinitely suspended; and a third convicted and sentenced for misapplication of funds of his company acquitted, 182 to 28, by his lodge! Grand Lodge changed the latter to indefinite suspension.

There were only 38 children in the home (63 in 1970).

Over 230 awards for "honesty and integrity" in High Schools were made by 90 lodges.

Your reviewer cannot resist reproducing the following acceptance speech verbatim from the Proceedings:—

Our M.W. Bro. Robert Davies attended the Annual Communication.

The Grand Master noted the importance of lodge secretaries, praising the good ones but noting problems when the secretary was inefficient. He suggested that 50-year awards go through the D.D.G.M. rather than through the lodge secretary because of some foul-ups or inaction on a secretary's part. He asked for attention to the exterior of Masonic buildings as sound public relations.

Four trips overseas had been Masonically organized during the Grand Master's 2 years in office. They were very successful but increasing costs will limit future trips, and a profit "will price them out of the market."

A ruling that a lodge may stay closed for any 3 consecutive months once during a fiscal year has led to winter closing and summer operation in some cases with substantial fuel savings.

A decision by the Grand Master permitting "joint trestleboards" with appendant orders was rejected by the Jurisprudence Committee. Grand Lodge turned down state-wide concurrent jurisdiction. Also rejected was permission for alcoholic beverages on Masonic premises for private parties.

The Charity Fund has $1.35 million invested and draws revenue from a dozen special funds as well. Details of benevolence are not given.

Our M.W. Bro. Richards attended the Annual Communication.

The Board of General Purposes met 5 times during the year with an average attendance of 48. Their minutes indicate monthly meetings of the Finance Committee. A request of a lodge for an open installation was refused, "Standard" by-laws were approved and printed. Benevolent donations approved included $2000 to a leukemia victim and $1500 towards a van for transporting hospital patients, a project of the Scottish Rite.

The Grand Master reported on presentation of 5 70-year jewels. The brethren included 2 now living in British Columbia and

I in Ontario (presented by our M.W. Bro. Davies). The in-Manitoba presentations were in a nursing home and a hospital. There were 23 60-year medals. The Grand Master's address included a plea for recognition of the universality of Freemasonry:—

"I ask you brethren to search your own heart to see whether you can honestly state that you view all races, creeds and colours to be suitable even desirable members of our universal brotherhood of Masons, or whether you still harbour reservations. This matter of our relationship with all humanity is of such deep-rooted importance that it is a worthy project for generations to come. --- Its roots are found in the founding documents of Masonry and can be classed among the changeless landmarks of our Order."

Financial statements show a modest surplus on the year's operations. Assets are $355,000, but $280,000 of this is a mortgage on the Masonic Memorial Temple and there is no indication of any repayment. The Benevolent Fund has assets of $222,000, but this would be reduced by $58,000 on a present value basis.

The Committee on Tax Relief proposed a scheme to the Manitoba Assessment Committee recommending assessment of all property at actual market value with percentage exemption ratings depending on the property use, e.g. churches would have maximum exemption percentage and other non-profit organizations their own percentage. Your reviewer wishes them luck --- they will need it.

Two lodges surrendered their charters. There has been a decrease in membership each year since 1960.

The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Rankin, retired after 5 years in office. The new Grand Secretary is the I.P.G.M., M.W. Bro. Reesor Bingeman.

Three of the Special Communications were in the Canal Zone: to visit a joint meeting of the lodges, to install District Grand Lodge officers, and to visit the Grand Lodge of Panama then in session. M.W. Bro. Moises S. Abadi, Grand Master of Masons in Panama, was a guest at the first two and received M.W. Bro. Melanson and officers at the third when he was presented with the Henry Price Medal.

Three others were for a 50th, a 100th and a 200th Lodge Anniversary. The Lodge Historian of Essex Lodge (precedence 1779) had prepared a 262-page history "replete with pictures," "beautifully prepared."

The Canal Zone in Panama ceased to exist on September 30, 1979. In spite of the cordiality during the Grand Master's previous visit, a concordat defining the territory and availability of candidates to Massachusetts lodges is still under negotiation with the Grand Lodge of Panama, with Panamanian terms "unacceptable." Meanwhile the Massachusetts lodges assume open co-jurisdiction.

Throughout his term M.W. Bro. Melanson has consistently advocated "positive procurement." He has also emphasized the importance of DeMolay. The Stated communication was attended by our R.W. Bro. Howard Polk and the speaker at the banquet was W. Bro. C. C. Faulkner, Grand Master of the International Supreme Council of the Order of DeMolay:—

"--- And wherein lies the future? Only in the younger generation of today ---

We cannot preserve our traditions and great heritage by looking to generations older than ours, nor entirely to our own generation. We must look to the future. And the future is around us in our every day life in the form of youth.

They are a 'tell-it-like-it-is' generation. And I like that. ---

--- The purpose of the Order of DeMolay is, like the purpose of Freemasonry, to teach! Freemasonry has only one mission, and that is to teach, and we must teach and continue to teach or die!

We must teach young men to behave as they have not behaved. We must teach them to be better as Freemasonry teaches you and me to be better. Not better than anyone else, remember that, but better today than we were yesterday and better each tomorrow than we were the day before.

"Who touches a boy with the Master's plan, shapes the course of the future of man."

A Masonic street advertising sign (entrance of town or city) was approved, but "no number of street signs will help if there is no indication on the building that it is a Masonic Temple."

"Grand Master's Day" was held at the Masonic Home in Charlton. Nearly 3,000 Masons and families attended. The "Grand Master's Appeal" raised some $130,000. An edict established compliance with The Civil Rights Act (no discrimination by reason of race, color or national origin in employment, admission to the Home, or membership in the Craft). The Home averaged 79 residents and Juniper Hall 61. Total cost was $1.6 million. Per capita cost is given as $9,900 in the Home and $13,450 in Juniper Hall (nursing care). Next year's budget for the Home is $2 million. Total endowments in Grand Lodge, including for the Homes, is $24 million.

At the stated communication, M.W. Bro. Melanson was installed for another term with all the traditional Massachusetts formalities.

An event of unusual significance was the re-laying of the cornerstone of the State Capitol building on October 2, 1979. This cornerstone had been Masonically laid in 1879, and Masonically opened in 1978. The relaying corresponded to the 100th Anniversary of the Capitol. The ceremony is recorded in full in the proceedings. The wife of the Grand Master and "the Ladies of Grand Lodge" were in charge of a coffee hour following. The original box and capsule had deteriorated. The new box and capsule were made air-tight and, with an inert atmosphere, should preserve documents, pictures and coins dating from the 1879 proceedings to the present.

At the Annual Communication, our M.W. Bro. Richards was individually received, accorded "private Grand Honours," the Canadian Flag was presented and "O Canada" was sung.

The memorial service involved lighting 7 candles as part of the Grand Chaplain's address. These were:—

"to our God from whom all light must come --to that hope and wish for eternal life by which each of us must live --to charity --to brotherly love --in tribute to all - who have placed their trust in God --- to the greatest truth of all --- that in God is eternal glory --in our belief in the resurrection and the life eternal ---"

The Grand Master reported 10 consolidations of lodges.

The Grande Loge Reguliere of Belgium and the Grand Lodge of Uruguay were recognized. No action was taken on Brazilian Grand Lodges or on Ecuador.

Amendments to the constitution approved included exempting all lodge secretaries from paying lodge dues. Past Grand Masters' jewels were declared to remain the property of Grand Lodge. Amendments defeated included an attempt to increase the per capita dues from $4 to $5.50; to reduce the age of admission to 18 (another amendment to allow DeMolay members of 2 years standing to join the Craft at age 18 was ruled out-of-order as being discriminatory); to legalize Bingo in Temples subject to conformity with legal regulations; and to permit alcoholic beverages in Temples under stated conditions.

One amendment ruled out-of-order was "to provide additional powers to the Grand Master," but, in fact, instructed him to investigate the membership loss in detail and submit his report and recommendations to Grand Lodge.

The Historiology Committee report was on "The Masonic Apron."

A single resolution advanced the D.G.M., the S.G.W., the J.G.W., the S.G.D., the J.G.D. and the Grand Marshal to the next higher office in the Grand Lodge "line." Ballots were taken for the Grand Secretary (who was re-elected by approx. 5:1) and for the Grand Marshal where 2 ballots were required to get a majority vote.

The Investment Committee, dealing with funds over $28.3 million, employs an investment counsel. The annual income from all funds was $2 million, an all-time high.

The Masonic Home had 293 residents and there is a waiting list. There were over 6,000 visitors to the Home. Average cost per day for "Home Care" is given as $18.83 and for "Nursing Care" as $33.65. Next year's budget for the Home is $4 million, including $2.4 million salaries.

One of two "occasional communications" was open and was held to dedicate plaques with members' names of St. John's Lodge No. 1.

The Grand East of Manitoba always attends the Annual Communication of Minnesota in force. This time 13 brethren, headed by the Grand Master and with 10 P.G.M.s, were present. M.W. Bro. Bingeman gave the "tribute" to the Canadian flag.

Resolutions approved restricted the no-liquor regulations for lodge functions to Masonic buildings, permitted non-Masonic charitable activities by individual lodges and cancelled Grand Lodge per capita for "indigent members" of over 20-years' standing whose lodge dues had been remitted. A detailed proposal

The Grand Master withdrew recognition from the Grand Lodge of Belgium by edict. Grand Lodge recognized Uruguay, refused recognition to Spain, and took no action on the "Regular" Grand Lodge of Belgium or on a new provincial Grand Lodge in Ecuador.

An architect asked assistance in compiling a detailed study of Masonic symbolism in buildings in Minnesota, including, but not limited to, Masonic Temples and buildings formerly used for Masonic meetings. He wanted historic and current pictures, both exterior and interior, "to explore a long-overlooked and taken-forgranted bit of history."

The Grand Master had the joy of raising his son to the M.M. degree. He promoted youth groups, welcomed better public relations including a photo-gallery walk-through of famous Masons at the State Fair, and supported the considerable Hospital and Home activities. A Long Range Planning Committee has been reactivated.

The Scholarship Committee awarded 18 scholarships (424 applications) and the Masonic Foundation added 2 special awards.

Grand Lodge maintains a permanent representative at the Rochester clinic. He reports over 3000 hospital calls and many other activities. The Masonic Memorial Hospital Fund pays for a professorship on Oncology and substantial other support in research in this field in the Masonic Memorial Hospital. The appropriation for the coming year was $185,000. It is proposed to rename the facility "The Masonic Cancer Center." Since the fund was founded in 1955 over $3.1 million has been disbursed. Assets are $2.45 million.

The Masonic Home is exceptionally well staffed both for residents in the main lodge (155) and in the Care Centre (140) and the annual cost of $15,786 per resident is evidence of a high quality institution. The Home is "capable of admitting and caring for (those) suffering from terminal cancer, Parkinson's Disease, epilepsy, emphysema, heart ailments, strokes ---". Members of the Board serve without any compensation.

The Grand Orator's speech on "Let's Hear It for the Losers" was unusual. At a time when "the theme of countless commencement speakers will be 'success' and the importance of 'winning' --- I believe there's much to be said on behalf of failure and its about time we said it, loud and clear." He pointed to the failures of Lincoln, of Einstein, of Churchill, that Babe Ruth has the record for strike outs as well as home runs. "What is important is not that we are imperfect and fail, but that we possess the intellect and capacity that is given us to pass from error to truth."

The Grand Master emphasized morals and decency as essential to the survival of Masonry. Among letters to him there had been reference to open adultery and of complete neglect of a seriously ill now-deceased brother. "To such letters I had no joy in replying." He also referred to a television debate in which a well known lady atheist claimed support from "The Masons."

The Grand Master ruled that mailing lists of Masonic membership could be available only for Masonic purposes and, to assure this, any general mailing to Masons had to be through the Grand Secretary's office. This was approved by Grand Lodge. In addition to over 50 dispensations, the Grand Master issued 33 "Consents and Permissions." Of these, 4 permitted receiving petitions for initiation and 8 for affiliation from non-residents of Missouri. 2 others permitted Missouri residents to apply for initiation in Kansas.

Grand Lodge increased the per diem and mileage allowances ($15 to $25 and 10c to 12c each way) for attending Grand Lodge. One representative of each lodge is included in the eligible list.

The Grand Lodge of Turkey was recognized. The Grand Orient of Brazil was refused recognition.

Three items on the agenda were, after debate, subject to written ballot by order of the Grand Master. The previous complete restriction from any association with the liquor business for applicants was changed to exclude only "illegal" association.

The vote was 510 to 453. Constitutional change to allow dual membership was considered. A vote, 455 to 437, instructed the Jurisprudence Committee to prepare appropriate amendments to the constitution for consideration in 1979. A vote to table a proposal to make the Grand Lecturer subject to annual election passed 576 to 332. The new Grand Master and the line officers want the Grand Lecturer and the Grand Secretary appointed by the Grand Master for an "indefinite term." A resolution to effect this will be introduced in 1979.

The Jurisprudence Committee recommended that Grand Lodge not officially sponsor tours, either to foreign countries or within the U.S., because of potential liability. This was approved.

The Masonic Home had 297 guests, of whom 199 were hospitalized. Expenditures of $2.9 million (just under $10,000 per guest) necessitated transfer of $200,000 from accumulated reserves to balance the books for the year. The cost per resident has doubled in the past 8 years. The Home has good hospital affiliations as well as its own hospital facilities. Construction of a second Home in western Missouri was delayed by zoning problems in Kansas City.

M.W. Bro. Bruce Hunt's Masonic Review is, again, an outstanding summary of Masonry-as-it-is, classified under some 100 topical headings. Hunt quotes in full (over 7 printed pages) the report of the Jurisprudence Committee of Wisconsin on "Coextensive Territorial Jurisdiction," --- this with reference to considering recognition or non-recognition of Prince Hall Lodges. The carefully considered and documented conclusions are:—

"The sovereign nature of our Grand Lodge as the supreme Masonic authority in Wisconsin, permits, but does not preclude, recognition of another Grand Lodge in our State.

No provisions of Masonic law prohibit recognition of the Grand Lodge of Prince Hall Masons of Wisconsin Inc."

Your reviewer must emphasize that these conclusions were not recommendations by the committee to its Grand Lodge, and, still less, a formal decision by Grand Lodge. They were answers to specific questions referred to the committee by Grand Lodge, nothing less and nothing more.

Here are a few other items culled from M.W. Bro. Hunt's review which your reviewer had not picked up in his previous reviews:— use of amplification systems during lodge work was barred in Indiana and in Nebraska; there are clandestine lodges operating in Florida; Independence Rock in Wyoming has a Masonic as well as State history; there is an "Invisible Lodge" composed of Master Masons who are magicians (or is there?); the offices of Secretary and of Treasurer of a lodge may be combined in Wisconsin.

Alvin T. Westdal Lodge of Research and Education U.D. was constituted at a Special Communication.

After a civic welcome, the DeMolay Legion of Honor was conferred on 7 brethren prior to the formal opening of Grand Lodge.

During his year, the Grand Master made J. K. Ralston a Mason at sight. The Proceedings refer to Bro. Ralston as "of Ashlar No. 29" so his lodge membership must have been either pre-determined or dealt with by the Lodge immediately. A most unusual action (your reviewer has never heard of it before) by the Grand Master made L. M. Roberts, "an Entered apprentice of Dillon No. 16," a Master Mason on sight. (Note "on sight," not "at sight.") Both actions were approved by the Jurisprudence Committee and there are neither details nor reasons nor comments given about either of these actions.

Resolutions approved removed the requirement for uniform dues among lodges with concurrent jurisdiction, giving the Grand Master authority to set dues in case of dispute, and broadened the base for Masonic assistance. A resolution to lower per capita for the 2nd lodge of dual membership was defeated. A "Widows Pin" was approved.

The Masonic Foundation is growing slowly. A "Century Club" ($100 donation) has been operating as a promotion scheme.

For a time, $6.75 of the $100 reverted to a credit for the donor's lodge at Grand Lodge. This has been discontinued and a resolution to revive it was defeated. The fund now stands at $360,000. The object of $2 million seems a long way off. The Foundation awarded 13 scholarships (230 applications).

The Grand Historian reported on progress in restoring the old Masonic Temple in Bannack. There was some vandalism by souvenir hunters, but nothing serious and this is now controlled.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium.

The historic gold signet ring was passed on to the new Grand Master by the I.P.G.M. This has been worn by every Grand Master since it was hand-made by M.W. Bro. Samuel Word, Grand Master in 1887. As is established custom, the names of all Grand Masters who had worn it were read as part of the presentation.

As part of the opening ceremonies, all Worshipful Masters present were asked to introduce themselves and were greeted by the Grand Master.

The Grand Master laid 4 cornerstones (1 non-masonic). He ruled in each of 3 cases that decision as to initiation of a handicapped person was a lodge decision, not the Grand Master's.

A bequest to Grand Lodge had been challenged in the courts by other heirs, and later appealed when confirmed by the lower court. An out-of-court settlement is being sought.

The membership situation is not good. Deaths were double the number of raisings and 126 lodges (16.6%), had no raisings during the year.

Resolutions brought forward from the previous year were all defeated. One of these would have made all annual dues payable by January 1, and provided automatic suspension if not paid by September 1 of the same year!

The Committee on Masonic Education reported problems in getting its projects implemented at the lodge level.

Only brief summaries of financial statements are printed, along with an appropriations budget. The balance is in the black.

The President of the Home reported 62 residents (non-paying) in the Home plus 7 who paid. It cost $9,900 per resident. No financial data are given. The report on the Masonic-Eastern Star Home for children is in enthusiastic general terms. Apparently Grand Lodge provided $15,000 towards an operating budget of $220,000. Your reviewer could not find the number of children in the Home, except that it was rather small. The Masonic Service Association has an active hospital visitation program.

Strong support of Youth organizations was advocated. There is a Committee on Public Relations concerned with publicity and press releases.

Two lodges celebrated their centenary.

An inheritance was bequeathed to Grand Lodge "for the benefit of crippled children." This was contested by the Shriners' Hospital Association. Grand Lodge offered a 50-50 split, but withdrew this when the Hospital Association took court action, demanding 100% and offering to take 90% as a "compromise." Several hearings in District Court resulted in 100% to Grand Lodge. The legal costs of such an action necessarily diminished funds intended for a great charitable purpose. Your reviewer holds that this kind of thing has no place in Freemasonry. Surely, a decision by the M.W. the Grand Master, acting for the good of the Craft and as the ranking Masonic Officer in the Jurisdiction, should have settled the issue promptly and firmly.

A lodge requested a dispensation to receive a petition for affilation "from a suspended member of a constituent Lodge of the Grand Lodge of Belgium." The Grand Master ruled that, as the Grand Lodge of Belgium was now "clandestine," only a petition for initiation "as a profane," accompanied by a written disavowal of all membership, loyalty and interest in and to "such body," could be received by the lodge and, when received, another request for dispensation would be advisable.

The Grand Master made many recommendations, including permitting "Lewis" status for sons of Masons; proficiency examinations before 3 Master Masons as an option rather than in open lodge; permitting charitable donations by lodges beyond formal "Masonic charities" if approved by a ½ vote; and reduction of residence requirements to 6 months. These were all rejected by the Jurisprudence Committee who did, however, approve permission to lay cornerstones on Sunday, allow multiple (instead of dual) membership, and the issue of a 60-year badge.

The report of the Grand Trustees began:-

"This is somewhat of an embarrassing report --- because I am working without figures. We have become automated and computerized but it seems unless we have communication time is lost. I have not received the audit.---"

Financial reports are also "missing" for the Home which is struggling with inflation. The report on the Childrens' Home is enthusiastic.

Installation of Grand Lodge officers was open.

(Your reviewer is indebted to V.W. Bro. Maarten van Wamelen for preparing this review. V.W. Bro. van Wamelen's fluency in his native tongue and his association with the Grand Lodge of the Netherlands makes his assistance particularly appreciated.)

The previous Grand Master, Ir. G. Van Wezel, had been unable to continue in office due to illness and Dr. Boesman, then

D.G.M., had assumed the duties pro tem in 1978/79 and had been installed as G.M. in June 1979.

The business part of the Proceedings is reported essentially verbatim. No less than 17 delegates from lodges took the floor and, in several instances, challenged the proposed action. Here is true democracy at work.

The Grand Master, in opening his address, referred to the coming 225th anniversary of Grand Lodge in 1981. A special fund has been established for this.

In his remarks on "Charity," Dr. Boesman again emphasized that the Order as a whole was primarily responsible for the welfare of its members and of their nearest relatives which, recently, due to inflation and job insecurity, is becoming a great need. He mentioned that, particularly among the younger brethren, there is a tendency to extend charity beyond the Order, to which there is no objection (in 1979 Fl.25,000 (Can. $12,000) was given by Grand Lodge to the Red Cross for needy children in Cambodia), but the Grand Master questioned if such proposals were always altruistic or if they might be motivated to aspire for some prominence in the Order or in society. Such a tendency is, in this reviewer's (M.A.vW.) observation, not restricted to the Netherlands.

Great emphasis was focussed on assisting children of members in post-graduate studies and on providing aid to elderly Masons. A Youth Conference (the 23rd) was held in April. The deep interest of Grand Lodge in this was noted.

There was much discussion of the proposed break with the Grand Lodge of Belgium due to irregularities there. The brethren were greatly concerned with the affairs in their neighbouring Grand Jurisdiction.

Five new lodges were formed and instituted during the year. One of these was in the Dutch part of St. Maarten (the other part is French). This Caribbean island is familiar to this reviewer (M.A.vW.) from his war service in the Royal Dutch Navy during the 2nd World War.

In the Annual Communication the business proceedings and the ceremonial work are completely separated. The Grand Master closed the business meeting in usual parliamentary form, after which the brethren retired to the Lodge Room where Grand Lodge was called on for the installation and investiture of officers, which was carried out in due and ancient form. After the close of Grand Lodge the brethren assembled in the Banquet Hall for the usual festivities.

The Grand Lodge of the Netherlands parallels the Grand Lodge of England in having Provincial Grand Lodges (in Netherlands Antilles, in Suriname and in Zimbabwe) as well as individual lodges in Johannesburg. These are in amity with lodges under other jurisdictions in these areas. Fraternal relations are maintained with 116 other Grand Lodges throughout the world.

The list of Special Communications is a unique record of public relations including dedications of the Elko City / County Civic Auditorium and Convention Centre and of the Requa Old Depot Senior Citizen's Centre in Ely; as well as cornerstones for the Charleston Heights Library and Cultural Centre in Las Vegas; the Washoe County Finance Centre in Reno; the Molly Flagg Knudtsen Renewable Resources Centre at the University of Nevada, Reno; a memorial cornerstone on the 100th year of the old Eureka County Courthouse, Eureka; and the relaying of the Capitol Building cornerstone during the rehabilitation of the State Capitol Building. On most of these occasions there was "an oration" often by a non-Mason. At the State Capitol the address was, of course, by the Governor of the State. Two cornerstones were involved, the old dated June 9, 1870 (see last year's review for details) and the new dated October 31, 1979. Among the many items in the new stone was a list of all cornerstones laid by Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Nevada from July 5, 1886 to date. The old stone again received a "Canadian pence coin 1859" and a "Nova Scotia coin 1864."

Other Special Communications constituted Nevada Lodge of Research No. 2, instituted Guardian Lodge U.D., and conducted a funeral service for the late M.W. Bro. R. H. Parker, P.G.M.

At the opening of Grand Lodge a tribute was paid to the Canadian flag. Your reviewer is deeply appreciative of the thinking which is a part of such courtesy but regrets and condemns the absurdity of such fantasies as "the two red parallel bars are symbolic of two great nations, Canada and the United States, ---"

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium by order of the Grand Master. The Deputy Grand Master reported enthusiastically on the International Masonic Festival in Sydney, Australia.

The Grand Historian supported ongoing histories of individual lodges.

Regulations re plural membership were clarified to forbid being an elected officer in more than one lodge.

Installation of officers at the end of Grand Lodge was open, complete with family introductions.

At an Especial Communication held September 29, 1979, the per capita assessment of Grand Lodge was increased from $2 to $5 per member. The vote in favor was 131 to 19.

At the Annual Communication M.W. Bro. Robert Davies represented our Grand Lodge. The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Carter, is our representative in New Brunswick.

The Grand Master visited every lodge during the year. Mamanook Lodge No. 38 at Grand Manan has met irregularly and has had no candidates for some time. It may survive as a result of Grand Lodge attention.

With the increase in per capita dues Grand Lodge finances are in satisfactory shape. Its investment portfolio has, like so many other Grand Lodges, far too much invested in low interest bonds.

Permission for semi-public installations of lodge officers was extended for another year. The Grand Master, or a P.G.M., has to be present.

The Grand Master was re-elected for his 2nd term.

Cornerstones were laid for a Methodist Church and for a Public School Administration Building, both in Carlsbad.

The Grand Master was host at a "gala evening" on the Sunday before the Annual Communication. Visiting dignitaries and heads of ladies' and youth organizations were received. Grand Lodge has a standing committee on DeMolay whose report reaffirmed "its full support of the Order of DeMolay --- in building and strengthening this organization.---

This is the future of Freemasonry ---"

The age of admission will remain at 21. A canvass by the committee on age limit study showed 70% against, 30% for lowering the required age to 18. The Public Schools Committee reports:—

"We applaud the efforts of those teachers who are teaching children not only rudiments of democracy and moral values, but also instructing them to read and write and to be able to do the necessary mathematics that will enable them to function as contributing members of the society in which they live."

How could any public school teacher worthy of the name not cover the second priority as listed?

The Committee on Life Membership Endowment concluded that a prepaid plan was "desirable and feasible." Their comprehensive report proposed an actuarial plan based on 5 age groupings requiring 19, 18, 17, 16 and 15 times annual dues for life membership purchase, and provided changes in the code and in lodge By-laws to implement this. The report goes to all lodges for action at the next Annual Communication.

Copies of the ritual are issued to lodges and controlled by receipts for the numbered copies through the Grand Lecturer. "The Ritual is never to be used for the instruction of Entered Apprentices or Fellowcrafts." A revised monitor is being published. It will include "the Paul Revere Charges which were omitted in the 1972 edition" and "an explanation of the method of closing without form at public installations."

The Masonic Charities of New Mexico Inc. assisted an interim housing program with the Cancer Research and Treatment Centre and with St. Joseph's Hospital.

A public installation of the new Grand Master included family introductions.

The business of Grand Lodge was conducted considering, in order, clauses of the report of the Board of General Purposes and its committees. Clause 4 dealt with finances. The yield on investments was 12.41% !!! This remarkable result flowed from having got rid of long term bonds and the like in 1977, taking a moderate loss and reinvesting, the largest holdings being now in mortgages and in "Perpetual Trustees Estate & Agency Co. Ltd." The yield in 1974 had been 6.98%. Such financial management must receive the highest compliments. It has not been even approached by any Canadian Grand Lodge. For that matter your reviewer has, during the time he has been responsible for these reviews, encountered at most 2 other Grand Lodges with comparable financial foresight. The year's accounts were in the black.

Benevolent capital is at NZ$2.5 million. Interest free loans (largely to Masonic villages and homes) are NZ$375,000. Annuities (90 recipients), bursaries (22 for secondary education and 12 for university or professional study) and special grants totalled NZ$100,000. NZ$150,000 was set aside to start the Grand Lodge Centennial Charitable Project Fund (Centenary is 10 years away). Administrative costs of benevolent capital and several other special funds (total over NZ$3 million) was less than 2%.

There were only 9 girls in Kirkpatrick House (cost NZ$34,000). The Governors "hope that more applications will be forthcoming."

There is serious concern over the continuing loss of membership. Two lodges consolidated and two became dormant. A pilot survey is being set up to gather information and opinions for statistical analysis of possible means to arrest the loss. A central Publicity Committee of the Board has been established with sub-committees dealing with the public image of the Craft and with maintenance of interest and enthusiasm among the brethren.

The rules for "allocation of offices" were clarified. In particular nominations for the office of Grand Master will come up through successive screening procedures to the Board of General Purposes who will make a single recommendation to Grand Lodge. If this should be rejected in Grand Lodge the incumbent Grand Master remains in office until another single recommendation proves acceptable.

A notice of motion to permit selected solicitation and another to provide that "dark suit, dark tie, black shoes and white gloves" were proper "dress for all Masonic occasion," were both withdrawn. Another to permit use of Lodge rooms by Ladies' organizations was defeated. A special committee of the Board is preparing regulations for trial commissions to deal with all charges U.M.C.

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Ashby was reelected and installed for his second term. It was pleasant to see his picture in front of the Proceedings and also, in the group picture of Provincial Grand Masters, several brethren whom your reviewer had met when in New Zealand in early 1980.

There were 5 Emergent Communications, — all for Masonic cornerstones or dedications, Clemmons Lodge U.D. was constituted as No. 755, and Clifford Duell Lodge U.D. instituted. Issue of its charter was approved at Grand Lodge.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium by the Grand Master's edict.

Grand Lodge had a small dollar surplus, but the Masonic and Eastern Star Home operated with a substantial deficit. Costs were $1.15 million ($7,250 per resident). Revenue came 39% from residents, 31% from Grand Lodge, 22% from the Eastern Star. There is a small waiting list for the Home.

The Oxford Orphanage has about half of its available capacity occupied. Individual lodges are asked to sponsor orphans. Only 5% are "Masonic children." Cost was $1.65 million ($6,200 per child). It appears to be very well run. The Grand Lodge Proceedings are printed at the Orphanage School of Printing.

A Masonic Memorial Service was drafted. A new printing includes this and other ceremonies including "instructions pertaining to open installation of lodge officers."

A meeting of the Masonic Secretaries' Association preceded Grand Lodge.

St. John's Lodge No. 2 celebrated its 200th birthday. Virgin Lodge No. 3, also of Halifax, will be 200 years old in 1982. Bicentennial jewels and special provisions for regalia were authorized by Grand Lodge. The report of the Grand Historian was concerned with the history of these and other early lodges.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium and given to the Grand Lodge Reguliere de Belgique.

The Grand Lecturer reported on District Meetings and on Workshops. The idea of D.D.G.M.s holding Schools of Instruction for Masters and Wardens was "very strongly advised."

The Board of Ritual was exceptionally active. They ruled that only "the Ruling Master" or Past Master could preside during the conferring of a degree, could give the obligation, "the Charge," present the apron or the Working Tools. Appendices to their report (printed in the Proceedings) give texts for the presentation of the M.M. apron, and for a short form of closing in the M.M. degree, as well as a memorial service in Lodge. Detailed instructions are also given for the reception of distinguished visitors and senior Grand Lodge officers, and for the entrance and retirement of "official visitors."

Numerous notices of motion for revision of the constitution were given, including one to reduce the age of admission to 19.

The Grand Master granted some 85 Dispensations of a more or less routine nature and refused dispensations requested to shorten the time between degrees and to permit a Shrine Degree team to wear their Fezzes in the Lodge during the meeting.

The financial statements indicate a nominal surplus for the year in general funds and a nominal loss in the Foundation whose donations to charitable organizations and for relief slightly exceeded revenue.

The expenses of the Masonic Home were $375,000 equivalent to $12,150 for each of the 11 residents of the infirmary and $4,725 for each of the 51 residents of the Home. One gallant old lady withdrew from the home. At age 88 she moved "to an apartment (in) Halifax. She preferred a much more active life among younger people."

There were 9 Special Communications including laying cornerstones of a Health Centre, two public schools and a hospital.

An address of welcome to Grand Lodge included this quotation:—

"We are all blind unless we see That in the human plan. Nothing is worth the making If it does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious If man unbuilded grows? In vain we build the world Unless the builder also grows."

The Grand Master's address (over 50 printed pages) is not merely comprehensive but deals ably and sincerely with the problems of this jurisdiction. Coming to office "a year early" because of the death of the previous D.G.M., he assigned a Grand Lodge officer to one of each of six regions and held periodic meetings with them on the face to face reality of the individual lodges and the true condition of the Craft.

"The state of the Craft and Lodges is not disturbing. IT IS FRIGHTENING. The deterioration is increasing rapidly each year. In 1957 our membership was 87,060 (It is now only 73% of this). Masonry, its teachings and philosophy have not changed; there is nothing wrong with Masonry, but we who proclaim to be Masons. --- Some lodges cannot open or close or confer degrees properly. --- There are men desirous of petitioning Masonry but the Lodge (of Jurisdiction) is not able to OFFICIALLY meet to accept the petition. --- A team is more or less formed and moves from lodge to lodge --- this increases (the problems) and only puts off the inevitable. --- There is a great lack of leadership everywhere. --- Very few lodges have any type of program to establish them in their community. --- There is urgent need for each lodge to honestly review its financial position. ---

There are some lodges who can be pointed to as good examples. --- Hopefully these lodges will be able to inspire others. ---

There can be only one recommendation, a complete and total rededication by every member of the Craft to make the personal sacrifices, whatever they may be, to correct our past errors, and re-establish Masonry in the hearts of men as it was originally intended to be. ---"

As positive action the Grand Master continued to work through his "district contacts," appointed 6 additional Grand Lecturers, allowed concurrent jurisdiction in certain areas, and recommended action re finances.

Grand Lodge finances were examined in depth. Next year's budget shows a deficit of over $100,000. The old per capita of $3 is grossly inadequate. Citing inflation (proceedings cost $2.80 in 1976, $7.91 in 1979) and other realities (major repairs and renovation are needed at the main Temple), a resolution to double the per capita to $6 was introduced but failed to get the required 3/3 rds majority. An emergency special assessment of $1.75 was approved for 1 year. After advice from Internal Revenue, charitable activities of Grand Lodge were transferred to the Masonic Charity Foundation, with separate offices in the Masonic Home. The Grand Master personally supervised the often complicated transactions. Arrangements were, obviously, expertly and properly effected. Grand Lodge is fortunate to have had such an able and dedicated man at the helm.

The Charitable Foundation has assets of $13.3 million, including $10.2 million investments of which 5% are in corporate stocks. The cost per resident (110) in the Home was $9,000 (173% of the 1975 cost). Thanks to donations there was a $100,000 surplus for the year. "We are desperately trying to reduce our expenditures." The children's portion of the Home is now substantially phased out. The Home receives no per capita support from Grand Lodge. All donations are voluntary.

Recognition of the Grand Lodge of Belgium was withdrawn by order of the Grand Master immediately on receipt of information of permitted atheism. This was confirmed by Grand Lodge. Recognition was refused Spain and Uruguay.

Resolutions approved at Grand Lodge included concurrent lodge jurisdiction within districts but a rejected candidate could only apply again to the same lodge. Grand Representatives will now be appointed for renewable 5-year terms and subject to replacement following 3 consecutive absences from Grand Lodge.

The incoming Grand Master was only initiated in 1971. He was W.M. two years later and immediately after D.D.G.M. He has been very active in Masonic instruction and in all the appendant orders.

After 18 years of consecutive losses, membership is 15% below the peak of 1960. But a new lodge was constituted (the first in several years) with 120 Warrant Members, and had 31 initiations.

Our M.W. Bro. Robert Davies attended the December Quarterly.

The Grand Master visited Sweden during the summer and received two special Masonic medals of Gustaf V and Gustaf VI, each "King of Sweden, Most Wise Grand Master of the IX. Province of Freemasonry."

The Grand Master's dispensations included 2 which "healed the rejection" of a candidate and permitted application to another lodge and 14 others allowed a lodge to receive "a first petition --- without making enquiry of any lodge" from candidates who had been previously rejected.

The Grand Lodge of Espirito Santo, Brazil, was recognized. Recognition of the Grand Orient of Brazil was refused.

Management of the Temple must have been excellent. Expenses of $412,000 were $101,000 under budget! "This surplus is the result of very closely controlled program of expenditures, competitive bidding on supplies and projects and good operating practices." Apparently it can be done!

Operation of the Thomas Patton Institution for Boys was discontinued. The extensive property was sold to Grand Lodge for the independently appraised value of $315,000, and this set up as the Patton Trust, a separate perpetual charitable trust with income used "for the maintenance, care, education and supervision, without regard to race, color or creed, and with preference being given to male orphan children of Master Masons ---". The library was given to the children's section of the Masonic Homes.

The Masonic Homes are a tremendous undertaking. There were an average of 616 guests. The cost of $8.6 million is close to $14,000 per guest. Assets of the Homes are $31 million "general" plus $35 million "restricted." The statistics in the report include:—1.23 million lb. laundry; 808,000 meals; 902 perms and 7.555 sets for the ladies and 2,358 haircuts for the men; processing in the abattoir of 87,000 lb. cattle, 48,000 lb. hogs, 53,000 lb. chicken; greenhouse production of over 11,000 plants, 700 corsages, 670 houtonnieres

The Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. Parker, became ill and the Grand Master appointed M.W. Bro. Carmichael as acting Grand Secretary. It is hoped that R.W. Bro. Parker will be able to resume his duties later.

The Grand Master ruled that a candidate cannot be initiated at the same meeting his application is balloted on. He reminded lodges that the proficiency tests must be given in open lodge, not before a board of P.M.s, or a committee appointed by the W.M.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium and accorded to the new Grande Loge Reguliere de Belgique.

As to the state of the Craft, first the good news:-

There were 4 more initiations than the previous year and the number of degrees conferred increased from 643 to 674. A new lodge was set up U.D., designed to provide a Masonic Home for brethren from the Philippines. It is named Phil-Can Lodge. Also reported is "an increased incidence of brethren of French persuasion" entering the fraternity.

The 5th Ecumenical Divine Service substantially filled St. James United Church in Montreal. Major Fraser of the Salvation Army gave the address. The "Ancient York Rite Degree Team" visited England, accompanied by 2 Past Grand Masters, and exemplified their work in the Lodge of Installed Masters No. 8220 E.C.

One of the charitable grants was a loan of $5,000 towards the cost of an open-heart operation on a brother's son. Then it was found that, with equally competent surgery, the operation could be done at a net cost difference of over $5,000 in Montreal rather than in Rochester, Minn. The loan was returned at once.

Second, regrettably, the bad news:-

The financial status of the Memorial Temple remains unimproved and unsolved. The property is still "for sale" but without real prospects. Rents have been increased by 15% and Grand Lodge per capita raised to $8.50 to cover costs. Further increases are certain. The text of documents in the continuing appeal against the massive taxes had to be redrafted in the French text, as the previous French apparently left much to be desired. The legal wheels turn slowly without any firm prospect of success.

The membership continues its decline. Older members, almost entirely English-speaking, are leaving the province, one important reason being that Quebec is the only province in Canada which imposes death duties and these come under Quebec civil law. In Quebec City, it is likely that the 4 lodges will consolidate into a single lodge or, at most, 2 lodges. Both the Grand Master's Lodge, Tuscan No. 28, and the Lodge, St. Andrew's No. 6, with which your reviewer affiliated and served as a junior officer during his Quebec City days (1930-1935) will disappear. Lodge consolidations will happen in any areas where there is no viable English-speaking base.

On July 12, 1978, M.W. Bro. Nicholson was proclaimed in the East, West, and South, for his second term as Grand Master, each proclamation being followed by Grand Honours and an anthem by the Masonic Choir. Following this, the G.M. appointed the Deputy Grand Master (proclaimed after investiture in the North and South) and the Assistant Grand Master (similarly proclaimed in the South). Investiture of elected Grand Lodge officers followed, the Grand Wardens being proclaimed in the North, and the others, as a group, in the North-East. It is noted that the list of Grand Lodge officers includes "the President of the Board of Benevolence," as well as a "Grand Architect" and a "Deputy Grand Architect." The Boards meet at least monthly and actively manage their appropriate affairs. The 2 Grand Chaplains are not, apparently, Past Masters as they are merely listed as "Bro."

Financial statements were submitted at the September Quarterly. All accounts are well in the black. Assets in General Fund are A$1.8 million, of which A$1.1 million are fixed. Three benevolent funds have combined assets of A$7.3 million (up A$0.6 million) of which A$5.7 million are fixed. There were an average of 455 in the Homes and some 50 others were recipients of relief. Queensland has a very elaborate system of jewels and decorations, both to individuals and to lodges, to recognize donations, as well as "foundation stones" for bequests to the homes.

Raffles were discussed at some length in the March Quarterly. These are permissible if strictly under the terms of the "Minor Art Unions Act," but "Lodges who do not comply with the law may be dealt with by the civil authorities and this would be considered a serious Masonic Irregularity." The inference is that the regulations are strict and that this authorization is preferable to clandestine raffles which would be conducted whether Grand Lodge liked it or not

The proceedings contain the usual (for Australia) long list of "conferred" Past Grand Lodge rank.

The Grand Master attended meetings of concordant orders and was "most impressed" with DeMolay. He enjoyed debutante balls, and refers to several "Grand Installations" as well as giving an extensive and very favourable report on the eight-day celebration of the opening of the great Masonic Centre in Sydney.

Some A$300,000 will be needed to restore the Memorial Temple, Brisbane, and the Board is considering means for raising this. A Variety Concert helps defray expenses of the Grand Installation. In July M.W. Bro. Nicholson will begin his third term as Grand Master.

Occasional Grand Lodges were held in each of the 7 Masonic districts, a procedure designed to bring Grand Lodge to the brethren at large.

At the Semi-Annual Communication, it was announced that 24 students had received scholarships for a total of $9,500. Resolutions were passed confirming an increase in the per capita to $5 (necessary because of membership loss) and authorizing expenditure to reprint the Constitution. A resolution to require 6 months between the M.M. degree and application for a coordinate body was defeated. Amendments to the Constitution governing consolidation of lodges were presented and will be voted on at the next Semi-annual Communiction. The "Rhode Island Freemason" continues to be supported by voluntary $2 annual donations (36% of the membership comply).

At the Annual Communication, the Grand Master was particularly pleased with progress of the Grand Lodge—Scottish Rite Museum. The old Freemasons' Hall is, 3 years after its sale, being converted to an office building. Its corner stone was opened and the capsule, presumably dating from 1882, removed and returned to Grand Lodge. Unfortunately, it had been cracked, possibly in a fire in 1896. Everything inside was "a soggy mess." Attempts are being made to restore at least some of the items. These will go to the museum.

The Grand Master concluded his address with "an old masonic toast":-

To him that all things understood

To him that found the stone and wood To him that hapless lost his blood

In doing of his duty

To that blest age, and that blest morn

Wherein those three great men were born

Our noble science to adorn

With wisdom, strength and beauty.

The Grand Master is our representative near his Grand Lodge.

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium.

The Committee on the Status of the Craft could only be concerned with the continuing membership loss and admit that the question is becoming one of survival. They ask for input and concensus on regulations for use of alcohol.

The "Masonic Home Fund" is used for benevolent grants ($78,000).

The Youth Fund is growing, but not enough to satisfy the Grand Master who wants to double the present near $50,000 reserves to over $100,000 and provide enough capital for desired scholarships, camp expenses etc. from income. The current revenue permitted 2 scholarships and camp support.

The Committee on the Condition of Masonry rates future prospects as excellent for 26 lodges, good for 81, fair for 44 and poor for 18. Average attendance for all lodges was 13.6 and 64 lodges averaged 10 or less! The report is critical of Masonic Education and of officer training at the lodge level but is satisfied with social activities. "Functions that involve the family are very important." Many lodges have financial problems.

The Grand Master's Committee on the Study of Life Memberships presented recommendations. Apparently, no official action was taken. The report is printed "by instruction of the Grand Master"

M.W. Bro. Hansen was the speaker at the banquet. The year was the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Province of Saskatchewan and the speaker paid tribute to the pioneers. Your reviewer's father was such a pioneer in Manitoba near the Saskatchewan southeast border, and M.W. Bro. Hansen's words had, therefore, a personal relevance:—

"--- It is essential and good that --- tonight we commemorate not only the founders of our province, but also commemorate that spirit which down through years of toil and hardship, years of loneliness and sacrifice, persevered. ---

WHO were these people? They were ALL who preceded us in erecting this province . . . no matter what language they spoke, no matter what religion they preferred, no matter what the colour of their skin . . . ALL were our forebears. They were the folk who paid the price for what we are. We who have reached a future that (they) could scarcely imagine possible, must give credit to pioneers of the oxen, horse and buggy days, the days of the coal-oil lamp and tufted furniture ---

Let us therefore bear in mind that he who looks with pride upon the history which his fathers have written by their heroic deeds, who accepts with gratitude the inheritance they have bequeathed to him, and who highly resolves to preserve this inheritance unimpaired and pass it on to his descendants enlarged and enriched is, in effect, a true man and a citizen, a practising Freemason, be his birthplace or parentage what it may.

No man, no Mason, is really dead unless during his life span --- he chose to break his faith with the future.

- --- no man, no Mason, is really alive unless he keeps his responsibility to that future.
- --- there is no greater usefulness for any one of us here --- than to spend our life on something that will far outlast it!
- --- Whatsoever thy hands find to do, do it with all thy might!"

Your reviewer was particularly pleased to see, on first opening the Proceedings, a picture of M.W. Bro. Campbell in his Grand Master's regalia. M.W. Bro. Campbell has been a friend, colleague and brother in the work of Supreme Council, Scottish Rite. The Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan is in good hands.

Half-Yearly Communication — October 17, 1979 96th Annual Communication — April 16

Grand Master M.W. Bro. Hon. Mr. Justice Jacobs presiding

Lodges 213 Membership 18,406 Loss 555 incl. 1 Research Lodge

At the Half-Yearly Communication, the Grand Master reported on his visit to the Northern Territory, including installations at 8 of the 9 lodges.

"Lodge Mica No. 221 at Tennant Creek, which has since its consecration been nurtured by some of the brethren from Alice Springs lodges some 300 miles away, was able, for the first time, to fill all its offices with brethren from Tennant Creek."

He spoke at length, primarily to Masters, Past Master and Wardens, on revitalization of the Craft:—

"There can be no doubt that in the eyes of the younger generation, even the younger generation of Freemasons, the structure of the Craft is seen to be hierarchical and authoritarian, almost feudal in its loyalties, and far removed from the democratic involvement which they have been educated to expect in their activities. --- Any institution in which there is a significant element of discrimination based on sex is suspect --- no matter that we justify it on historical as well as ritualistic grounds. Again, in many places, pomp and ceremony have had to yield to a growing informality, courtesy and good manners which are among the qualities which the Craft ought to foster are less accounted as manly attributes, privacy of association is at risk. ---

--- We cannot alone change the pattern of the times. How then are we to guard the cargo as we travel this road? --- If we are to deliver the goods, we must look carefully to the packaging, to the vehicle, and to ourselves as the drivers, - in short we must look to the quality of Freemasonry in our Lodges and in our own lives.

I do not underestimate the importance of social clubs within the lodges, or involvement in a community or charitable project, but I am certain that the lodge room itself is the base from which Freemasonry must advance. --- Gaining new members is a futile exercise if we do not --- enable them to develop a commitment, a love for the Craft --- There can be no doubt that the best advertisement for the Craft is the brother, particularly the new brother, whose search for knowledge and involvement is rewarded.

We need to avoid a self-made obstruction on the road ahead. --- How much time can you devote to your lodge if (as Master) you are visiting 3, 4, or even 5 nights a week? --- It is important to strike a proper balance. --- To steer your own lodge requires a great deal of time and thought. We must not be afraid to plan, to experiment. No doubt we shall err, for we are human. --- We must check our bearings as we go, --- Our primary task is to assist, encourage, educate and inspire each brother, be he young or old."

At the Annual Communication a reorganization of the Board of General Purposes was approved. It will consist of 28 members of whom 9 will be elected and 3 appointed for staggered 3-year terms, the remainder Senior Grand Lodge Officers and personnel. Brethren over 70 cannot be elected or appointed.

The Grand Master reported that a correspondence course was being developed to embrace the origins and history of Freemasonry, its philosophy, symbolism, jurisprudence, which will be graded at elementary, intermediate and advanced levels. The format for planning for the up-coming centennial is under study. Daylight lodges are being considered.

As is usual in Australia, principal charities are "Masonic villages" etc. operating as independent entities. There were also significant donations to the Kampuchean Relief Appeal and to the Lord Mayors Bush Fire Appeal.

Gain 487

A gain in membership is a rare event, and, in the order in which these reviews were prepared, South Carolina was the first jurisdiction to show an increase. Your reviewer notes that there is nothing sensational, no gimmicks, in the story reported in the Proceedings.

There were 12 Special Communications, 3 of these were in 1 day for laying cornerstones at 2 schools and consecrating a lodge in the evening. Several cornerstones were laid for Masonic buildings, including one in Charleston to be occupied by 11 Craft Lodges and the York Rite. The "Lafayette Trowel" was always used.

The Grand Master wrote a personal letter to each new Master Mason. There are good workshops for W.M.s and for Secretaries. Outdoor and early morning meetings are increasing in popularity. "The Travelling Bible" completed its journey to each lodge in the State in successive numerical order when it reached the new Seaside Lodge No. 419. It had been presented to Solomon's Lodge No. 1 on October 6, 1969 by M.W. Bro. Grimball who also, happily, attended Seaside Lodge to end its cycle.

The Grand Master welcomed the Royal Order of Scotland who held the first meeting of its 100th year in the United States at Charleston. He spoke of plans to restore Shepheards Tavern, "the birthplace of the Scottish Rite."

Internal problems in 2 lodges required Grand Lodge action. One, starting from comments after a Rainbow Girls' social function, was amicably settled; the other involving a schism among members is more serious.

The Committee on Fraternal Relations made no recommendations for change. They reproduced the report of the Commission on Information for Recognition to the Conference of Grand Masters in North America which deals in depth with Brazil, with Cuba and several other "problem" areas.

Grand Lodge investments are divided among 11 funds. The year's operations were in the black. $140,000 was spent on relief. A reserve is being started for the 250th Communication in 1987. An increase from $1.50 to $2.50 in per capita dues will be voted on next year.

The formal incorporation of individual lodges must have merit in South Carolina. The cornerstone of the Lodge Hall of Belvedere Lodge No. 388 contained a "Certificate of Incorporation by the Secretary of State to establish, conduct and maintain a Masonic Lodge under the authority of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free Masons of S.C."

An open religious service was held before the opening of Grand Lodge. The sermon included:—

"--- Our real concern tends to be our peer-group --- The question that haunts us at every turn is: 'What will 'they' say? How can I earn their approval and avoid their condemnation?'

(It was) observed with great wisdom that the concepts of success and failure with ones peers have taken the place in our day that the realities of salvation and damnation held in the middle ages. ---

(God) loves our uniqueness, it is His creation. He is not interested in some kind of blind conformity. --- We should always be proud of our Order and praise God for its uniqueness."

A "Lafayette gavel" made from cedar wood of a tree planted by Lafayette, was presented to Grand Lodge to join the "Lafayette trowel."

As a result of numerous trials, there were 13 expulsions (all for felonies). There had been 14 similar expulsions the previous year. Your reviewer cannot refrain from commenting that a stricter guarding of the portals might have had merit.

A resolution to give Past Masters a vote in Grand Lodge was "not adopted." The proceedings include the argument of a P.G.M. against the resolution, "printed at the request of the Grand Master for the record and for future reference." It details the abuses by Past Masters of Charleston ("City Lodges") of proxies for "Country Lodges" during stagecoach days. "There are occasions recorded when Grand Lodge would be called from labor to refreshment for a few minutes until the City Lodges could round up enough Past Masters to defeat a motion they opposed." It took several years of manoeuvring to get a Communication away from Charleston and to abolish quarterly communications and so to get a new constitution which did not allow Past Masters a vote.

A Memorial Service was approved. The full text is printed.

The Grand Lodge of the Andes (Colombia) and the Grand Lodge of Honduras were recognized. Recognition of Belgium was withdrawn.

Per capita dues were increased from $1.50 to $2.50. There is a resolution for a further increase to $3.50 for consideration next year.

The state of the Craft in this jurisdiction is not good. Membership is at its lowest level in over 60 years, 1 lodge surrendered its charter and 2 others disappeared by consolidations. The Grand Master worked hard, using the theme "now it is time to resume our labors." He believed that some of the things being done are bearing fruit. Only the future will tell.

Per capita dues were increased from $4 to $5. Concurrent jurisdiction was set up for the entire State and resident requirements for petition reduced from 1 year to 6 months. Lowering the admission age to 18 was rejected. The Grand Master was given discretionary power to waive physical requirements (previously this was specifically denied by the constitution).

The increase in per capita will help the budget which was $10,000 in the red and projected $20,000 in the red next year.

A brother suffering from a disease involving progressive mental difficulties found it difficult to learn the proficiency tests. The Grand Master ruled that "if the Master and Wardens assured themselves that the Brother knew the essence of the Master Mason degree they could declare the brother proficient."

A Shrine Temple with "a substantial interest in a Masonic Temple" wished to remodel part of the ground floor into a lounge. The Grand Master ruled that alcoholic beverages could not be served in the building.

Occasional Grand Lodges were the occasions for laying cornerstones of a City Hall, of a Shrine Club and of a Girls' Club. One new Masonic Temple was dedicated.

The Grand Orator made a sincere plea for lodge activity:—

"--- There is absolutely no reason for ever conducting a Lodge that consists of opening, minutes and then closing. ---

--- speeches on modern subjects --- the effect of television on our children, is marijuana really dangerous, what are the conditions of your local schools, how do your taxes compare --- round table discussions, --- debates --- Would you be afraid to invite your wives? I don't mean to a dance or dinner. I mean to a lodge where we can take a recess while we have our program.---

It will require more than a talk. It will mean taking part. It will require thinking and it will require action. Lets say the Blue Lodge is the Foundation of Masonry and really mean it --- The time is now ---"

Grand Lodge includes Provincial Grand Lodges "in Southern Africa" and "in Transvaal." About 30% of the lodges work in Afrikaans, the remainder in English. The Year Book is printed bilingually. The senior lodge, De Goede Hoop No. 1, was established May 2nd, 1772, by V.W. Bro. Abraham van der Weyde, 2nd Deputy Grand Master of the Netherlands. The number of "subscribing members" listed under individual lodge data range from 80 to 9. 49 lodges report membership in the 30s, and 11 have less than 20 members. Some of the Grand Lodge officers have titles unusual to us:—1st and 2nd Grand Preparator, Grand Almoner, Grand Ambassador, Grand Inspector.

The Grand Master, in his address, emphasized the value of international recognition. He was hopeful that the Grand Lodge of Finland would be the first Scandinavian Grand Lodge to exchange representatives, joining 86 other Grand Lodges with which Southern Africa is in amity. Grand Lodge takes especial care to assure that it is strictly non-political. M.W. Bro. Gasson headed a Masonic pilgrimage to Israel which was well worth while.

The Year Book contains full reports of the Supreme Grand Chapter of the Holy Royal Arch of South Africa.

Statements indicate the Grand Lodge is in very sound financial shape.

The Year Book includes articles of historical interest. There is a reproduction of the program of laying the Foundation Stone of the Houses of Parliament on the Cape of Good Hope on May 12, 1875 by His Excellency Governor Sir Henry Barkly with full Masonic ceremony; Sir Thomas Maclear, D.D.G.M. for England, carrying the trowel and gavel; J. H. Hofmeyr, D.G.M. National for Holland, carrying the square; Masters carrying corn, wine and oil; and "a Craftsman will carry the Hod of Fine Mortar to be used by His Excellency." The list of dignitaries attending is impressive.

Another article gives an account, with pictures, of the entry of British Forces under Lord Roberts into Johannesburg on May 31, 1900. Roberts was accompanied by the senior Boer Magistrate, Dr. F. E. T. Krause, who had negotiated the arrangements. Lord Kitchener was also present. There was no destruction of property, no disorderly conduct. Field Marshal Lord Roberts' letter to Krause is reproduced:— "--- I recognize that you have had difficulties of no ordinary nature to contend with. --- Thanks to your energy and vigilance order and tranquility have been preserved. --- my personal thanks for the great courtesy you have shown me ---." Both Roberts and Krause were Masons, but there is no indication that that was mutually known at the time.

There is a year missing from the "Handbook" reviewed here and that of the previous review. Two additional Provincial Grand Lodges appear, "in the Central Division" and "in Natal."

The Grand Master had visited the U.S. for the Virginia bicentenary, also attending other Grand Lodges and continuing to Brazil. He brought back a lot of ideas with him. One result is that a Flag Ceremony has "become a permanent feature of our ceremonies."

The Grand Master's report includes a major development:—

"The consecrations of Lodges Perseverance and Phoenix in Cape Town on the 19th November 1977, marked an historic occasion in the annals of the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. The members of these Lodges are of the Coloured Community, capable and all dedicated Freemasons. The satisfactory conclusion of negotiations, in which I must pay tribute to the Government Authorities for their ready cooperation and goodwill, clinched the formation of these Lodges, and heralded a new era in the history of Freemasonry in South Africa. I am proud that the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa has taken this first major step forward in better human relations in this our beloved country."

The above speaks for itself both as progress and on the racial environment in South Africa.

During his trip the Grand Master found "a total lack of knowledge" of his Grand Lodge and of South Africa. He will have a bi-monthly News Letter issued to be circulated to other Grand Lodges. He comments on the high standard of the Yearbook (your reviewer concurs) which contains many interesting quotations and articles. Some of the titles:— "Women and Freemasonry" (from the "regular initiation" of Miss Elizabeth Saint Leger, who became "Presiding Master of the Lodge," through French and German orders, to the Eastern Star, to Co-Masonry); "Masonic Discourtesies" (slovenly degree conferral "which can white-ant our Order," excesses at refreshment etc.); "Freemasonry and Evolution" (Freemasonry evolves); "The Physical-Spiritual Conflict in Man" ("Do you believe that a part of you is spiritual and eternal? Do our mortal minds and body --- influence the effectiveness of our spirituality? Can we use our spirituality --- to achieve a more satisfactory life and greater peace of mind?")

As usual the Yearbook contains the reports of the Supreme Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch.

In his last address as Grand Master, after 3 years in office, M.W. Bro. Harnett referred to his speaking at non-Masonic functions on the origin, teachings and symbolism of the Craft, to the Masonic Debutante Ball making A$5,000 for the Masonic Homes and to "a moving experience" when he had installed as W.M. for the last month of the Masonic year, a brother who had been stricken and confined to a wheel chair previous to his intended installation 11 months before. The W.M. who had replaced him had resigned so that this could be effected. "I am sure that you will all appreciate the truly Masonic thought and attitude that prompted this."

Your reviewer assumes that the Grand Master was referring to the penalties when he said:—

"Candidates are taught to recognize the sanctity of our Temples but may find this incompatible with certain brief aspects of our ritual. I strongly emphasize the necessity of explaining to the newly initiated member the ancient origin of the phrases to which I refer and which, to my thinking, ought to be amended. The anomaly should be explained immediately the ceremony concludes."

He concluded his address with this poem:-

"I do not wish you joy without a sorrow Nor endless days without the healing dark, Nor brilliant sun without the restful shadow, Nor tides that never turn against your barque.

I wish you strength and love and faith and wisdom, And goods and gold enough to help some needy one. I wish you songs, but also blessed silence And God's sweet peace when every day is done.

An addition to the Constitution set out detailed procedure for amalgamation of lodges. This must be anticipated.

The Masonic Homes are separate legal entities. Grand Lodge support comes by transferring "surplus" funds from the benevolent account.

Delegations (total 71 brethren) came from the 5 other Australian Grand Lodges for the installation of the new Grand Master, each delegation headed by its Grand Master. There were all the fanfares, proclamations and anthems (5 this time) associated with the ceremonies. The new Deputy Grand Master appointed is R.W. Bro. Archdeacon M. R. Stanton.

The Grand Master had taken as his theme for the year "Masonry by Example" and "I would like to think that there has been created in someone a desire to become a Mason by the example we have set before them." In his address he commented favourably on a rewriting of the Masonic Funeral Service, on a number of lodges starting a monthly paper for their own members, and on the success of open installations. He recommended a change in the Code to prohibit use of alcoholic beverages "in connection with any Masonic gathering or in a building controlled by a Lodge." This was adopted.

Two other changes in the Code respectively instructed the Master on the solemnity of Masonic Ceremony especially in the second section of the 3rd Degree (this to meet the occasional but perennial problem) and provided for automatic suspension pending Masonic trial of any brother convicted of a felony.

The Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home of Tennessee Fund (assets $2.8 million) (there is no home) distributed $118,000 in assistance to 216 individuals, paid $21,000 salaries and $9.000 other expenses.

Grand Lodge was requested to lay the cornerstone of the Community Memorial Chapel on Capitol Hill, Salt Lake City on October 5, 1979. This was the first cornerstone to be laid by Grand Lodge in a public building in almost ten years.

During his visits the Grand Master emphasized attendance, membership, finances and youth. A comedy of errors started when a brother passed a board of trial and visited a lodge for 2 years before it surfaced that his Grand Lodge was not recognized by the Grand Lodge of Utah. He subsequently applied for initiation and after receiving his E.A. degree it was found that his petition was not in proper form! The Grand Master "healed" his E.A. degree and allowed his F.C. and M.M. degrees to proceed.

The Grand Orator's address, on "Your Influence on Masonry," was pertinent:—

"--- You must remember that we influence people not only by our works and actions, but also by what we don't say and what we do not do. --- I don't believe a practising Mason can have a neutral influence on Masonry. ---

Too many men accept the privileges of Masonry, but not the responsibilities which are individual and personal. They cannot be delegated, or avoided, or ignored. Freemasonry has never had a single person authorized to speak for the entire Fraternity, yet the voice of Freemasonry continually speaks through the words and actions of its members."

Grand Lodge operated with a deficit and the per capita was increased from $3.75 to $5.75. The small membership dictated the size of the increase.

Over 40% of the Proceedings detail a complete roster of officers and members of constituent lodges.

Our M.W. Bro. Robert Davies attended the Annual Communication.

The Grand Master tried to start a Masonic newspaper. It "did not get off the ground" but plans remain active. Table Lodges were strongly recommended with the Grand Master attending several. He was present when M.W. Bro. Carmichael, G.M. Quebec. was received at a Vermont Lodge. He was critical of committee interference.

"--- All too often I have found that when I wanted you Brothers to decide something, before I could get it to you for a yes or no or a wait or a maybe, I had to get it through a committee. It was like trying to get it through a sieve. You see, my Brothers, there is really no point in your coming down here if you are not going to be allowed to decide questions.--"

The Special Committee on Ritual and Monitor recommended and Grand Lodge approved:—

"--- that the following explanation of the Ancient Penalties be given each candidate for the several degrees:

'My Brother, Freemasonry's use of the imprecations in all its Ancient Obligations is wholly symbolic. The only penalties which Freemasonry imposes are Reprimand, Suspension and Expulsion.'

This explanation (is to) be given to each candidate at the completion of the first section of the E.A. and F.C. degrees and to be included in the final instructions to the newly raised M.M."

Recognition was withdrawn from the Grand Lodge of Belgium and refused the Grand Orient of Brazil.

Grand Lodge changed its accountant. The audit was not completed at the time Grand Lodge met.

The Grand Lodge newspaper, the "Green Mountain Mason" was established with 3 issues. Its cost is added to the per capita fee which becomes $5.60 ($4.95 general, 25¢ DeMolay, 30¢ Green Mountain Mason, 10¢ 1994 Bicentennial).

The Grand Secretary asked for constitutional changes to provide strict deadlines for lodge returns with financial penalties for neglect. The Jurisprudence Committee detailed changes in several sections which would be required. Decision was laid over until next year.

Both the Grand Master and the Grand Lecturer gave strong support for Temple Lodges. One such occasion involved the Grand Master of New Hampshire as well as the Grand Master of Vermont. The "Grand Lodge Regular" of Belgium was recognized.

Grand Lodge is still having accounting problems. All cash balances had been verified by the auditor, but the full auditor's report was not complete.

This Grand Lodge has a very serious membership problem. Membership loss was the largest in any year to date, and is now down 37,378 from the peak of 117,909 in 1961. There are 17 fewer lodges than at the peak in 1974. The proceedings report 5 lodges "have found it necessary to terminate proceedings and return their respective Charters or Warrants of Constitution." A casual look at the proceedings shows little to indicate that everything is not normal, happy and reasonable. Some interesting positive action is, however, being taken. The Grand Master reported in September:—

"One of the success stories --- has been the Grand Masters' Committee of Enquiry. The purpose of the Committee is to assist persons desirous of joining Freemasonry who are not in a position to have the required proposer and seconder to complete their application form. --- (Their) 2nd report --- covering 2 years --- shows 174 (applications) to date. Of these the committee recommended that 116 be granted a dispensation and all of these people have been or are in the process of joining a suitable Lodge. Of the remainder 29 are still being processed, 24 withdrawn --- and 5 not recommended. Of the applications --- 48 (came) through the Grand Secretary's office, and 2 from talks and talk-backs on radio and television.

The Committee mentions the high quality of the applicants and I can personally confirm this with respect of the two who have joined my own Lodge. --- The Committee have endeavoured to introduce these applicants to Lodges where they will fit in.---

Regardless of membership, there is nothing wrong with benevolence. Benevolent grants were over A$74,000 (example "to assist in settling a mortgage loan and for the maintenance, education and support of the student children of a widow $2,000) plus A$11,500 as benevolent loans (example, Lodge Minerva No. 820, interest free loan to assist in settling the outstanding debts of a member A$3,000). (Your reviewer assumes that the lodge accepts responsibility for the loan). There were also loans to lodges of some A$20,000. 36 scholarships were awarded, some tenable for 4 years. The Royal Freemasons' Homes had, in June, 164 elderly people in independent units in 5 locations, 278 in hostel and 200 in nursing home. Re the Freemason's Hospital:—

"The hospital has been very busy, and we are delighted at the increasing number of younger surgeons and physicians who are using the hospital."

Patients average about 116 with over 1,500 admissions per quarter and some 1,250 operations per quarter. The appeal for A$500,000 for an addition was exceeded! The "Masonic occupancy" (15% discount on accounts) runs between 15% and 20%

Constitution changes included making all dimensions of regalia metric (We will have to come to this some day).

Patents of Office as Grand Representatives of other Grand Lodges were presented formally at a Grand Lodge Communication with remarks about the Grand Lodge of assignment including something of its background and membership.

Grand Lodge has a panel of over 90 speakers. "Lecturettes' are available for Masonic Education in lodges ("over 60 - for presentation by their brethren"):—

"If it falls to our lot to plant an ear of corn, or assist in its cultivation, is it not equally our task to provide the fall of water that will cause it to flourish and bring forth fruit in plenty."

In this jurisdiction "exclusion" in Grand Chapter or in the Mark Masters (separate bodies) means "exclusion" in Grand Lodge as well. Eighteen fraternal reviews are given ("the proceedings of 18 Grand Lodges have been received"). Canada 1979 receives generous treatment.

There were 11 Special Communications. Cornerstones were laid for a City Hall, a library, a memorial home, a YMCA, 3 elementary schools and 4 high schools. A new lodge, Adak No. 309, was constituted in Adak, Alaska. As there was 1 consolidation, the number of lodges remained the same.

The Grand Master spent 2 weeks in Alaska and visited all 19 lodges there. He went with his wife (party of 53 Masons and their wives) to Sydney, Australia, for the "International Masonic Festival" and the opening of the Masonic Centre. A highlight of his year was a sentimental journey to Horace A. Irvin Lodge No. 647, Dayton, Ohio. The day after his initiation in June 1948 he had "had to fly a B-29 to Wright-Patterson Air Base for some modification." That evening he had gone to the Masonic Temple and, without proper credentials, had been admitted and seen a 1st degree, the then W.M. saying that if a young man would travel over 1500 mile in less than 24 hours and wanted to visit the lodge, he would let him. This visit in 1979, he had proper credentials and was received by the G.M. of Ohio, and saw a 1st degree!

The Grand Master healed several offenses by lodges for too rapid action on petitions. The Jurisprudence Committee was very critical of the lodges and suggested that the Grand Master had exceeded his authority in some instances. They recommended, however, that Grand Lodge show "the same sympathy, compassion and understanding shown by our Grand Master" and approve his actions. A Senior Warden was removed from office because he was W.M. of another lodge. A lodge was refused permission to sponsor, directly or indirectly, a Casino Night.

Grand Lodge approved a life membership scheme (minimum fee $200-$450 depending on age, all monies to Grand Lodge Fund, annual earnings 1% to Grand Lodge, 99% back to the lodges pro rata). Blanket insurance for lodges and Temples is being investigated by the Grand Secretary who reports favourable prospects.

A Table Ceremony was approved. The full text (14 pages) is given in the Proceedings. An optional funeral service, also printed, was rejected.

Fraternal relations were withdrawn from Belgium, refused to Uruguay and granted to Pernambuco, Brazil.

Financially, Grand Lodge funds had a surplus for the year of $18,000 but next year's budget is up $39,000, of which $12,000 is for higher Grand Lodge salaries.

The Masonic Home averaged 150 residents. With expenses of $1.24 million, this works out at $8,270 per resident. Next year's budget is $100,000 higher. Residents assign all assets to the Home on entry. Only 75¢ per member comes directly from Grand Lodge and 25¢ per member from the Eastern Star.

The Grand Lecturer made a strong plea for attention to and real communication with candidates:—

"We must make him a Mason who can be counted onnot counted in. --- Are we operating a degree mill trying to put more men into Masonry (rather) than putting more Masonry into men? We should strive to make our initiates committed individuals who will be committed to the ideals of Brotherhood. --- The essential thing is good material on which to work, and to do our work well. ---"

The Grand Orator had a pertinent title for his address:— "Someone is watching me, am I a Master Mason."

The Fraternal Correspondent, M.W. Bro. J. W. J. Stedman (who is 88 years young) continues to use extensive quotations in his reviews of some 43 jurisdictions (101 pages), preferring, and with obvious merit, to reflect the state of the craft, by in depth reporting rather than abstracting from a larger number of proceedings. His separate "report" considers "unfinished candidates" and also the resurrection of German Freemasonry after the war. Our jurisdiction is 1 of 4 in Canada to receive generous coverage.

WYOMING -1980

106th Annual Communication — August 11, 12 Grand Master M.W. Bro. H. L. Mai presiding Grand Master M.W. Bro. E. L. Burgon elected and installed A special Masonic Commemorative Communication was held at Independence Rock on July 4th, attended by over 600 people including 234 Master Masons. The first Masonic gathering in the then territory of Wyoming had been held at this site in 1862. The speaker, Governor Herschler, reviewed the contributions of Freemasons during the pioneer days, and continued contrasting the dedication in action of the American Independence events with the "little enthusiasm" of today, concluding:—

"These alone - duty, truth, justice and mercy, words which every Mason knows by heart - can guide us through the complexities of our days. 'The straight and righteous path is the shortest and surest'.

That is the only path, the only way of greatness again for our country."

The Grand Master commented on membership, indicating 177 E.A.s and 50 F.C.s "left on the books," i.e. more than twice the number of brethren in the "net loss." He asked each lodge to develop a charitable activity. He ordered an initiation fee returned to a candidate who, after acceptance but before initiation, advised that committee that he could not, in conscience, take any oath including such a phrase as "so help me God." The report of the investigating committee was ordered to be destroyed, following a vote in the lodge permitting withdrawal of the petition. He approved a booth displaying Masonic information at a county fair, and a Masonic float in the Frontier Days parade, both subject to no one appearing in Masonic clothing.

Resolutions passed provided mandatory retirement for Grand Lodge employees, (including the Grand Secretary) at age 70, widened the scope of permitted Grand Lodge investments, and increased the per capita to Grand Lodge from $4 to $6.

The most interesting committee report was that of a Special Committee on Policy and Purpose. Their report, on 15 matters, generally listed both pros and cons of suggested action, gave the committee "opinions and thoughts," and, where there was a consensus, made recommendations. They believed that the proficiency tests did need to be re-evaluated; that, with present day communications, the time factor in handling petitions could be shortened; that the Grand Master should set up a committee to define the term "solicitation"; that Table Lodges had established their merit in other jurisdictions; that Grand Lodge regalia needed replacement (by installments); that Grand Lodge should commission a more simple design for a P.G.M.'s jewel (because of cost); that accounting changes be approved and per capita raised; that pensions for employees be approved and a mandatory retirement age set; and that Grand Lodge would be advised to consider a permanent HQ at Casper. Your reviewer liked the setup of the report, - both sides clearly stated and considered advice tendered to Grand Lodge and to the Grand Master.

Installation of the new Grand Lodge Officers was open.

APPENDIX "A" ADDRESS BY V.W. BRO. B. C. MATTHEWS AT THE GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET JULY 15, 1981

THE GRAND MASTER: I am now going to ask M.W. Bro. B. B. Foster to introduce the speaker.

M.W. BRO. B. B. FOSTER:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished Guests and Delegates to this Grand Lodge:

It is my great pleasure to introduce our speaker this evening. V.W. Bro. Burton Clarke Matthews was born in the Village of Kerwood, just west of London, Ontario, where he received his primary education. His secondary school education was acquired at nearby Watford.

He attended the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph; received his degree of B.S.A. from the University of Toronto in 1947 (majoring in chemistry); received his Master's degree in 1948 from the University of Missouri; and his Doctor's degree in 1952 from Cornell. Bro. Matthews attended Oxford University in 1960-61 as a Post Doctoral Fellow in the Department of Agriculture. He received his Honorary Doctorate in 1979 from Sherbrooke University. Along the way he qualified for six academic awards which helped him in his quest for higher education. During his undergraduate years he found time to play football and was cocaptain of the team and in 1946 was chosen to receive the Ted Wildman Trophy as the most valuable player.

Professionally, he began at the OAC as a lecturer in 1948 and by 1957 he had been made a full professor in Soil Science and later, in 1962, became Chairman of the Department. In 1966 he was appointed Vice-President, academic, of the University of Guelph; in 1970 received his appointment as President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Waterloo, a post he has filled for two terms. Over the years Bro. Matthews has filled positions of responsibility (President - Chairman-Director) of eleven societies related to Soil Science and is presently a member of six more related to the educational field. Bro. Matthews is presently a Director of the Campbell Soup Co. Ltd. In 1979-80 he was appointed by the Ontario Government to chair the Commission to review the Collective Negotiation Process between teachers and school boards. At the present time Bro. Matthews is a member of eleven professional societies — his community activities extend into the fields of Boy Scouts, YMCA, Rotary Club and "Participaction." In addition to all of this, Bro. Matthews has published many scientific papers and reports on Soil Science.

Masonically speaking, he was initiated into Waverley Lodge No. 361, Guelph, in 1957; served as Worshipful Master in 1969-70 and was appointed Grand Superintendent of Works in 1977.

Brethren, would you welcome V.W. Bro. B. C. Matthews.

V.W. BRO. B. C. MATTHEWS

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, Distinguished Guests, and Brethren all:

It is a great privilege as well as a humbling experience for me to be invited to speak at the Grand Master's Banquet on this 126th Communication of Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

As I look over this vast sea of faces, I do confess to some trepidation. I recall the words of the Duke of Wellington when viewing a consignment of recruits newly arrived at the battlefield:

"I do not know what effect these men will have upon the enemy but they certainly terrify me."

I thank you for a most gracious and generous introduction. I might remark as Mark Twain did in similar circumstances:

"My father would have enjoyed it."

My mother would have believed it."

I have found that the remarks which introduce and thank speakers often contain nuggets of humour or perceptive insight. Some years ago, as a member of our local Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen, I was asked to present a cheque to St. Monica's House to assist in its support of unwed mothers. On the appointed day, I arrived at the home to find residents gathered in the living room.

Following my brief remarks and the presentation, a young mother-to-be arose and somewhat nervously began an expression of thanks. But as she proceeded she became increasingly enthusiastic in her expression of gratitude ending her remarks by saying, "in fact, if it were not for the men in the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen, some of us would not be here."

It was nearly a year ago that I accepted the Grand Master's invitation to speak on this occasion. I did so, overwhelmed by the honour of being invited and calm in my delusion that July 15, 1981, was then a long time way. As always happens, however, time flew quickly by and I ultimately found myself, as this evening approached, becoming more desperate in my determination to prepare these remarks. The kind of determination mixed with desperation that I saw personified some years ago as my wife and I were travelling on vacation. We stopped overnight at a small motel in the northern area of Florida, an attractive place, with comfortable rooms. The dining room was nicely set up with large picture windows overlooking a broad expanse of lawn sloping down to a small stream that wound its way through the property.

Through most of the night there was a heavy downpour of rain. As we entered the dining room for breakfast, we saw that the stream had become a torrent, had overflowed its banks and the water was actually lapping against the building just below the windowsills. As we sat waiting for our breakfast and observing the watery scene, we noticed a hat floating on the water. Strangely the hat floated first one way and then the other, occasionally making right-angled turns. I assumed that there must be some strange currents out there until I drew it to the attention of the owner of the motel. He watched for a few moments then the explanation dawned on him. He said, "That must be Grandpa's hat. He said yesterday that he was going to cut the lawn this morning, come hell or high water."

I am, in truth, deeply honoured to be invited to be the speaker at the Grand Master's Banquet. I am honoured because of the person of our Grand Master. I have had the privilege and pleasure of knowing Rick Richards during a longer period of time than almost anyone else in this room. It was in the spring of 1945, more than 36 years ago, that I first met our then future Grand Master. As a young undergraduate I was offered a summer job as his assistant in soil surveys. We spent several summers working and living together in the field in various parts of rural Ontario. We continued as colleagues at Guelph until 11 years ago when I went to Waterloo as President of the University of Waterloo.

Twenty-five years ago, following his example and with his personal sponsorship, I was made a Mason. And now on his last day in the office of Grand Master, I have the opportunity to pay tribute to this man, a long-time friend, one who has given exemplary service to the Craft, one who has provided dedicated leadership at every level in this jurisdiction of Masonry, and one who makes friends for himself and for Masonry wherever he goes. I offer you, Most Worshipful Sir, congratulations and our gratitude for the unexcelled service you have given in this most exalted office.

I am honoured, also, to be at this podium tonight because I am very much aware of the long line of outstanding men and Masons who have graced this lectern. Men whose experience and wisdom have enlightened us all.

I am honoured, too, because this is the largest annual gathering of Masons in Canada, with a large number of distinguished Masonic leaders from many other jurisdictions in the United States and Canada and other parts of the world.

It is not easy to select a focus for an address to this assembly. In the presence of so many knowledgeable and expert brethren, it would be presumptuous, even foolhardy, for me to attempt to offer any new insights in Masonry. And so I have chosen what for me is "Higher Ground" — I will speak for a few moments about Knowledge (its place in modern society), the University, and Moral Values.

Masonry and the University have traditionally honoured knowledge even though society generally has only recently paid much respect to knowledge; the University, which is devoted to knowledge, has a long standing commitment to moral values; and Masonry and the University are thus conjoined in the great task of serving mankind.

When I became a Mason, I was immediately impressed by the fact that Masonry gives such pride of place to knowledge and to truth — and that it has done so throughout the ages. This "beautiful system of morality" constantly reminds us of the intimate relationship between knowledge and moral precepts.

Have you ever counted the number of times in Masonry that reference is made to knowledge and to learning? Some examples,

-- "knowledge grounded in accuracy, aided by labour and promoted by preseverance"

- —"the paths of virtue and of science"
- -"make the liberal arts and sciences your future study"
- —"extend your researches into the hidden mysteries of nature and science."

It is remarkable that Masonry should have accorded such honour and respect to knowledge when one considers that it is only in recent times, within this century in fact, that knowledge, as such, has commanded any real respect in society-at-large. In fact, society has traditionally revered the products of knowledge but not always knowledge itself. Two hundred years ago the industrial revolution exploded upon the world, based on new machines and new products of all kinds which served to make men's lives more comfortable. More than that, knowledge is one of the prime bases for the social wealth which we enjoy.

Kenneth Galbraith has said, "In the Eighteenth Century and the millennia before that, wealth in all civilized society was largely expressed in land. In the Nineteenth Century, capital replaced land as the decisive factor in economic success." He goes on to argue that in this century, knowledge itself has become the decisive factor and the high estate of knowledge in our society is a reflection of that fact. As Claude Bissell, a former President of the University of Toronto, has remarked, "Today knowledge commands great respect and its possessors command increasingly high financial rewards."

The University has always played a central role in the development and dissemination of knowledge in atomic energy, the computer and the magic of electronics, the biochemistry of life itself and the genetic manipulation of organisms both large and small.

The University also plays a major role in educating more and more people — people who recognize that knowledge is a necessary and useful commodity in today's world. For these reasons and others, governments in Canada have during the last thirty years, allocated massive amounts of money to the support of Universities.

For example, in 1950, there were only five Universities in the Province of Ontario — all of them small and each largely independent of government sources of funds. But during the 1950's, the demand for knowledge as evidenced by increasing numbers of people who wanted to attend University, encouraged the government to allocate more and more money to the support of post-secondary education. By 1964, there were fifteen Universities in Ontario supported from the public purse to the extent of $250 million per year. In 1981, more than one billion dollars will be spent in government support of the University system in Ontario.

The University today is therefore very much in the public domain and a central force in the material progress of our society and our nation. Yet, it retains a traditional commitment to moral values which derives, in part, from the fact that it arose 900 years ago from within the Christian Church and until recent times has been closely associated with the Church.

Today, the Universities in Ontario are all wards of the state — no longer under the protective shadow of the Church, a situation which some view with great alarm. Cardinal Newman has observed that one could not assume that the modern University, with secularist attitudes and teaching, could also provide a basis for morality.

I do not hold that view. On the contrary, I believe that the University can indeed nourish a set of values and habits of mind that are central to a morality of life.

The twin columns which support a modern University and lead to these values are science and humanistic studies. The pursuit of science and of humanistic study demonstrates and inculcates moral values that are important in men's lives — values that should guide the lives of every one of us.

The methods of science are based on the simple proposition that knowledge can be verified or tested experimentally. So, the scientific method teaches us to honour truth — to acknowledge facts even when our emotions are deeply stirred — to accept facts even when we might wish to believe otherwise. While ultimate truth may escape us, we must learn to conduct our lives in the light of revealed truth, to subordinate our opinions and wishes to objective evidence if we are to avoid fundamental error.

For example, the study of human genetics and human races has revealed a basic truth which, if accepted by all men, should prevent the racial and other discrimination that appears so many times and in so many places today, and not just in far away places. Different colours of skin and different traditions are superficial by comparison with the truth of the all-pervasive similarities that bind the human family together. Hitler said that blacks cannot do that, yet they could; he said Jews are not capable of this, yet they were; he said women are inferior to men, and they are not. In a culture where the truth shows that such statements are without foundation, men's prejudices must fall away.

Secondly, the scientific method teaches us the value of self-discipline through the discipline exhibited by nature — in physics, in chemistry, in biology. We see it in a blade of grass, a drop of water, a crystal — all of these are part of the perfection of the universe. As Confucius put it, "Order is heaven's only law." More recently. Lord Beaverbrook, in his book, Don't Trust to Luck, wrote that man "can only keep his judgement intact, his nerves sound and his mind secure by the process of self-discipline." Self-discipline does not mean the strait jacket of conformity. There must be leeway for the exercise of responsible judgement and freedom of decision. While Nature displays order, she displays that order within a range of acceptable limits. Self-discipline requires us to display that same range and quality.

Thirdly, the scientific method teaches us humility — to subordinate one's own hopes and desires to the demands of reality, Thomas Henry Huxley, a great biological scientist, emphasized this quality of humility in a letter to Charles Kingsley. "Science." he wrote, "seems to me to teach in the highest and strongest manner the great truth which is embodied in the Christian conception of entire surrender to the will of God. Sit down before a fact, as a little child, be prepared to give up every preconceived notion. Follow humbly wherever and to whatever abyss nature leads or you shall learn nothing. I have only begun to learn content and peace of mind since I have resolved at all risks to do this."

From humility comes tolerance, and without humility one cannot give credence to the opinion of others. The virtue of tolerance is sorely needed in the world of today — a world in which so many people seem unwilling or uninterested to acknowledge the rights of others who cherish a different culture or who may, at times, walk at a different pace.

Fourthly, the scientific method teaches us optimism and perseverance. The history of the pursuit of knowledge whether of the internal structure of the atom or of the active agent causing cancer, amply illustrates that Nature does not reveal her secrets easily. Yet, if man is persistent and doggedly pursues her, he does eventually uncover more and more of the hidden mysteries. Every one of us to be a successful seeker after truth and to live a life of moral value must display a spirit of indomitable perseverance. Every worthwhile achievement requires persistence and courage in the face of frustrations. Pasteur said, "My only strength lies in my tenacity."

Optimism and perseverance allow us to accept failure as a part of life — not the end of life.

These moral values — to honour truth, to practice self-discipline, humility and tolerance, optimism and perseverance — which arise from the secular pursuit of scientific knowledge, are not a soft set of rules. They represent a stern morality calling to mind the Old Testament morality of truth, justice and integrity.

These, of course, are not the whole of the morality that we as Masons all profess to admire. The other column that supports the University, the Humanistic Study, offers still more.

Humanism is concerned with the cultivation of certain attitudes of mind that grow out of the study of the great classics of literature, history, and philosophy. It teaches us that not all of the great insights come from systematic persistence and diligence that some of the greatest insights come to the minds of a few rare individuals in flashes of brilliance.

Humanism teaches us to be suspicious of utilitarianism as the only criterion of worth and encourages us to be constructively cautious in our attitude toward program and improvement.

Finally, Humanistic Study teaches us the value of human love and the virtues that arise from it — the virtue of kindness and charity toward others — loyalty and respect within the family.

The Challenge of the Eighties

And so the University and Masonry are at one in their search for knowledge and moral values. The Masonic Foundation of Ontario, through bursaries for university students and in its support of research on multiple sclerosis and its contributions to deafness research, is a practical example of Masonic commitment to education and research.

But the extra challenge facing the University and Masonry is clear. The moral values of truth and justice, humility and tolerance, perseverance sustained by optimism, love, and charity have always been at risk but never more so than today.

In the Seventies, man's knowledge of this world and his ability to manipulate it were greater than ever before. Yet, as the decade ended, critics and pundits seemed unanimous in the view that society today faces a crisis of the human spirit. They disagreed as to the causes — and some of the effects — television, excessive affluence, permissiveness, feminism or simply a resentment that the expectations of the Sixties had not been fulfilled, or even more dispiriting, the unspoken belief that another depression is not only inevitable, but even imminent.

As Richard Gwyn has written. "The vogue phrase was 'the new Narcissism'. Narcissism meant . . . the Cuisinarting of Canada, designer jeans, gucci shoes, the hot tub instead of the cold shower, male cosmetics as the new growth industry, and psychiatrists getting asked on talk shows about sexual anorexia instead of about frigidity or impotence."

The best-sellers of the Seventies bore titles like Winning through Intimidation: Be Your Own Best Friend. The Seventies' people were self-centred — self-assertiveness and self-actualization and self-awareness and self-fulfillment as the imperatives (the beall and end-all) of personal behaviour, They also experienced self-despair.

There are a few bulwarks against such private demons — the Church, the Universities and institutions such as Masonry. Precisely because they are so few, their responsibility is great.

While the growth of knowledge about our world has extended our material comforts — has relieved suffering in many, but not all, parts of the world, the growth of knowledge about ourselves and our use of it, has been less impressive. Perhaps this is because the lessons of humanism, the moral precepts that should guide and direct our actions, must be learned anew by each generation. In any event, the problems of interpersonal relationships, self-despair, the fragmentation of the family, present a new dimension of human conflict — the conflict of the spirit.

This is the new environment in which our institution of Masonry and the University must work. The effectiveness of both depends on the leadership and dedication of all of us who count ourselves as members.

So the University, first under ecclesiastical sponsorship and now with massive secular support, constantly nourishes those basic moral values that make men's lives worthwhile. In that sense the University is at one with Masonry whose "every character figure and emblem has a moral tendency."

As we go forward let us remember that as times change, so must our institutions change. Let us by all means hold to that which is good from the past but let us not be afraid to adjust creatively within ourselves and our institutions to resolve the new problems and opportunities that now face the human race.

Let me close with the words of Abraham Lincoln in his second annual message to Congress in December, 1862. I have recalled these words many times when faced with difficult decisions. They contain an admonition — an admonition that one can apply in his personal life, in our Masonic Craft, in our public or private avocations and in the resolutions of the problems currently facing our nations.

"The dogmas of the quiet past are inadequate to the stormy present. The occasion is piled high with difficulty and we must rise to the occasion. As our case is new, so we must think and act anew."

Brethren, as we come to the end of this 126th Communication, let us go forward with renewed enthusiasm, sustained by the traditions of our institutions, and find in every difficulty a new opportunity. "Such should be the nature of our institution."

Appreciation to Guest Speaker by R.W. Bro. H. O. Polk, Deputy Grand Master.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished Guests, Very Worshipful Brother Dr. Matthews, and my Brethren.

It is an honour for me to be privileged to express thanks to our speaker on behalf of the more than 2,100 Masons attending this banquet. I am certain, V.W. Bro. Matthews will agree, that nothing I may say would indicate to him the appreciation of this great body of members of our Fraternity so much as the intensity of the attention that was afforded him throughout his excellent address.

It is obvious from your dissertation, Sir, that in vocation and in the stimulating environment of centres of learning you have developed an ability that would appeal to those seeking knowledge by a magnetic, imaginative, and exciting attitude to the profession to which you have devoted so many years of service. You no doubt came into the system at a time when educational Institutions could retain the fire of excellence because they were not so freighted with requirements, not so bound by curriculum guides that would discourage initiative, creativity and response to individual needs. As a consequence, you have acquired the qualities so necessary to become a master in your profession — love of academic discipline, love for the challenge presented by the untrained minds of youth, and a love for dedicated service to mankind.

It is both thrilling and gratifying for this assembly to realize we have a Brother of our Craft in our jurisdiction so gifted and talented to come before us, as our Speaker, at the Grand Master's Banquet on this the occasion of the 126th Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge.

V.W. Bro. Matthews, it is my happy privilege to express to you our sincere appreciation for the inspiring address you have given us this evening.

Thank you very much.
